Spectators Guide To World Religions An Introduction To The Big Five:

A Spectator's Guide to World Religions John Dickson, 2008 In this timely book John Dickson presents each of the world's major religions. He carefully outlines the history, belief systems and spiritual practices of Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Christianity and Islam so that the interested and curious spectator can explore their similarities and differences. Student Handbook, a Spectator's Guide to World Religions Simon Smart, John Dickson, 2004-01-01 In a multi-cultural world with an ever-growing diversity of ethnic and religious belief, the study of comparative religion, worldviews and value systems has never been more relevant. This handbook examines the claims of the world's five major religions: Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Islam and Christianity: what they teach, how they view the world, how they differ from one another and most importantly, challenges the reader to see that these five religions cannot all be true. Written for Year 10 and 11, the student handbook contains a range of stimulating and thought-provoking activities designed to help the student wrestle with the claims of each religion. A Spectator's Guide to World Religions John Dickson, 2008 Examine Your Faith! Pamela Christian, 2013-07 Well, meaning people want to believe that all roads lead to the same God and heaven. But wanting something to be true is far different from truth lining up with reality. Unless you make an intentional effort to examine what you believe and why you believe it, it's quite possible you are living your life on the basis of a lie and don't know it. What is truth? Is it relative or absolute? Is it personal or universal? What are the differences among the various religious faiths? Can they be blended? Are we creating faith, a belief system that is impotent by trying to accept all religions as equal? A Doubter's Guide to World Religions John Dickson, 2022-03-15 For believers and skeptics alike, A Doubter's Guide to World Religions introduces the five major world religions so that you can explore their similarities and differences in a fair and engaging way. The world is a very religious place. Wherever you look, people are worshipping, praying, believing, following, even dying for their faith. But what does it mean to be religious? Are all religions the same? Do they all call on the same God, simply using different names? Are their beliefs and practices simply cultural expressions of the same spiritual longings? Written by historian and theologian John Dickson in his characteristically engaging style, this book presents each of the world's five major systems of faith, carefully outlining the history, doctrines, beliefs and spiritual practices of Hinduism, The Way of Release, Buddhism, The Way of Enlightenment, Judaism, The Way of the Torah, Christianity, The Way of the Christ, Islam, The Way of Submission. In his own words, Dickson acts as an art curator in a gallery, presenting each of these works of art in their best light and letting each have their say. Along the way, he demonstrates the importance of religion in general to society and to individual believers and addresses many of the universal questions that all of these serious and ancient religions ask: Who are we? What is our worth? How should we live? Are we alone? At the end of each section is a bibliography of helpful books and websites for those who are interested in learning even more.
