documentary style gave way to one that emphasized shape and color over pure representation. Despite exhibitions in New York and elsewhere, Wilson considered a small show at the public library in his hometown of Mayfield in 1947 to be one of the high points of his life. This catalog accompanies the first major retrospective of Wilson's paintings. Rhapsodies in Black Richard J. Powell, David A. Grant Hill and experts celebrate and examine the creative expression of African American art and artists. Collecting the New Bruce Altshuler, 2013-10-24. Collecting the New is the first book on the questions and challenges that museums face in acquiring and preserving contemporary art. Because such art has not yet withstood the test of time, it defies the traditional understanding of the art museum as an institution that collects and displays works of long-established aesthetic and historical value. By acquiring such art, museums gamble on the future. In addition, new technologies and alternative conceptions of the artwork have created special problems of conservation, while social, political, and aesthetic changes have generated new categories of works to be collected. Following Bruce Altshuler's introduction on the European and American history of museum collecting of art by living artists, the book comprises newly commissioned essays by twelve distinguished curators representing a wide range of museums. First considered are general issues including the acquisition process and collecting by universal survey museums and museums that focus on modern and contemporary art. Following are groups of essays that address collecting in particular media, including prints and drawings, new digital media, and film and video, and national and ethnic-specific collecting of contemporary art from Asia, Africa, and Latin America, and African American art. The closing essay examines the conservation problems created by contemporary works, for example, what is to be done when deterioration is the artist's intent. The contributors are Christophe Cherix, Vishakha N. Desai, Steve Dietz, Howard N. Fox, Chrissie Iles, and Henriette Huldish, Pamela McClusky, Gabriel Perez Barreiro, Lowery Stokes Sims, Robert Storr, Jeffrey Weiss, and Glenn Wharton. Traveling the Rainbow Derrel B. DePasse, 2001. Reveals how the artist recorded his memories of the American railroad and the traveling circus as landscapes. A Shared Heritage William Edward Taylor, Harriet Garcia Warkel, 1996. Highly recommended Choice. This handsomely illustrated catalog presents the work of four African American artists with shared Indiana roots: John Wesley Hardrick, William Majors, William Edouard Scott, and Hale Aspacio Woodruff. Their art, ranging from impressionism and social realism to cubism and abstract expressionism, spans the major trends in 20th century American art while reflecting the artists experiences as blacks in America Aaron Douglas Aaron Douglas, Renée Ater, 2007-01-01 Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 1995 The International Review of African American Art , 2006 The Complete Jacob Lawrence Peter T.
