for fun He was pulled over and arrested and sent to a detention center for fifteen months and twenty three days Unbeknown to him at this time that his life would never be the same The punishment would leave him bitter for a very long time and his parents absences during his months of imprisonment only fanned the flames The story takes a turn going into his third month inside the detention center after receiving a gift from God a gift of writing After receiving this gift he was able to put light inside a very dark place Even though the gift was a blessing once he was released he suddenly became dysfunctional and he felt it was by design The young man had felt he was the victim of systemic racism and that he had been trapped into a system that had taken his name and had replaced it with a number that would label him for many years to come The months inside the detention center would transform him into a mean and cold hearted individual Soon he would become a career criminal and a two strike felon His brief intermissions in and out of jails and prison turned him into a drug addict and alcoholic as a coping mechanism to get through a day He would receive a rude awakening when he was released from prison the second time His mother had lost her eyesight from diabetics When she became blind this is when the young man began to see

James E. Holder,2010-08-20 Prayer has always been an integral part of author Rev James E Holders life But while he was growing up he observed that prayers had a predictable pattern and were pretty much routine recitations This was troubling for him a young man growing into a pastoral ministry So he tried writing some prayers which became a regular thing for him And in his newly released book Prayers from the Heart he shares some of these prayers so others even the young pastors can use this as a guide or plan for their own prayer moments and experience the blessing of talking and being with God Divided into different chapters from church prayers to selected prayers for occasions and professions these beautiful Prayers from the Heart offer readers a chance to discover the wonderful feeling of writing and saying their own prayers Because prayer is a way to communicate with God it should bear meaning to the person praying There should be truth honesty and faith in every word prayed and said Rev Holder hopes that with this collection of prayers readers will find some ideas and help on how to pray from the heart Others would probably approach this subject differently but if this challenges you to think that's all I'm asking for anyway This book goes out with my sincere prayer that all who might read it would find the way to satisfy that deep yearning to pray and to receive the very real sense that you have talked with the Heavenly Father about those things that are most important to you the author prays The Gracious Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ Gilbert Christian Assembly,2014-07-25 Book 2 in a 4 book series which teaches and explains with exhaustive scripture references the Gospel of Universal Reconciliation that Jesus Christ is the Saviour of all men not some men but ALL men God was in Christ reconciling the world everyone unto himself not imputing their trespasses unto them and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation 2 Corinthians 5:19 Memoirs of a Professional Lady Nurse M.
