Speeches By Errol Barrow:

Speeches by Errol Barrow Errol Walton Barrow, 1987 A collection of speeches made by the late Barbadian Prime Minister Errol Barrow giving an important insight into his fight for the region's identity and prosperity In Plenty and in Time of Need Lia T. Bascomb, 2020 In Plenty and in Time of Need uses music and performance as sites of analysis for the competing ideals and realities of Barbadian national culture The book demonstrates complex relations between national gendered and sexual identities in Barbados and how these identities are represented and interpreted on a global stage In the Service of the Public John Reginald P. Dumas, 1995 Reginald Dumas was born in Trinidad and Tobago in 1935 and attended Queen's Royal College Port of Spain Cambridge University and the Institut Universitaire de Haute Etudes Internationales Geneva In 1979-80 he was a Visiting Fellow at Queen Elizabeth House Oxford His non-academic education continues He spent more than 30 years in the Public Service both at home and abroad before retiring in 1991 and is the only person from Trinidad and Tobago to have been Ambassador to Washington the country's top diplomatic post and to the Organization of American States and Permanent Secretary to the Prime Minister and Head of the Public Service He has been interim Executive Director of the Institute of Business at the St Augustine campus of the University of the West Indies and is now a company director and occasional consultant and media commentator Uniquely among Caribbean writers Dumas looks at the region and the world as diplomat public servant and citizen He ranges over a wide spectrum of crucial contemporary issues such as public sector reform illegal drug use and the possible impact of the World Trade Organization He sheds new light on regional affairs such as the 1983 events in Grenada His views often acerbic always penetrating are certain to stimulate thought Paul's Letter to the Romans and Roman Imperialism Ian E Rock, 2017-05-25 Ian E Rock demonstrates that the Letter to the Romans may be seen as an attempt by a subordinate group to redress actual and potential issues of confrontation with the Empire and to offer hope even in the face of death Paul demonstrates that it is God's peace and not Rome's peace that is important that loyalty to the exalted Jesus as Lord and to the kingdom of God not Jupiter and Rome leads to salvation that grace flows from Jesus as Christ and Lord and not from the benefactions of the Emperor If the resurrection of Jesus the crucified criminal of the Roman Empire demonstrates God's power over the universe and death the very instrument of Roman control then the Christ believer is encouraged to face suffering and death in the hope of salvation through this power Paul's theology emerges from and is inextricably bound to the politics of his day the Scriptures of his people and to the critical fact that the God who is One and Lord of all is still in charge of the world

The Political Economy of Gender in the Twentieth-Century Caribbean V. Barriteau, 2001-05-18 Eudine Barriteau exposes the precarious position of women in twentieth-century Caribbean societies through analyzing the operations of gender systems She reveals the absence of gender justice and equity and demonstrates that after twenty-five years of policies on women Caribbean societies still have not confronted the fundamental problem of women's subordination and the conditions that maintain this The strategies used by developing states to focus on women are criticised as inadequate and it is recommended that state and society pay more attention to understanding the lives of women
