Speak Palestine Speak Again:

Speak, Bird, Speak Again Ibrahim Muhawi, Sharif Kanaana, 2021-11-02 Over the course of several years Ibrahim Muhawi and Sharif Kanaana collected tales from the regions of the Galilee Gaza and the West Bank and selected those that best represent the Palestinian Arab folk narrative tradition Combining their expertise in English literature and anthropology they bring to these folktales an integral method of study that unites a sensitivity to language with a deep appreciation for culture Great care has been taken with the translations to maintain the original flavor humor and cultural nuances in tales that are at once earthy and whimsical and that also parallel stories found in the larger Arab folk tradition Provided by publisher God Speaks Again in Palestine Pearl Nixon Sigler, 1935 Palestine Speaks Mateo Hoke, Cate Malek, 2021-10-05 The occupation of the West Bank and Gaza has been one of the world's most widely reported yet least understood human rights crises for over four decades In this oral history collection men and women from Palestine including a fisherman a settlement administrator and a marathon runner describe in their own words how their lives have been shaped by the historic crisis Other narrators include ABEER a young journalist from Gaza City who launched her career by covering bombing raids on the Gaza Strip IBTISAM the director of a multi faith children's center in the West Bank whose dream of starting a similar center in Gaza has so far been hindered by border closures GHASSAN an Arab Christian physics professor and activist from Bethlehem who co founded the International Solidarity Movement For more than six decades Israel and Palestine have been the global focal point of intractable conflict one that has led to one of the world's most widely reported yet least understood human rights crises In their own words men and women from West Bank and Gaza describe how their lives have been shaped by the conflict Here are stories that humanize the oft ignored violations of human rights that occur daily in the occupied Palestinian territories Palestinian Women of Gaza and the West Bank Suha Sabbagh, 1998-03-22 takes a new look at the situation in one of the hottest spots on the globe and asks what impact the politicization of women will have on the lives of people in the emerging Palestinian state NWSA Journal This volume introduces the reader to the social and political roles and challenges faced by women of Arab Palestinian society Even Arabic commentators have failed to accurately assess the contributions of women within the struggles of Gaza and the West Bank These essays written from an insider's perspective show how Palestinian women confront issues of gender feminism and the national agenda Catastrophe and Exile in the Modern Palestinian Imagination I. Saloul, 2012-05-17 Catastrophe and Exile in the Modern Palestinian Imagination explores the cultural memory of al Nakba 1948 Israeli independence or The Catastrophe as it is known in Palestine and its significance to the modern Palestinian imagination Ihab Saloul addresses central concepts to debates over identity such as nostalgia and trauma notions of home and forced travel and geopolitical continuity of loss of place Through an integrated method of close narrative and discursive analysis of diverse literary texts films and personal narratives this study offers an analytical account of the preservation of cultural optimism in the face of the ongoing catastrophe as well as the ways in which aesthetics and politics intersect in contemporary Palestinian culture Folk Stories and Personal Narratives in Palestinian Spoken Arabic N. Sirhan, 2014-05-13 By analysing the folk stories and personal narratives of a cross section of Palestinians Sirhan offers a detailed study of how content and sociolinguistic variables affect a narrator's language use and linguistic behaviour This book will be of interest to anyone engaged with narrative discourse gender discourse Arabic studies and linguistics The Folktales of Palestine Farah Aboubakr, 2019-03-21 Folktales are instrumental in ensuring the survival of oral traditions and strengthening communal bonds Both the stories and the process of storytelling itself help to define social cultural and political identity For Palestinians the threat of losing their heritage has engendered a sense of urgency among storytellers and Palestinian folklorists Yet there has been remarkably little academic scholarship dedicated to the tradition Farah Aboubakr here analyses a selection of folktales edited compiled and translated by Ibrahim Muhawi and Sharif Kanaana in Speak Bird Speak Again 1989 In addition to the folktales themselves Muhawi and Kanaana's collection is renowned for providing readers with extensive folkloric historical and anthropological annotations Here for the first time the folktales and the compilers work on them are the subject of scholarly analysis Synthesising various disciplines including memory studies gender studies and social movement studies Aboubakr uses the collection to understand the politics of storytelling and its impact on Palestinian identity In particular the book draws attention to the female storytellers who play an essential role in transmitting and preserving collective memory and culture The book is an important step towards analysing a significant genre of Palestinian literature and will be relevant to scholars of Palestinian politics and popular culture gender studies and memory studies and those interested in folklore and oral literature Speak, Bird, Speak Again Ibrahim Muhawi, Sharif Kanā'nah, 1989 A collection of Palestinian Arab folktales which reflect the culture and highlights the role of women in the society Traditional Storytelling Today Margaret Read MacDonald, 2013-12-16 Traditional Storytelling Today explores the diversity of contemporary storytelling traditions and provides a forum for in depth discussion of interesting facets of contemporary storytelling Never before has such a wealth of information about storytelling traditions been gathered together Storytelling is alive and well throughout the world as the approximately 100 articles by more than 90 authors make clear Most of the essays average 2 000 words and discuss a typical storytelling event give a brief sample text and provide theory from the folklorist A comprehensive index is provided Bibliographies afford the reader easy access to additional resources Sir Ronald Storrs Christopher Burnham, 2024-09-09 This volume utilises the personal papers of Sir Ronald Storrs as well as other archival materials to make a microhistorical investigation of his period as Governor of Jerusalem between 1917 and 1926 It builds upon Edward Said's work on the Orientalist determining imprint by arguing that Storrs took a deeply personal approach to governing the city one determined by his upbringing his education in the English private school system and his service as a British official in Colonial Egypt It recognises the influence of these experiences on Storrs' perceptions of and attitudes towards Jerusalem identifying how these formative years manifested themselves on the city and in the Governor's interactions with Jerusalemites of all backgrounds and religious beliefs. It also highlights the restrictions placed on Storrs' approach by his British superiors, Palestinians, and the Zionist movement, alongside the limitations imposed by his own attitudes and worldview. Placing Storrs' personality at the centre of discussion on early Mandate Jerusalem exposes a nuanced and complex picture of how personality and politics collided to influence its everyday life and built environment. The book is aimed at historians and students of the late Ottoman Empire and British Mandate in Palestine, colonialism and imperialism, and microhistory.
