   Cultivating Peace Melissa Schoenberger,2019-05-17 Like Virgil who depicted a farmer s scythe suddenly recast as a sword the poets discussed here imagine states of peace and war to be fundamentally and materially linked In distinct ways they dismantle the dream of the golden age renewed proposing instead that peace must be sustained by constant labor

   Christopher Smart and Satire Min Wild,2016-05-23 Christopher Smart and Satire explores the lively and idiosyncratic world of satire in the eighteenth century periodical focusing on the way that writers adopted personae to engage with debates taking place during the British Enlightenment Taking Christopher Smart s audacious and hitherto underexplored Midwife or Old Woman s Magazine 1750 1753 as her primary source Min Wild provides a rich examination of the prizewinning Cambridge poet s adoption of the bizarre sardonic Mary Midnight as his alter ego Her analysis provides insights into the difficult position in which eighteenth century writers were placed as ideas regarding the nature and functions of authorship were gradually being transformed At the same time Wild also demonstrates that Smart s use of Mary Midnight is part of a tradition of learned wit having an established history and characterized by identifiable satirical and rhetorical techniques Wild s engagement with her exuberant source materials establishes the skill and ingenuity of Smart s often undervalued multilayered prose satire As she explores Smart s use of a peculiarly female voice Wild offers us a picture of an ingenious and ribald wit whose satirical overview of society explores overturns and anatomises questions of gender politics and scientific and literary endeavors   The Georgian Era: Voyagers and travellers.
