Speak Easilyparlor Bedroom Bath:

The Fall of Buster Keaton James L. Neibaur, 2010-07-16 Born into a family of vaudevillians Buster Keaton made his first film appearance in 1917 at the age of 21 By the early 1920s he had established himself as one of the geniuses of silent cinema with such films as Sherlock Jr and The Navigator and his 1925 work The General placed at number 18 in the American Film Institute's poll of the 100 greatest features the highest ranked silent film on the survey But with the advent of sound in the late 1920s silent stars like Keaton began to fall out of favor and the great comedian's career began to decline In The Fall of Buster Keaton James Neibaur assesses Keaton's work during the talking picture era especially those made at MGM Educational and Columbia studios While giving some attention to the early part of Keaton's career Neibaur focuses on Keaton's contract work with the three studios as well as his subsequent work as a gagman supporting player and television pitchman The book also recounts the resurgence of interest in Keaton's silent work which resulted in a lifetime achievement Oscar and worldwide recognition before his death in 1966 This fascinating account of an artist's struggle and triumph during the more challenging period of his career will be of interest to anyone wanting to learn about one of film's most influential performers

Buster Keaton James Curtis, 2022-02-15 One of Literary Hub's Five Most Critically Acclaimed Biographies of 2022 From acclaimed cultural and film historian James Curtis a major biography the first in more than two decades of the legendary comedian and filmmaker who elevated physical comedy to the highest of arts and whose ingenious films remain as startling innovative modern and irresistible today as they were when they beguiled audiences almost a century ago It is brilliant I was totally absorbed couldn't stop reading it and was very sorry when it ended Kevin Brownlow It was James Agee who christened Buster Keaton The Great Stone Face Keaton's face Agee wrote ranked almost with Lincoln's as an early American archetype it was haunting handsome almost beautiful yet it was also irreducibly funny Keaton was the only major comedian who kept sentiment almost entirely out of his work and he brought pure physical comedy to its greatest heights Mel Brooks A lot of my daring came from Keaton Martin Scorsese influenced by Keaton's pictures in the making of Raging Bull The only person who had the right attitude about boxing in the movies for me Scorsese said was Buster Keaton Keaton's deadpan stare in a porkpie hat was as recognizable as Charlie Chaplin's tramp and Harold Lloyd's straw boater and spectacles and with W C Fields the four were each considered a comedy king but Keaton was and still is considered to be the greatest of them all His iconic look and acrobatic brilliance obscured the fact that behind the camera Keaton was one of our most gifted filmmakers Through nineteen short comedies and twelve magnificent features he distinguished himself with such seminal works as Sherlock Jr The Navigator Steamboat Bill Jr The Cameraman and his masterpiece The General Now James Curtis admired biographer of Preston Sturges definitive Variety W C Fields by far the fullest fairest and most touching account we have yet had Or are likely to have Richard Schickel front page of The New York Times Book Review and Spencer Tracy monumental definitive Kirkus Reviews gives us the richest most comprehensive life to date of the legendary actor stunt
