The Southern Workman, 1904 Harlem Renaissance Lives from the African American National Biography Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), Evelyn

Brooks Higginbotham, 2009 The Harlem Renaissance is the best known and most widely studied cultural movement in African American history. Now in Harlem Renaissance Lives, esteemed scholars Henry Louis Gates Jr and Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham have selected 300 key biographical entries culled from the eight volume African American National Biography providing an authoritative who's who of this seminal period. Here readers will find engagingly written and authoritative articles on notable African Americans who made significant contributions to literature, drama, music, visual art, or dance, including such central figures as poet Langston Hughes, novelist Zora Neale Hurston, aviator Bessie Coleman, blues singer Ma Rainey, artist Romare Bearden, dancer Josephine Baker, jazzman Louis Armstrong, and the intellectual giant W. E. B. Du Bois. Also included are biographies of people like the Scottsboro Boys who were not active within the movement but who nonetheless profoundly affected the artistic and political statements that came from Harlem Renaissance figures. The volume will also feature a preface by the editors, an introductory essay by historian Cary D. Wintz, and 75 illustrations. The Oxford

Handbook of American Literary Naturalism Keith Newlin, 2011-03-01 After its heyday in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century, naturalism, a genre that typically depicts human beings as the product of biological and environmental forces over which they have little control, was supplanted by modernism, a genre in which writers experimented with innovations in form and content. In the last decade, the movement is again attracting spirited scholarly debate. The Oxford Handbook of American Literary Naturalism takes stock of the best new research in the field through collecting twenty-eight original essays drawing upon recent scholarship in literary and cultural studies. The contributors offer an authoritative and in-depth reassessment of writers from Stephen Crane, Frank Norris, Theodore Dreiser, and Jack London to Kate Chopin, Edith Wharton, Ernest Hemingway, Richard Wright, John Steinbeck, Joyce Carol Oates, and Cormac McCarthy. One set of essays focuses on the genre itself, exploring the historical contexts that gave birth to it, the problem of definition, its interconnections with other genres, the scientific and philosophical ideas that motivate naturalist authors, and the continuing presence of naturalism in twenty-first century fiction. Others examine the tensions within the genre, the role of women, and African American writers' depictions of sexuality, the problem of race, and the critique of commodity culture and class. A final set of essays looks beyond the works to consider the role of the marketplace in the development of naturalism, the popular and critical response to the works, and the influence of naturalism in the other arts. The Life of Paul Laurence Dunbar Catherine Reef, 2014-07-01

Details the life and career of the poet who faced racism and devoted himself to depicting the black experience in America. The Black American Short Story in the 20th Century Peter Bruck, 1977-01-01 This volume is a collection of essays on black short stories written between 1998 and 1976. It aims to say something about the black short story as a genre and the development of the racial situation in America as well. The primary aim is to introduce the reader to this long neglected genre of black fiction. In contrast to the black novel, the short story has hardly been given extensive criticism, let alone serious attention. The individual essays of this collection aim at presenting new points of critical orientation in the hope of reviving and fostering further discussions They provide a variety of approaches and a great diversity of critical points of view A Companion to African American Literature Gene Andrew Jarrett, 2013-05-06 Through a series of essays that explore the forms themes genres historical contexts major authors and latest critical approaches A Companion to African American Literature presents a comprehensive chronological overview of African American literature from the eighteenth century to the modern day Examines African American literature from its earliest origins through the rise of antislavery literature in the decades leading into the Civil War to the modern development of contemporary African American cultural media literary aesthetics and political ideologies Addresses the latest critical and scholarly approaches to African American literature Features essays by leading established literary scholars as well as newer voices Pow-Wow Ishmael Reed, 2009-01-27 Using the yardstick that a short story is any fiction under 15 000 words Ishmael Reed with the assistance of Carla Blank has assembled an anthology that reexamines the history of the form across a broader more inclusive spectrum The result is a collection that stretches the boundaries of the American literary landscape including work ranging from animal stories of the Northwest Coast Eyaks to African American folklore to reflections on the American Muslim experience Pow Wow is the sequel to Reed s From Totems to Hip Hop A Multicultural Anthology of Poetry Across the Americas 1900 2002 a volume that included both Tupac Shakur and T S Eliot and was named one of the best poetry anthologies of 2003 by Library Journal Its fiction focused follow up once again demonstrates the broad range of American writing from such stellar names as Langston Hughes Gertrude Stein Russell Banks and Alejandro Murgu to newly discovered writers of all races genders and backgrounds By presenting many different sides to the American story the fiction of these writers challenges official history shatters accepted myths and provides alternatives to mainstream notions of personal and national identity Gathering these voices together Pow Wow offers a fascinating and vital opportunity to traverse the fault lines that separate distinguish and define a nation made of many Americas
