Sociology Of Aging A Social Problems Perspective:

The Sociology of Aging Duane A. Matcha,1997 Using a sociological perspective book book examines how aging is a social construct rather than a specific chronological age or set of conditions KEYTOPICS Covers all facets of aging and how aging is a consequence of various socialstructural factors rather than a cause Sociology of Aging Duane A. Matcha,2009-02 MySearchLab provides students with a complete understanding of the research process so they can complete research projects confidently and efficiently Students and instructors with an internet connection can visit www MySearchLab com and receive immediate access to thousands of full articles from the EBSCO ContentSelect database In addition MySearchLab offers extensive content on the research process itself including tips on how to navigate and maximize time in the campus library a step by step guide on writing a research paper and instructions on how to finish an academic assignment with endnotes and bibliography Using a sociological perspective book book examines how aging is a social construct rather than a specific chronological age or set of conditions Covers all facets of aging and how aging is a consequence of various socialstructural factors rather than a cause Investigating Social Problems A. Javier Trevino,2024-05-16 General Editor A Javier Trevino working with a panel of experts thoroughly examines all aspects of social problems providing a contemporary and authoritative introduction to the field Each chapter is written by a specialist on that particular topic This unique contributed format ensures that the research examples and theories described are the most current and relevant available The text is framed around three major themes intersectionality the interplay of race ethnicity class and gender the global scope of many problems and how researchers take an evidence based approach to studying problems Perspectives on the Future of the Sociology of Aging Panel on New Directions in Social Demography, Social Epidemiology, and the Sociology of Aging,Committee on Population,Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education,National Research Council,2013-02-14 The population of the United States is growing inexorably older With birth rates historically low and life expectancy continuing to rise the age distribution of the population in the United States is growing steadily older This demographic shift is occurring at a time of major economic and social changes which have important implications for the growing elderly population Other changes such as the move away from defined benefit toward defined contribution retirement plans changes in some corporate and municipal pension plans as a result of market pressures and the 2008 financial crisis precipitated by the crash of the housing market all have economic implications for older people They are also likely to make it more difficult for certain groups of future retirees to find their retirements at the level that they had planned and would like To deal effectively with the challenges created by population aging it is vital to first understand these demographic economic and social changes and to the extent possible their causes consequences and implications Sociology offers a knowledge base a number of useful analytic approaches and tools and unique theoretical perspectives that can be important aids to this task The Panel on New Directions in Social Demography Social Epidemiology and the Sociology of

Aging was established in August 2010 under the auspices of the Committee on Population of the National Research Council to prepare a report that evaluates the recent contributions of social demography social epidemiology and sociology to the study of aging and seeks to identify promising new research in these fields Perspectives on the Future of the Sociology of Aging provides candid and critical comments that will assist the institution in making the final published volume as sound as possible and to ensure that the volume meets institutional standards for objectivity evidence and responsiveness to the study charge

Social Work Practice with the Elderly Marvin David Feit, Michael J. Reimann,2008-05-07 The different research fields gerontology gender and health have generated different views knowledge and foci on ageing health and gender It is now necessary to integrate these aspects into research policy and practice The objective of this book is to provide an overview of gender health and ageing Important theoretical concepts such as life course and Lebenslagen in old age or differences in men s health are introduced It is increasingly important to build a European basis of knowledge to conduct discussions on European research findings and to develop European research frameworks In this volume central theoretical debates on gender impacts on life course and old age health and vital issues of health research in the context of gender and old age are introduced Specific aspects such as the impact of gender and age on cardiovascular health elder abuse and mental health or care between gender relations gender roles and gender constructs are pointed out Special attention is given to the impact of social political and economic change in different New EU Member States like Hungary Poland and Slovenia The Encyclopedia of Aging Richard Schulz,2006 Print CourseSmart

Social Problems across the Life Course Helena Z. Lopata,Judith A. Levy,2003-09-03 The human life course is filled with and subject to a wide range of personal difficulties many of which are shared by others Life events and processes such as birth childhood training for and entering an occupation marriage and procreation growing older death and dying are all subject to dilemmas obstacles and barriers Social Problems across the Life Course offers accessible readings that examine the societal construction of social problems out of the personal troubles that people confront at major life stages The essays provide an overview and illustrate the theory and principals that inform both the life course and social problems

Introductions by the editors vividly introduce the research and key theories in this unique anthology perhaps the only one available to help students understand how life stages and personal and social problems interact Social Problems

Maxine P. Atkinson, Kathleen Odell Korgen, 2022-10-18 The Second Edition of Sociology in Action Social Problems is ideal for teachers who want to provide students with an active learning experience that relies less on lecturing and more on discussion collaboration self directed investigation observation analysis and reflection Maxine P Atkinson and Kathleen Odell Korgen provide concrete ways to make use of sociological training in the real world by considering sociological solutions to a range of social problems and issues facing society today Critical Perspectives on Aging Meredith Minkler, Carroll Estes, 2020-11-25 This unique volume brings together 20 critical essays on aging within the context of the broad social political and economic factors that help shape and determine the realities of growing old Rather than viewing aging in isolation it explores the social creation of old age dependency and the profound influence of race gender and social class on what it means to grow old It looks too at such topics as the biomedicalization of aging the role of business and the media in changing societal images of the old the fact and fiction behind senior power the multibillion dollar nursing home industry and the role of advanced capitalist nations in creating economic dependency among elders in the Third World Social Problems Perspectives Robert P. McNamara, 1998 Qualitative Research Practice Clive Seale, 2004-02-28 Aimed at the student reader this book demonstrates the benefits of using particular methods from the viewpoint of real life experience It contains chapters written by leading internationally distinguished qualitative researchers who recount and reflect on their own research experiences as well as others General Concepts in Ophthalmology in the Geriatric Population, Vision Loss, Comorbidities and Low Vision Approach Erdem Dursun, 2024-03-14 Dear Colleagues Books are the cornerstones of learning knowledge Writing a book is an important responsibility in this period when technology and medicine are rapidly developing What is written today may become obsolete within to 5 10 years Therefore the information must be updated at certain intervals It is no longer possible to achieve rapid changes with a single author to cover all subjects This work with 7 authors is a product of team spirit labor and effort The editors motivated a group of writers who had the power and opportunity to write but could not make it happen The author improved his ability to learn to teach and the reader learned the subject he did not know before In this manner learning is achieved by both parties The information acquired will become skilled over time with experience and repetition Love and knowledge grow as they become shared I hope that this book which we have introduced to world medicine will lead to the preparation of many new works in the future Editor Asst Prof Erdem DURSUN K r k kale 2024 Occupational Therapy with Aging Adults - E-Book Karen Frank Barney, Margaret Perkinson, 2024-06-21 Get all the information you need to work holistically creatively and collaboratively when providing services for older adults with Karen Frank Barney Margaret A Perkinson and Debbie Laliberte Rudman s Occupational Therapy with Aging Adults 2nd Edition Emphasizing evidence based occupation based practice and a collaborative interdisciplinary approach this text walks students and practitioners through the full range of gerontological occupational therapy practice inclusive of working with individual clients to working at systems and societal levels Over 80 leaders in their respective topical areas contributed to the book s 33 chapters including the conceptual foundations and principles of gerontological occupational therapy bio psychosocial age related changes environmental forces shaping occupational participation for older adults the continuum of health care as well as implications for communities and the attributes ethical responsibilities and roles involved in gerontological occupational therapy This edition also covers topical OT issues that are crucially important to an aging population such as diversity and inclusion disability and aging sexuality technology telehealth and virtual environments intergenerational connections updates on dementia research and caring for someone with dementia occupational justice and aging age inclusive communities and an expanded section on hearing to ensure your students are well versed in every aspect of this key practice area UNIQUE Intraprofessional and interprofessional approach to intervention emphasizes working holistically and collaboratively in serving older adults UNIQUE Chapter on the wide range of physiological musculoskeletal and neurological changes among the aging patient population highlights related occupational performance issues Case examples help you learn to apply new information to actual client and community situations Chapter on evidence based practice discusses how to incorporate evidence into clinical or community settings Questions at the end of each chapter can be used for discussion or other learning applications UNIQUE Chapters on nutrition food insecurity and oral health explore related challenges faced by older adults Chapter on ethics provides a deeper understanding of how to address challenging ethical dilemmas
