Comic Book Film Style Dru Jeffries, 2017-09-05 Superhero films and comic book adaptations dominate contemporary Hollywood filmmaking and it is not just the storylines of these blockbuster spectacles that have been influenced by comics The comic book medium itself has profoundly influenced how movies look and sound today as well as how viewers approach them as texts Comic Book Film Style explores how the unique conventions and formal structure of comic books have had a profound impact on film aesthetics so that the different representational abilities of comics and film are put on simultaneous display in a cinematic work With close readings of films including Batman The Movie American Splendor Superman Hulk Spider Man 2 V for Vendetta 300 Scott Pilgrim vs the World Watchmen The Losers and Creepshow Dru Jeffries offers a new and more cogent definition of the comic book film as a stylistic approach rather than a genre repositioning the study of comic book films from adaptation and genre studies to formal stylistic analysis He discusses how comic book films appropriate comics drawn imagery vandalize the fourth wall with the use of graphic text dissect the film frame into discrete panels and treat time as a flexible construct rather than a fixed flow among other things This cinematic remediation of comic books formal structure and unique visual conventions Jeffries asserts fundamentally challenges the classical continuity paradigm and its contemporary variants placing the comic book film at the forefront of stylistic experimentation in post classical Hollywood

Writing Talk Alex Hamilton, 2012 In his long career in literary journalism Alex Hamilton has probably met and talked in depth to more of our great writers than anyone else from the most critically acclaimed to the most hard nosed bestsellers from novelists to cartoonists and in every genre from Thrillers and Whodunnits to Short Stories from Poetry to Science Fiction This selection from a life s work gives us a stimulating and rare insight into the minds and lives of some of the most fascinating creators of our modern culture It s a book that contains many surprises in the revelations given by some of the authors about their struggles and victories the serious or humorous commitments made by them and their addiction to the kind of fiction they like to write The reader will soon realise that no two of these eighty five featured authors such as Kurt Vonnegut Angela Carter Stephen King Daphne du Maurier Ian McEwan Jorge Luis Borges Graham Greene or Margaret Atwood are alike Splendidly informative and serious Writing Talk is also often very funny a book to dip into as the mood takes or to dive into hungrily It will appeal to those with a passion for books and for the people who have written them I ve been fortunate to talk to so many marvellous writers Gathering some of these conversations into a book rather than their brief life in a daily newspaper offers a chance for readers to share my pleasure and to introduce a new generation to some past greats says Alex Hamilton behind his reason to create Writing Talk

Porch Talk with Ernest Gaines Marcia Gaudet, Carl Wooton, 1999-03-01 Ernest J Gaines the author of many acclaimed works of fiction including The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman and A Gathering of Old Men was born in 1933 in the small south Louisiana town of Oscar In his childhood the center of his world was the old slave quarters on the River Lake Plantation where five generations of his family lived All of Gaines s books have been set in this general area of Louisiana and though none of his work is strictly autobiographical his writing bears the distinctive stamp of the rural folk culture amid which he was raised Marcia Gaudet and Carl Wooton s Porch Talk with Ernest Gaines is a collection of interviews conducted on the porch of Gaines s home in Lafayette Louisiana where he is writer in residence at the University of Southwestern Louisiana Gaines talks about a variety of topics including the influence of other writers among them

Faulkner Hemingway and Mark Twain on his style and the importance of oral tradition and folk culture to his writing He discusses the major themes of his work such as survival with dignity and the search for manhood and he describes the relationships among the black Creole and Cajun communities of south Louisiana and how they have been portrayed in his fiction Gaines also comments on the craft of writing his role as a teacher the film versions of some of his books his relationships with his agent and editors and his work in progress This is the first book length work on Gaines to be published It will be of importance to scholars and students of American literature particularly southern and Afro American literature because it gives the reader valuable insights into Gaines s life and writing The format and conversational tone of the book will also appeal to the audience drawn to Gaines s fiction
