Smoke And Blue In The Face:

Smoke and Blue in the Face Paul Auster, 1995 Acclaimed author Paul Auster shows the reader how his short story metamorphosed into a feature film starring William Hurt Harvey Keitel Forest Whitaker and Stockard Channing The book includes the short story photos conversations with the actors and Auster and follows the process of a germ of an idea being brought to fruition Three Films Paul Auster, 2003-12-01 From The New York Trilogy to The Book of Illusions and 4 3 2 1 Paul Auster's novels earned him a reputation as one of American's most spectacularly inventive writers Here published together for the first time are the screenplays of the three films he made in the 1990s Smoke starring Harvey Keitel William Hurt Forest Whitaker and Stockard Channing tells the story of a novelist a cigar store manager and a black teenager who unexpectedly cross paths and end up changing each other's lives in indelible ways Set in contemporary Brooklyn Smoke directly inspired Blue in the Face a largely improvised comedy shot in a total of six days A film unlike any other it stars Harvey Keitel with featured performances by Roseanne Lily Tomlin Lou Reed and Michael J Fox Lulu on the Bridge Auster's solo directorial debut again starring Harvey Keitel with Mira Sorvino Willem Dafoe and Vanessa Redgrave opens with the accidental shooting of jazz musician Izzy Maurer during a performance in a New York club Izzy is then led on a journey into the strange and sometimes frightening labyrinth of his soul Both thriller and fairy tale Lulu on the Bridge is above all a story about the redemptive powers of love Smoke & Blue in the face Paul Auster, 1995 Blue in the Face Gerry Swallow, 2017-01-24 A rollicking and humorous tale about a reluctant hero saving a world you only thought you knew Elspeth Pule can throw a tantrum the way a pro quarterback can throw a football So when her parents refuse to buy her a pet alpaca she screams hollers and holds her breath until she passes out cold When she wakes she finds herself in a magical kingdom inhabited by nursery rhyme characters she only thought she knew Humpty Dumpty is a 007 type spy Bo Peep is highly trained in the art of Shaolin stick fighting and Old King Cole is really Old King Krool an evil tyrant who has banished Dumpty Bo Peep and their friends to the forest and to a life of poverty and oppression Self centered as she is Elspeth couldn't care less about their plight But if she ever wants to see home again she will have to make a few new friends and show them that sometimes a good old fashioned tantrum is exactly what's needed Told in a hilarious voice with black and white illustrations throughout this revolutionary tale is perfect for fans of Lemony Snicket and Pages Co Filmed in Brooklyn Margo Donohue, 2022-10 Shooting in Brooklyn is like opening a time capsule Nothing has changed Everything looks like it did in the eighties Freddie Prinze Jr Discover the iconic films legendary personalities and the locations for timeless big screen moments that took place in Brooklyn From Saturday Night Fever to numerous Spike Lee joints readers can learn about Brooklyn's cinematic past or discover locations to visit today The End of Cinema as We Know it Jon Lewis, 2002 In The End of Cinema As We Know It contributors well known in the movie field talk about the movie industry and look at the variety of new ways we are viewing films They query whether or not we are getting different better movies Adaptation Theory and

Criticism Gordon E. Slethaug, 2014-06-19 Traditional critics of film adaptation generally assumed a that the written text is better than the film adaptation because the plot is more intricate and the language richer when pictorial images do not intrude b that films are better when particularly faithful to the original c that authors do not make good script writers and should not sully their imagination by writing film scripts d and often that American films lack the complexity of authored texts because they are sourced out of Hollywood The faithfulness view has by and large disappeared and intertextuality is now a generally received notion but the field still lacks studies with a postmodern methodology and lens Exploring Hollywood feature films as well as small studio productions Adaptation Theory and Criticism explores the intertextuality of a dozen films through a series of case studies introduced through discussions of postmodern methodology and practice Providing the reader with informative background on theories of film adaptation as well as carefully articulated postmodern methodology and issues Gordon Slethaug includes several case studies of major Hollywood productions and small studio films some of which have been discussed before Age of Innocence Gangs of New York and Do the Right Thing and some that have received lesser consideration Six Degrees of Separation Smoke Smoke Signals Broken Flowers and various Snow White narratives including Enchanted Mirror Mirror and Snow White and the Huntsman Useful for both film and literary studies students Adaptation Theory and Criticism cogently combines the existing scholarship and uses previous theories to engage readers to think about the current state of American literature and film

The City in American Cinema Johan Andersson, Lawrence Webb, 2019-06-27 How has American cinema engaged with the rapid transformation of cities and urban culture since the 1960s And what role have films and film industries played in shaping and mediating the postindustrial city This collection argues that cinema and cities have become increasingly intertwined in the era of neoliberalism urban branding and accelerated gentrification Examining a wide range of films from Hollywood blockbusters to indie cinema it considers the complex evolving relationship between moving image cultures and the spaces policies and politics of US cities from New York Los Angeles and Boston to Detroit Oakland and Baltimore The contributors address questions of narrative genre and style alongside the urban contexts of production exhibition and reception discussing films including The Friends of Eddie Coyle 1973 Cruising 1980 Desperately Seeking Susan 1985 King of New York 1990 Inception 2010 Frances Ha 2012 Fruitvale Station 2013 Only Lovers Left Alive 2013 and Doctor Strange 2016

The Brooklyn Film John B. Manbeck, Robert Singer, 2010-06-28 Brooklyn New York a borough of New York City is known for its distinctive vernacular its communal feel on the fringes of a booming city and its famous bridge a gateway to the unlimited opportunities in Manhattan Of course Coney Island deserves a mention as it garners its own fame independent of Brooklyn its parent locale New York City moviemaking got its start in Brooklyn when Charles E Chinnock shot his silent film in 1894 Since then many films have been made studios opened and stars born in Brooklyn contributing to its undeniable influence in the film industry This work is a collection of essays on the topic of Brooklyn as portrayed in film It includes a discussion of race relations in films dealing with

Brooklyn the story of Jackie Robinson as shown on film the changing face of cinematic Brooklyn and some thoughts on a Brooklyn filmgoer's experience The combination of Brooklyn and baseball in the films of Paul Auster is examined as well as the typical portrayal of a Brooklyn native in film

Paul Auster's Writing Machine Evija Trofimova, 2014-08-28 Paul Auster is one of the most acclaimed figures in American literature Known primarily as a novelist Auster's films and various collaborations are now gaining more recognition Evija Trofimova offers a radically different approach to the author's wider body of work unpacking the fascinating web of relationships between his texts and presenting Auster's canon as a rhizomatic factio fictional network produced by a set of writing tools Exploring Auster's literal and figurative use of these tools the typewriter the cigarette the doppelgänger figure the city Evija Trofimova discovers Auster's writing machine a device that works both as a means to write and as a construct that manifests the emblematic writer figure This is a book about assembling texts and textual networks the writing machines that produce them and the ways such machines invest them with meaning Embarking on a scholarly quest that takes her from between the lines of Auster's work to between the streets of his beloved New York and finally to the man himself Paul Auster's Writing Machine becomes not just a critical investigation but a critical collaboration raising important questions about the ultimate meaning of Auster's work and about the relationship between texts their authors their readers and their critics Imaginary Films in Literature, 2015-11-09 Since cinema is a composite language describing a movie is a complex challenge for critics and writers and greatly differs from the ancient and successful genre of the ekphrasis the literary description of a visual work of art Imaginary Films in Literature deals with a specific and significant case within this broad category the description of imaginary non-existent movies a practice that is more widespread than one might expect especially in North American postmodern fiction Along with theoretical contributions the book includes the analyses of some case studies focusing on the borders between the visual and the literary intermedial practices of hybridization the limits of representation and other related notions such as memory fragmentation desire genre authorship and censorship

Reel to Real bell hooks, 2012-12-06 Movies matter that is the message of Reel to Real bell hooks classic collection of essays on film They matter on a personal level providing us with unforgettable moments even life-changing experiences and they can confront us too with the most profound social issues of race sex and class Here bell hooks one of America's most celebrated and thrilling cultural critics talks back to films that have moved and provoked her from Quentin Tarantino's Pulp Fiction to the work of Spike Lee. Including also her conversations with master filmmakers such as Charles Burnett and Julie Dash. Reel to Real is a must read for anyone who believes that movies are worth arguing about. Smoke & Blue in the face Paul Auster, 2003. Obra que reúne el relato original, los dos guiones, una entrevista al autor y un diario de rodaje. Theater and Film Robert Knopf, 2008-10-01. This is the first book in more than twenty five years to examine the complex historical, cultural and aesthetic relationship between theater and film and the effect that each has had on the other's development. Robert Knopf here assembles essays from performers, directors, writers and critics that illuminate this ongoing inquiry. The book is divided into five parts: historical influence, comparisons and contrasts, writing, directing and acting, with interludes by major artists whose work and words have shaped the development of theater and film. A comprehensive bibliography and filmography support further work in this area. The book contains contributions from Susan Sontag, Stanley Kauffmann, Sarah Bey, Cheng Bertolt Brecht, Ingmar Bergman, Harold Pinter, David Mamet, Julia Taymor, Judi Dench, Sam Waterston, Orson Welles, Antonin Artaud and Milos Forman among others. Brooklyn Fictions James Peacock, 2014-11-20. Vast and diverse Brooklyn is often portrayed in literature as a place of traditional community values and face to face relations distinct from anonymous, capital driven Manhattan. Brooklyn Fictions discovers what such representations of the New York borough can teach us about diversity and the individual, the local and the global. Combining analysis of popular texts such as Sister Souljah's The Coldest Winter Ever with more canonical novels such as Jonathan Lethem's The Fortress of Solitude, this study draws on the work of a variety of theorists on community and globalization and uses Brooklyn as a case study for an exploration of the complex relationship between romantic ideals of community and global economic forces. With cities often depicted as sites of conflict and fear, this is a crucial contribution to our understanding of the contemporary urban community and the ethical issues involved in conceptualizing and portraying it in literature. International Index to Film Periodicals, 1998. Light Readings Chris Darke, 2000. Chris Darke assesses whether the last decade of the 20th century was one in which cinema as a medium and collective experience became part of the converging field of multi media and whether we need to consider new possibilities for the moving image. TLA Video & DVD Guide 2004 David Bleiler, 2014-04-08.
