

A group of five men standing on a rooftop with a cityscape in the background. The man on the far left is wearing a black polo shirt. The second man from the left is wearing a black t-shirt with the word "HUGO" in red. The third man is wearing a pink polo shirt. The fourth man is wearing a blue polo shirt and a black cap. The man on the far right is wearing a black polo shirt with a white pattern. The word "SOLO" is written in large white letters across the middle of the image, and the word "TU" is written in large white letters to the right of "SOLO".

Atone Akanmu G. Adebayo, Sherrill Hayes, Brandon D. Lundy, 2018-02-26 The relationship between religion and conflict has generated considerable academic and political debate Although the majority of religions and spiritual traditions are replete with wisdom that propagates a broader unity among human beings these same examples have been used to legitimize hatred and fear While some studies claim that religion facilitates peacebuilding reconciliation and healing others argue that religion exacerbates hostility instigates vengeance seeking behaviors and heightens conflict But religion does not act by itself human beings are responsible for acts of peace or conflict of division or reconciliation in the name of religion This book addresses these rather complex issues from the perspective of reconciliation or atonement to advance both the frontiers of knowledge and the global search for alternative paths to peace The contributions in the volume focus in three areas 1 Reconciling Religious Conflicts 2 Reconciling Conflict through Religion and 3 Religious Reconciliations In each of these sections scholars practitioners and religious leaders address specific examples that highlight the complex intersections of religious practices with global conflict and reconciliation efforts This informative and provocative book is relevant for students and faculty in peace and conflict studies religious studies humanities social sciences and provides insights useful to practitioners and professionals working in peacebuilding and international development seeking to promote effective resolution and reconciliation efforts

ANAMNESIS Juan Castano, 2011-07-05 ANAMNESIS In ancient Greek Recollection reminiscence loss of forgetfulness Is the recollection of memories lost in the journey or fall from the Sanctuary into the human world The fallen or children of the Sanctuary are the creative minds the divine souls gods among human beings and the light of life They live in the human society just like everyone else but all along the feel something is missing they perceive that there is something else they try to find the inexplicable to the reason and to the senses the truth Rediscovering a whole new world behind unopened doors between unexplored parallels where the poetical verses of art dominates where philosophy is a life style and where all the immortal souls belongs to the eternal place the Sanctuary Here are the verses of Love Death experienced by the divine immortal souls fighting their own demons in a world of dark mortal souls a world of hate and chaos destruction and confusion
