Guilford, III,2021-05-05 What started as a daily email blog to close friends and family grew to a sharing of the messages nationwide Life soon overwhelmed me and my blogging decreased Recently I came across these thoughts and was inspired to share with others Life successes setbacks and any other topics that came to mind are included This collection of thoughts and poetry are just my thoughts and ponderings Some were inspired by and others supported by scripture I share with the belief that Just Thinking Vol 1 will be of benefit to someone s spiritual or life journey Baltimore Monday: Celebrating Life Beyond Sexual Abuse Carlos Michael Padilla, Skeletons in the Closet Ronnie Anderson,2018-05-19 Skeletons in the Closet 93 939 words The inheritance of an old Civil War plantation home in Georgia was quite inviting to Glenda and Linda Hemingway especially when it involved a considerable amount of gold Everything was fine until they found a literal skeleton in one of the closets a pentagram painted on the basement floor and the fact that their dog kept bringing in human bones that she had dug up from the yard Queer Nations Jarrod Hayes,2000-04 The Maghreb Morocco Algeria Tunisia has been inhabited for millennia by a heterogeneous populace However in the wake of World War II when independence movements began to gain momentum in these French colonies the dominant national discourses attempted to define national identities by exclusion One rallying cry from the 1930s was Islam is my religion Arabic is my language Algeria is my fatherland In this incisive postcolonial study Jarrod Hayes uses literary analysis to examine how Francophone novelists from the Maghreb engaged in a diametric nation building project Their works imagined a diverse nation peopled by those who were excluded by the dominant political discourses especially those who did not conform to traditional sexual norms By incorporating representations of marginal sexualities sexual dissidence and gender insubordination Maghrebian novelists imagined an anticolonial struggle that would result in sexual liberation and envisioned nations that could be defined and developed inclusively Releasing an Imprisoned Spirit Karen Glumm,2006-11 As a graduate student Karen Glumm experienced two grand mal seizures and was placed on medication After months of reading Glumm realized she had experienced partial seizures as a child but had accepted them as a regular fact of life and not a serious medical condition This acceptance stemmed from her alcoholic parent s coping strategy of hiding deficiencies and deviations from normal behavior in order to continue drinking Glumm mirrored this in her behavior regarding the new and confusing seizures she experienced In this
