Speaking Of A Personal God An Essay In Philosophical Theology:

Speaking of a Personal God Vincent Brümmer,1992-11-05 This short work written by an influential philosopher of religion shows how systematic theology is itself largely a philosophical enterprise

Speaking of a Personal God Gary Colwell,1993 Philosophical Theologies in South Africa: Genealogies, Traditions, and Speculations Khegan M.

Delpont,2024-10-22 The relationship between philosophy and theology has been a live question since the origins of Christianity Attending to a genealogy of how theology and philosophy have been related is important for conceiving their ongoing engagement However the question of context of where they are so related and practiced has only recently begun to be reflected upon The current volume aims to make a contribution to this recounting by focusing on some of the ways theology and philosophy have been and are being interfaced in the Global South and more specifically in South Africa

Ordinary Christology Ann Christie,2016-05-13 Ordinary Christology is defined as the account of who Jesus was is and what he did does that is given by Christian believers who have received no formal theological education In this fascinating study Ann Christie analyses and offers a theological appraisal of the main christologies and soteriologies operating in a sample of ordinary churchgoers Christie highlights the formal characteristics of ordinary Christology and raises questions about how we should respond to the beliefs about Jesus held by ordinary churchgoers Empirical findings have important pastoral theological and missiological implications and raise important questions about the importance or otherwise of right belief for being Christian This book presents a model for how the study of ordinary theology can be conducted with the in depth theological analysis and critique which it both requires and deserves OCR Religious Studies A Level Year 2 Michael

Ingolf U. Dalferth,2006 Safeguarding the distinction between God and world has always been a basic interest of negative theology But sometimes it has overemphasized divine transcendence in a way that made it difficult to account for the sense of God s present activity and experienced actuality Deconstructivist criticisms of the Western metaphysics of presence have made this even more difficult to conceive On the other hand there has been a widespread attempt in recent years to base all theology on religious experience the Christian church celebrates God's presence in its central sacraments of baptism and Eucharist and recent process thought has re conceptualised God's presence in panentheistic terms This is the background against which this book outlines a theology of the Christian sense of the presence of God The first chapter traces the rise and fall of rational religion in Modernity and argues that we should replace philosophical theism not by a unspecified religious sense of the whole but by a specific sense of the presence of God The second chapter analyses the notion of divine presence and outlines different ways of understanding the real presence of God The third chapter discusses the problem of whether and how God's presence can be discerned given the fact that there is no presence of God that is not tinged by God's absence Chapter four distinguishes various modes of divine presence with their corresponding modes of human apprehension Chapter five takes up the charge that presence is an impossibility in a critical discussion of the debate between Derrida and Marion about the impossibility of gift Chapter six asks how God's presence is conceived and communicated looking in particular to music as a means of representing and communicating the awareness of God's presence The final chapter outlines how the sense of the presence of God can be presented and defended in a world of many religions and cultures with their often conflicting religious convictions and representations Religion and the Good Life Marcel Sarot, W. Stoker, 2022-01-04

Studies in Theology and Religion 10 In this volume fourteen philosophers of religion reflect on religious views of the good life Some authors focus on positive religion and its specific religious representations of the good life while others abstract from these and focus on philosophical religion and its conceptual articulations of the good life The tension between positive religion and philosophical religion between representation and concept is itself also analyzed This volume is a result of the cooperation of the philosophers of religion who are senior members of the Netherlands School for Advanced Studies in Theology and Religion NOSTER Religion and the Good Life Religion and the Good Life Introduction Marcel Sarot Utrecht and Wessel Stoker Amsterdam PART I THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN REPRESENTATION AND CONCEPT The Tension between Representation and Concept as a Challenge for Philosophy of Religion Peter Jonkers Utrecht Beyond Representation and Concept The Language of Testimony R D N van Riessen Kampen PART II THE TENSION BETWEEN REPRESENTATION AND CONCEPT Seduction and Guidance Some Remarks on the Ambiguities of Reason and Reflective Thought in Connection with Religion and the Good Life W Dupr Nijmegen The Good Life is Historical Ben Vedder Nijmegen The Quality of Life Comic Vision in Charles Dickens and Iris Murdoch Henry Jansen Amsterdam Narrative Atonement and the Christian Conception of the Good Life Gijsbert van den Brink Leyden Myths and the Good Life Ricoeur's Hermeneutical Approach to Myth Wessel Stoker Amsterdam Bhajans and their Symbols Religious Hermeneutics of the Good Life Hendrik M Vroom Amsterdam PART III REPRESENTATIONS OF THE GOOD LIFE Models of the Good Life Marcel Sarot Utrecht The Highest Good and the Kingdom of God in the Philosophy of Kant A Moral Concept and a Religious Metaphor of the Good Life Donald Loose Tilburg Rotterdam Jacques Derrida and Messianity Victor Kal Amsterdam Skepticism and the Meaning of Life Michael Scott

Manchester Ultimate Happiness and the Love of God Vincent Brummer Utrecht Human Being and the Natural Desire for God Reflections on the Natural and the Supernatural Eef Dekker Utrecht Theology of the Old Testament Walter Brueggemann, 2012-06-01 In this powerful book Walter Brueggemann moves the discussion of Old Testament theology beyond the dominant models of previous generations Brueggemann focuses on the metaphor and imagery of the courtroom trial in order to regard the theological substance of the Old Testament as a series of claims asserted for Yahweh the God of Israel This provides a context that attends to pluralism in every dimension of the interpretive process and suggests links to the plurality of voices of our time Almighty God Gijsbert van den Brink, 1993 Peeters 1993 Exploring Mormon Thought Blake T. Ostler, 2006-03-01 In volume 2 of the series Exploring Mormon Thought The Problems of Theism and the Love of God Blake Ostler explores issues related to soteriology or the theory of salvation He argues that the commitment that God loves us and respects our dignity as persons entails that God must leave us free to choose whether to have a saving relationship with him He explores the logic of love and argues that the LDS doctrine of a war in heaven embodies the commitment that God leaves us free to choose whether to enter into relationship with God He explores the nature of inter personal prayer and the contributions of LDS beliefs to a robust prayer dialogue He offers a view consistent with LDS commitments that makes sense out of asking God to assist others to alter the natural environment and to grow in relationship with God He then turns to the concept of grace and argues that the traditional views lead to insurmountable problems He argues that though God does not owe any obligation to us to give us grace God does so out of love However because divinity arises from loving relationships he argues that God could not fail to give sufficient grace to all persons and remain a loving God
