

The Sirens

The sirens sing to each other in the street from asphalt to ambush they echo the cry of the fallen soldier

Dragging the wounded from the streets they race to quell the war the crazy time

By dawn they will collapse Exhausted and sleep the restless sleep of mothers

Then

Under cover of darkness

The pilots will fly again

And angry drunken locomotives will collide in the night with swollen fists and broken glass

While the sirens

Sombre

Wait

extracts from his next book Days (Días) Dennis L. Siluk, 2014-07-16 Most folks to include poets prefer poetry on death to entail mostly courage and strength I don't disagree completely with that only partly for submissive suffering is also involved yet many folks just do not want to look at both sides of the dying Nowadays things are changing and it is more permissible yet still bold to mix them together and thus here we have just that I prefer true emotions be it aggressive or passive when going through death voyages for such are during a paramount loss of a loved one dying day by day especially one's mother as in Days In the second section of the book is the prose poem Recapitulations or The Meatpackers Boy autobiographical in content Also a few additional independent poems on Vietnam America An Old Furnace and Commentary Trials of a Poet The third section four new poems Coming of Old Age In section four a letter from Pope Francis to the author quotes and the author's books Much of the poetry in this book Days is done in a free verse style long line form other than the confessional grieving poetry on the death of the poet's mother a very deserted overwhelming human undertaking Rosa Pealoza This is the poet's 47th book 16th in poetry He lives in Lima Peru and in the Andes in Huancayo with his wife Rosa he is from Minnesota and has won numerous awards for his writings Presently working on several books Back picture of the author taken in Huancayo 2011

All Day I Dream About Sirens Domenica Martinello, 2019-04-10 What started as a small sequence of poems about the Starbucks logo grew to monstrous proportions after the poet fell under a siren spell herself All Day I Dream About Sirens is both an ancient reverie and a screen induced stupor as these poems reckon with the enduring cultural fascination with siren and mermaid narratives as they span geographies economies and generations chronicling and reconfiguring the male centered epic and women's bodies and subjectivities

A Longing Like Despair Alan Grob, 2002 A major aim of Grob's study is to show Arnold as poet to be possessed of far greater philosophic depth and subtlety than his critics have usually credited him with by identifying the deep affinities and shared weltanschauung of his poetic vision with the metaphysical pessimism of Schopenhauer the major European philosopher whose insistence on the cosmic opposition between the world as will and the world as idea provided the most important philosophic alternative in the nineteenth century to the age's otherwise dominant progressive historicism Jacket

The Siren and the Seashell Octavio Paz, 2013-05-15 Octavio Paz has long been known for his brilliant essays as well as for his poetry Through the essays he has sought to confront the tensions inherent in the conflict between art and society and to achieve a unity of their polarities The Siren and the Seashell is a collection of Paz's essays focusing on individual poets and on poetry in general The first five poets he treats are Latin American Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Rubén Darío José Juan Tablada Ramón López Velarde and Alfonso Reyes Then there are essays on Robert Frost and E. E. Cummings Saint John Perse Antonio Machado and Jorge Guillén Finally there are Paz's reflections on the poetry of solitude and communion and the literature of Latin America Each essay is more than Paz's impressions of one person or issue each is the occasion for a wider discussion of cultural historical psychological and philosophical themes The essays were selected from Paz's writing between 1942 and 1965 and provide an overview of the development of his thinking and an exploration of the ideas central in his works

The Cotton Belt Dennis L. continue to be an irresistible and important scholarly debate The book offers a provocative study which is accessible to students and general readers and at the same time contributes to the debate Structures of Epic Poetry Christiane Reitz, Simone Finkmann, 2019-12-16 This compendium 4 vols studies the continuity flexibility and variation of structural elements in epic narratives It provides an overview of the structural patterns of epic poetry by means of a standardized stringent terminology Both diachronic developments and changes within individual epics are scrutinized in order to provide a comprehensive structural approach and a key to intra and intertextual characteristics of ancient epic poetry
