Sexton,1972 Anne Sexton was an American poet from Weston Massachusetts known for her highly personal confessional verse She won the Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1967 Themes of her poetry include her suicidal tendencies her depression and her relationships with her husband and children Live or Die Anne Sexton,2016-04-05 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize A gripping poetry collection mapping the thorny journey from madness to hope With her emotionally raw and deeply resonant third collection Live or Die Anne Sexton confirmed her place among the most celebrated poets of the twentieth century Sexton described the volume which depicts a fictionalized version of her struggle with mental illness as a fever chart for a bad case of melancholy From the halls of a psychiatric hospital the scene of the disordered scenes in Flee on Your Donkey to a child s playroom a graveyard full of dolls in Those Times these gripping poems offer profound insight on the agony of depression and the staggering acts of courage and faith required to emerge from its depths Along with other confessional poets like Sylvia Plath and Robert Lowell Sexton was known for grappling with intimate subjects traditionally considered taboo for poetry such as motherhood menstruation and drug dependence Live or Die features these topics in candid and unflinching detail as Sexton represents the full experience of being alive and a woman as few poets have before Through bold images and startlingly precise language Sexton explores the broad spectrum of human emotion ranging from desperate despair to unfettered hope Anne Sexton and Middle Generation Poetry Philip McGowan, 2004-09-30 Evaluating the poetry of Anne Sexton 30 years after her death this text examines the possibilities of language to convey an individual's response to their own existence the project of defining love and the purpose of the aesthetic in our understanding of these entities Rethinking Narrative Identity Claudia Holler, Martin Klepper, 2013-02-28 Why is it that we tend to think about our lives as stories Why do we strive to create coherent narratives that reflect a particular perspective What happens when we discover multiple perhaps conflicting perspectives in our narratives Following groundbreaking work in the study of narrative identity in the last 20 years the scholars of this volume have expanded and merged their theories of narrative identity with new perspectives in fields such as narratology literary theory philosophy cultural studies psychology sociology gender studies and history Their contributions focus on the significance of perspective in the formation of narrative identities probing the stratagems and narrative means of individuals in testing out personae for themselves Anne Sexton's Poetry of Redemption Richard Everett Morton, 1988 This is a survey of the poetry of Anne Sexton from the standpoint of the special statement made in her poems The study charts the development of that statement by a close reading of eight volumes in the order of their publication Anne Sexton Diane Middlebrook, 1992-10-27 Anne Sexton began writing poetry at the age of twenty nine to keep from killing herself She held on to language for dear life and somehow in spite of alcoholism and the mental illness that ultimately led her to suicide managed to create a body of work that won a Pulitzer Prize and that still sings to thousands of readers This exemplary biography which was nominated for the National Book Award provoked controversy for its revelations of infidelity and incest and its use of tapes from Sexton's psychiatric sessions It reconciles the many Anne Sextons the 1950s housewife the abused child who became an abusive mother the seductress the suicide who carried kill me pills in her handbag the way other women carry lipstick and the poet who transmuted confession into lasting art Love Poems, 1969 The Heart of American Poetry Edward Hirsch, 2022-04-19 An acclaimed poet and our greatest champion for poetry offers an inspiring and insightful new reading of the American tradition We live in unsettled times What is America and who are we as a people How do we understand the dreams and betrayals that have shaped the American experience For poet and critic Edward Hirsch poetry opens up new ways of answering these questions of reconnecting with one another and with what's best in us In this landmark new book from Library of America Hirsch offers deeply personal readings of forty essential American poems we thought we knew from Anne Bradstreet's The Author to Her Book and Phillis Wheatley's To S M a Young African Painter on seeing his Works to Garrett Hongo's Ancestral Graves Kahuku and Joy Harjo's Rabbit Is Up to Tricks exploring how these poems have sustained his own life and how they might uplift our diverse but divided nation This is a personal book about American poetry writes Hirsch but I hope it is more than a personal selection I have chosen forty poems from our extensive archive and songbook that have been meaningful to me part of my affective life my critical consideration but I have also tried to be cognizant of the changing playbook in American poetry which is not fixed
