Sold Andrew CROFTS,1994 Joel, Obadiah, Malachi David W. Baker,2009-05-26 The NIV Application Commentary helps you communicate and apply biblical text effectively in today s context To bring the ancient messages of the Bible into today s world each passage is treated in three sections Original Meaning Concise exegesis to help readers understand the original meaning of the biblical text in its historical literary and cultural context Bridging Contexts A bridge between the world of the Bible and the world of today built by discerning what is timeless in the timely pages of the Bible Contemporary Significance This section identifies comparable situations to those faced in the Bible and explores relevant application of the biblical messages The author alerts the readers of problems they may encounter when seeking to apply the passage and helps them think through the issues involved This unique award winning commentary is the ideal resource for today s preachers teachers and serious students of the Bible giving them the tools ideas and insights they need to communicate God s Word with the same powerful impact it had when it was first written Do Muslim Women Need Saving? Lila Abu-Lughod,2013-11-12 Do Muslim Women Need Saving is an indictment of a mindset that has justified all manner of foreign interference including military invasion in the name of rescuing women from Islam It offers a detailed moving portrait of the actual experiences of ordinary Muslim women and of the contingencies with which they live Up for Sale Alison Marie Behnke,2017-01-01 Trafficking thrives in the shadows And it can be easy to dismiss it as something that happens to someone else somewhere else But that is not the case Trafficking is a crime that involves every nation on earth and that includes our own US secretary of state Hillary Rodham Clinton 2009 Human trafficking is as old as slavery and continues to be practiced in the modern world Victims of human traffickers include workers in restaurants and in garment factories maids and nannies in the homes of wealthy families child sex workers beggars on the street boy soldiers even infants kidnapped for foreign adoptions Women and children are more likely to be coerced or seized than men and boys especially if they are poor and uneducated Traffickers sell their victims for their bodies or for their labor and reap an enormous profit Human trafficking is estimated to be a 30 to 45 billion industry on an annual basis rivaling weapons and drug trafficking as one of the most profitable criminal undertakings in the world Up for Sale takes a hard look at human trafficking identifying perpetrators and telling the stories of victims through their own words You ll discover why some people become vulnerable to trafficking and you ll read about what their lives are like on a daily basis You ll also meet some of the courageous individuals and organizations working to free people from lives in bondage so that in the words of US president Barack Obama each person can forge a life equal to their talents and worthy of their dreams The Madness of Women Jane Professor Ussher,Jane M. Ussher,2011-03-28 Nominated for the 2012 Distinguished Publication Award of the Association for Women in Psychology Why are women more likely to be positioned or diagnosed as mad than men If madness is a social construction a gendered label as many feminist critics would argue how can we understand and explain women s prolonged misery and distress In turn can we prevent or treat women's distress in a non-pathologising women-centred way? The Madness of Women addresses these questions through a rigorous exploration of the myths and realities of women's madness. Drawing on academic and clinical experience including case studies and in-depth interviews as well as on the now extensive critical literature in the field of mental health, Jane Ussher presents a critical multifactorial analysis of women's madness that both addresses the notion that madness is a myth and yet acknowledges the reality and multiple causes of women's distress. Topics include: The genealogy of women's madness; incarceration of difficult or deviant women; Regulation through treatment; Deconstructing depression; PMS and borderline personality disorder; Madness as a reasonable response to objectification and sexual violence; Women's narratives of resistance. This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of psychology, gender studies, sociology, women's studies, cultural studies, counselling and nursing.

Growing up as a Black Muslim woman

Fatima Adamou, 2023-08-11. How does it feel to grow up as a Black Muslim woman in France? Fatima Adamou provides us with some answers in this autobiographical account set in the 1980s and 1990s. Her story narrates the straightforward tale of how she studied her religion, Islam, and how she discovered the diversity of Muslims when she was a teenager, all the while facing challenges because of her skin colour. Anyone interested in learning about French Muslims and their various legacies should read her narrative.

Survivors of Slavery

Laura T. Murphy, 2014-03-25. Slavery is not a crime confined to the far reaches of history. It is an injustice that continues to entrap twenty-seven million people across the globe. Laura Murphy offers close to forty survivor narratives from Cambodia, Ghana, Lebanon, Macedonia, Mexico, Russia, Thailand, Ukraine, and the United States, detailing the horrors of a system that forces people to work without pay and against their will under the threat of violence with little or no means of escape. Representing a variety of circumstances in diverse contexts, these survivors are the Frederick Douglasses, Sojourner Truths, and Olaudah Equianos of our time, testifying to the widespread existence of a human rights tragedy and the urgent need to address it. Through storytelling and firsthand testimony, this anthology shapes a twenty-first-century narrative that many believe died with the end of slavery in the Americas. Organized around such issues as the need for work, the punishment of defiance, and the move toward activism, the collection isolates the causes, mechanisms, and responses to slavery that allow the phenomenon to endure. Enhancing scholarship in women's studies, sociology, criminology, law, social work, and literary studies, the text establishes a common trajectory of vulnerability, enslavement, captivity, escape, and recovery, creating an invaluable resource for activists, scholars, legislators, and service providers.

Data and Research on Human Trafficking

Elzbieta M. Gozdiak, 2011. This is a print-on-demand edition of a hard-to-find publication. The subject of human trafficking, or the use of force, fraud, or coercion to transport persons across international borders or within countries to exploit them for labor or sex, has received renewed attention within the last two decades. This report provides a detailed description of the processes involved in a project to identify English-language research-based literature on human trafficking, the databases searched, and the keywords used to identify pertinent references; discussion of the development of the taxonomy used to categorize identified research based journal articles reports and books and the results of the categorization of the research according to the taxonomy

Yemen Paul Auchterlonie, 1998 Yemen is both the least known state in the Arabian Peninsula and the one with the longest continuous history Several vibrant civilizations flourished in South Arabia in the millennium before the arrival of Islam in 632 AD and under the Rasulid dynasty 1229-1454 there developed an intellectual commercial and artistic culture of considerable splendour The country was occupied at various times by the Portuguese the Ottomans and the British When independence came in the 1960s two separate states emerged the Yemen Arab Republic in the North and the Marxist People's Democratic Republic of Yemen in the South Union was achieved in 1990 and despite the civil war of 1994 the wealth generated by the recent discovery of oil and the democratic elections of 1997 promise the new Republic of Yemen a positive future This edition has been thoroughly revised to take account of recent scholarship

Teaching All Nations Mitzi J. Smith, Jayachitra Lalitha, 2014-05-01 That Christian missionary efforts have long gone hand in hand with European colonization and American imperialist expansion The role played in those efforts by the Great Commission the risen Christ's command to teach all nations has more often been observed than analyzed With the rise of European colonialism the Great Commission was suddenly taken up with an eschatological urgency often explicit in the founding statements of missionary societies the differentiation of teachers and nations waiting to be taught proved a ready made sacred sanction for the racialized and androcentric logics of conquest and civilization

Be the Change, Revised and Expanded Edition Zach Hunter, 2011-08-23 Zach has been trying to end slavery around the globe Most people maybe even you think that slavery has been over for a long time But sadly there are more people bound in slavery now than at any of the times we read about in our history books Now Zach is working to end slavery and free the men women and children who are being held against their will He's even found some friends in the fight including Jon Foreman of Switchfoot and Leeland Mooring of Leeland Just look around the world and on the news and you'll find that there are plenty of things wrong with our planet homelessness hunger global warming AIDS the list goes on and on And we usually look at these problems and decide they re too big for us to do anything about But Zach is proving that one person can make a difference And in his book he ll reveal the elements needed to make amazing changes in your world In the end he hopes you ll find the thing you re passionate about and start making changes

Bearing Witness Andrea Nicholson,2022-09-29 A study of contemporary slave narratives that reveals the conditions and consequences of slavery and the importance of survivors stories The Shortest Leap A. L. Van Den Herik,2020-04-28 All worldviews require a leap of faith but not all leaps of faith are the same A one stop shop for the rational evidence for Christianity The Shortest Leap presents the scientific historical biblical and explanatory underpinnings of the Christian faith demonstrating that faith in Jesus requires the shortest leap In addition to providing proactive evidence for Christianity The Shortest Leap responds to the numerous shots fired at biblical Christianity by atheists critics of Christianity and other skeptics The Shortest Leap answers a wide range of difficult questions including Is the Bible consistent with the findings of cutting edge secular science Was there really a man named Jesus or is he just a myth And even if he did exist aren t the events of Jesus life and his teachings as described in the New Testament merely fabrications of the earliest Christians Does the historical evidence support the claim that Jesus rose from the dead To understand who Jesus really was why shouldn t we consider other documents outside the Bible such as the Gnostic gospels Why were some documents excluded from the New Testament Did Jesus really claim to be God or did the earliest Christians just want to believe that Is the Old Testament still relevant Does it really point to Jesus hundreds to thousands of years before he lived How does the salvation by grace of Christianity differ from the salvation by works of all other religions Why can t I just believe in the Jesus that I like the best How can I be sure I have eternal life The SAGE Handbook of Human Trafficking and Modern Day Slavery

Jennifer Bryson Clark,Sasha Poucki,2018-12-10 Millions of people around the world are forced to work without pay and under threat of violence These individuals can be found working in brothels factories mines farm fields restaurants construction sites and private homes many have been tricked by human traffickers and lured by false promises of good jobs or education some are forced to work at gunpoint while others are trapped by phony debts from unscrupulous moneylenders The SAGE Handbook of Human Trafficking and Modern Day Slavery provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary and global look at the diverse issues surrounding human trafficking and slavery in the post 1945 environment Covering everything from history literature and politics to economics international law and geography this Handbook is essential reading for academics and researchers as well as for policy makers and non governmental organisations The Routledge Companion to Literature and Human Rights Sophia McClennen,Alexandra Schultheis Moore,2018-02-05 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Human Rights provides a comprehensive transnational and interdisciplinary map to this emerging field offering a broad overview of human rights and literature while providing innovative readings on key topics The first of its kind this volume covers essential issues and themes necessarily crossing disciplines between the social sciences and humanities Sections cover subjects with pieces on subjectivity humanity identity gender universality the particular the body forms visiting the different ways human rights stories are crafted and formed via the literary the visual the performative and the oral contexts tracing the development of the literature over time and in relation to specific regions and historical events impacts considering the power and limits of human rights literature rhetoric and visual culture Drawn from many different global contexts the essays offer an ideal introduction for those approaching the study of literature and human rights for the first time looking for new insights and interdisciplinary perspectives or interested in new directions for future scholarship

The New Slave Narrative Laura T. Murphy, 2019-09-17 A century and a half after the abolition of slavery in the United States survivors of contemporary forms of enslavement from around the world have revived a powerful tool of the abolitionist movement first person narratives of slavery and freedom Just as Frederick Douglass Harriet Jacobs and others used autobiographical testimonies in the fight to eradicate slavery today's new slave narrators play a crucial role in shaping an antislavery agenda Their writings unveil the systemic underpinnings of global slavery while critiquing the precarity of their hard fought freedom At the same time the demands of antislavery organizations religious groups and book publishers circumscribe the voices of the enslaved coopting their narratives in support of alternative agendas In this pathbreaking interdisciplinary study Laura T Murphy argues that the slave narrative has reemerged as a twenty first century genre that has gained new currency in the context of the memoir boom post 9 11 anti Islamic sentiment and conservative family values politics She analyzes a diverse range of dozens of book length accounts of modern slavery from Africa Asia the United States the United Kingdom and Europe examining the narrative strategies that survivors of slavery employ to make their experiences legible and to promote a reinvigorated antislavery agenda By putting these stories into conversation with one another The New Slave Narrative reveals an emergent survivor centered counterdiscourse of collaboration and systemic change that offers an urgent critique of the systems that maintain contemporary slavery as well as of the human rights industry and the antislavery movement
