Speaking Cure A Novel:

Narrative and Identity in the Ancient Greek Novel Tim Whitmarsh, 2011-04-07 The Greek romance was for the Roman period what epic was for the Archaic period or drama for the Classical the central literary vehicle for articulating ideas about the relationship between self and community This book offers a reading of the romance both as a distinctive narrative form using a range of narrative theories and as a paradigmatic expression of identity social sexual and cultural At the same time it emphasises the elasticity of romance narrative and its ability to accommodate both conservative and transformative models of identity This elasticity manifests itself partly in the variation in practice between different romancers some of whom are traditionally Hellenocentric while others are more challenging Ultimately however it is argued that it reflects a tension in all romance narrative which characteristically balances centrifugal against centripetal dynamics This book will interest classicists historians of the novel and students of narrative theory

From the Man Booker Prize winning author of The Sea, the Sea and one of the most significant novelists of her generation The Guardian A consummate storyteller British author Iris Murdoch grappled with questions of morality as well as the nature of love in novels that are every bit as entertaining as they are thought provoking The Independent Over the span of her career the prodigiously inventive Murdoch was the recipient of the Man Booker Prize the Whitbread Literary Award and the James Tait Black Memorial Prize The New York Times A Word Child Twenty years ago Hilary Burde was one of the most promising scholars at Oxford a student with a rare talent for linguistics and an unquenchable drive until the accident Now forty one and a decidedly ordinary failure Hilary finds his quietly angry routine shattered when his old professor reappears a man whose own demons are tied to Hilary's and the tragedy from years ago As the two men begin to circle each other again digging up old wrongs and seeking forgiveness for long buried ills they find themselves on a path that will either grant them both redemption or end in their mutual destruction Marvelous riveting fine and elegant Los Angeles Times An Unofficial Rose Hugh Peronett's life is tinged with regret Twenty five years ago he ended an affair with Emma Sands a detective novelist who had stolen his heart to be with his wife Fanny Now Fanny is gone and both Hugh and his grown son Randall find themselves at a crossroads of passion and righteousness As Hugh Emma Randall Randall's wife Randall's mistress and several others are caught in a dance of romance and rejection in bucolic rural England they search for the true meanings of love companionship and desire A Shakespearean comedy of misaligned lovers minus the spirits and potions Here the characters are responsible for their own actions and Murdoch delights in painting these young middle aged and elderly adventurers and the psychological processes that direct their actions Publishers Weekly Bruno's Dream With not much time left to live Bruno makes a final request to those who care for him He wishes to see his estranged son Miles once more After decades of broken contact due to Miles marrying a woman Bruno once found unsuitable the prodigal son returns home and finds himself confronting much more than a dying man's last demand As Miles his wife and his sister in law Bruno's son in law Danby and Bruno's nurses and aides gather at this deathbed vigil they become entangled in a web of affairs Shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize Bruno's Dream explores the turbulent passions and bitter grudges that will change them all even long after Travels in Cuba Marie-Louise Gay, David Homel, 2021-05-01 Even for an experienced traveler like Charlie Cuba is a place unlike any he has visited before an island full of surprises secrets and puzzling contradictions. When Charlie's artist mother is invited to visit a school in Cuba the whole family goes along on the trip. But the island they discover is a far cry from the all inclusive resorts that Charlie has heard his friends talk about. Charlie has never visited a country as strange and puzzling as Cuba a country where he often feels like a time traveler. Where Havana's grand Hotel Nacional sits next to buildings that seem to be crumbling before his very eyes. Where the streets are filled with empty storefronts and packs of wild dogs but where flowers and sherbet colored houses may lie around the next corner and music is everywhere. Where there are many different kinds of walls from Havana's famous sea wall to the invisible ones that seem aimed at keeping tourists and locals apart. Then the family heads off the beaten track traveling by hot dusty bus to Viñales where Charlie makes friends with Lázaro who often flies from Miami to visit his Cuban relatives. The boys ride a horse bareback find a secret cache of rifles inside a little green mountain and go swimming with small albino fish in an underground cave. A rent-a-wreck takes the family into the countryside where they find an abandoned hotel inhabited by goats and a modern resort filled with tourists. And as he goes from one strange and marvelous escapade to another Charlie finds that his expectations about a place and its people are overturned again and again.

The Travels with My Family Bundle Marie-Louise Gay, David Homel, 2016-10-16 Travels with My Family Family vacations are supposed to be something to look forward to. Unless that is your parents have a habit of turning every outing into a risky proposition by accident of course. So instead of dream vacations to Disney World and motels with swimming pools these parents are always looking for that out of the way destination where other tourists don't go. Their adventures involve eating grasshoppers in Mexico forgetting the tide schedule while collecting sand dollars off the coast of Georgia and mistaking alligators for logs in the middle of Okefenokee Swamp. On the Road Again In the sequel to Travels With My Family the family is on the road again this time to spend a year in a tiny village in southern France. They experience the spring migration of sheep up to the mountain pastures the annual running of the bulls in which Charlie's father is trapped in a phone booth by a raging bull and other adventures large and small. Most of all though Charlie and his little brother Max grow fond of their new neighbors the man who steals ducks from the local river the neighbor's dog who sleeps right in the middle of the street and their new friends Rachid and Ahmed who teach them how to play soccer in the village square Summer in the City Charlie can't wait for school to be over But he's wondering what particular vacation ordeal his parents have lined up for the family this summer Canoeing with alligators in Okefenokee Getting caught in the middle of a revolutionary shootout in Mexico Or perhaps another trip abroad Turns out this summer the family is staying put in their hometown Montreal Canada A staycation his parents call it Charlie is doubtful at first but ever resourceful decides that there may be adventures and profit to be had in his own neighborhood The Traveling Circus Charlie and his family are about to embark on another trip to another out of the way place off the beaten path This time they are heading to an island in Croatia a country Charlie has never even heard of An incredibly beautiful country that lives in the shadow of war and conflict Even for a seasoned traveler like Charlie Croatia is a very different experience To travel in a country where the language is completely unfamiliar and half the words have no vowels To visit remote villages where the Internet is so slow you might as well not have it at all Where goats are a traffic calming device red cliffs loom like fortresses over an impossibly blue sea and luggage porters are a line of women pushing wheelbarrows
