More than Bombs and Bandages Kirsty Harris, 2024-06-05 More than Bombs and Bandages exposes the false assumption that military nurses only nursed Based on author Kirsty Harris CEW Bean Prize winning PhD thesis this is a book that is far removed from the devotion to duty stereotyping offering an intriguing and sometimes gut wrenching insight into the Australian Army Nursing Service AANS during World War I More than Bombs and Bandages provides rich pickings for all those interested in nursing history women in the Australian military the application of medical treatments and World War I What I enjoyed most about is Dr Kirsty Harris s ability to reflect those nurses voices in a way that was so real one could be there the settings were so well understood from her research and the language kind of made a time warp in the reading Very satisfying As you know I have that Peter Rees book but I could not get into it after reading the historical one It was like comparing a great documentary to Facebook trivia Rev d Dr Barbara Oudt Fighting the Kaiserreich Bruce Gaunson, 2018-09-01 This book portrays a modern epic of an army that sailed across the world to fight a war Its struggle with the Kaiserreich German empire became the most formidable campaign Australian troops have ever fought By the time Monash s soldiers broke through the Hindenburg Line their achievement and its cost were staggering This epic was created by normal Australians and is understandable to normal Australians Here you won t need expertise in military terminology But to appreciate the titanic conflict the Diggers had entered you ll find a clear picture of the Great War its key issues and extraordinary events Before this book was written Australians could not get in one concise volume the two interwoven sagas of Australia s epic and the Great War itself That s what this lively and vigorous book offers It draws on the sources of thirteen countries to present as many good unknowns women men and fascinating situations as it does big leaders events generals and battles In debate it s not shackled to old predictables and while mindful of general readers it relies throughout on sound scholarship For good measure it bombards a few fallacies and their well overdue authors Theatre at War, 1914-18 L. Collins, 1997-11-05 A lively study of the function of theatre entertainment in the First World War 1914 18 The theatre s role as unofficial government aide in the form of recruiter propagandist and fund raiser is examined so too its use as morale booster and provider of a war related role for the aristocracy female and military over aged male artists The organization of theatre for and by the military and civilian concert parties for troops in training and at the Front is analysed Soldier Boy William John Duffell, 1992 Collection of letters written by a young Australian gunner during active service with the AIF in France and Flanders during WWI The letters present a dramatic picture of his war experiences and his personal response to hardships and danger Contains a postscript relating to his life after the war a bibliography and an index Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1997 Journal of the Society for Army Historical Research Society for Army Historical Research (London, England), 1994 Soldier Boy William John Duffell, Lea Davis, 1992 Hardback edition of a book first published in March 1992 consisting of exact reproductions of letters written to family and friends Includes brief bibliography and index Edited and from a Soldier Boy Bernice J. Weikel Wysocki, 2021-12-17 This book is a collection of transcribed letters sent from a young 28 year old soldier boy Harry E Dankelmann serving in one of the most active combat areas of Europe in WWI to his family in Philadelphia The letters describe the personal experiences of a soldier at war while also portraying the experiences of family and friends back home with their letters to Harry After being severely wounded the soldier's letters become more personal

Mainwaring Jones, 2018-07-04 War Letters of a Public School Boy by Henry Paul Mainwaring Jones INTRODUCTORY These laid the world away poured out the red Sweet wine of youth gave up the years to be Of work and joy And those who would have been Their sons they gave their immortality Rupert Brooke In deciding to publish some of the letters written by the late Lieutenant H P M Jones during his twenty seven months service with the British Army accompanying them with a memoir I was actuated by a desire first to enshrine the memory of a singularly noble and attractive personality secondly to describe a career which though tragically cut short was yet rich in honourable achievement thirdly to show the influence of the Great War on the mind of a public school boy of high intellectual gifts and sensitive honour who had shone with equal lustre as a scholar and as an athlete My choice of the title of this book was determined by the frequent allusions made by my son in his war letters to his old school He spent six and a half years at Dulwich College His career there was gloriously happy and very distinguished On the scholastic side it culminated in December 1914 in the winning of a scholarship in History and Modern Languages at Balliol College Oxford on the athletic side in his carrying off four silver cups at the Athletic Sports in March 1915 and tieing for the Victor Ludorum shield We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience
