The Heritage 1991:

The Heritage Crusade and the Spoils of History David Lowenthal, 1998-05-13 Heritage has burgeoned over the past quarter of a century from a small lite preoccupation into a major popular crusade Everything from Disneyland to the Holocaust Museum from the Balkan wars to the Northern Irish Troubles from Elvis memorabilia to the Elgin Marbles bears the marks of the cult of heritage In this acclaimed book David Lowenthal explains the rise of this new obsession with the past and examines its power for both good and evil Timely and provocative brilliant and stimulating pyrotechnic everything from the Pilgrim Fathers to the Inuits from Homer s Greece to the rainforests of Brazil Roy Strong The Sunday Times entertaining and enthralling Ben Pimlott The Guardian

The Heritage of Traditional Malay Literature V.I. Braginsky, 2022-06-20 Traditional literature or the deed of the reed pen as it was called by its creators is not only the most valuable part of the cultural heritage of the Malay people but also a shared legacy of Malaysia Indonesia Singapore and Brunei Malay culture during its heyday saw the entire Universe as a piece of literature written by the Creator with the Sublime Pen on the Guarded Tablet Literature was not just the creation of a scribe but a scribe himself imprinting words on the sheet of memory and thus shaping human personality This book the first comprehensive survey of traditional Malay literature in English since 1939 embraces more than a millennium of Malay letters from the vague data of the seventh century up to the early beginnings of the modern literatures in the late nineteenth century The long path trodden by traditional Malay literature is viewed in historical and theoretical perspectives as a development of integral system caused by cultural and religious changes primarily by gradual Islamization This changing system considered in the entirety of its genres and works is seen both externally and internally from the point of view of modern scholarship and through the examination of indigenous concepts of literary creativity poetics and aesthetics The book not only represents an original study based on a specific historico theoretical approach but it is also a complete reference work and an indispensable manual for students

Constructing the Heritage Language Learner Neriko Doerr, Kiri Lee, 2013-05-28 Heritage language education is a relatively new field developed as heritage has become an important trope of belonging legitimacy and commodification Many recent studies treat the heritage language learner as an objective category However it is a social construct whose meaning is contested by researchers school administrators and the students themselves Based on ethnographic fieldwork in 2007 2011 at a weekend Japanese language school in the United States this monograph investigates the construction of the heritage language learner at the intersections of the knowledge power complex ideologies of language and national belonging and politics of schooling It examines the ways individuals become resist and negotiate their new subjectivity as heritage language learners through becoming objects of study being caught in nationalist aspirations and school politics regarding what to teach to whom and negotiating with peers with various linguistic proficiency and family backgrounds The volume proposes a new approach to view the notion of heritage language learner as a site of negotiation regarding the legitimate knowledge of language and ways of belonging while offering practical suggestions for schools Heritage Crime Louise Grove, Suzie Thomas, 2014-10-06 Bringing together leading academics and practitioners from across the globe this unique collection explores the emerging field of heritage crime studies Moving beyond the traditional focus on illicit antiquities the volume identifies the diversity of crimes that affect heritage and outlines various approaches to prevention APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service , Index of Trademarks Issued from the United States Patent and Trademark Office , 1992 The Heritage Tourist Experience Dallen J. Timothy, 2017-05-15 This three volume reference series provides an authoritative and comprehensive set of volumes collecting together the most influential articles and papers on tourism heritage and culture The papers have been selected and introduced by Dallen Timothy one of the leading international scholars in tourism research The second volume The Heritage Tourist Experience focuses on the nature of the heritage experience the demand for heritage and managing visitors and their experiences Sold individually and as a set this series will prove an essential reference work for scholars and students in geography tourism and heritage studies cultural studies and beyond Conservation in the Age of Consensus John Pendlebury, 2008-09-17 This new text on the subject of conservation in the built environment provides a unique holistic view on the understanding of the practice of conservation connecting it with wider societal and political forces UK practice is used as a means along with international examples for bringing together a real understanding of practice with a social science analysis of the issues The author introduces ideas about the meanings and values attached to historic environments and how that translates into public policies of conservation

The Heritage of Kazimierz Ajdukiewicz Jan Woleński, Vito Sinisi, 2023-03-13 This book presents Kazimierz Ajdukiewicz's philosophy Ajdukiewicz was one of the most distinguished and important philosophers of the contemporary Poland He produced important ideas in logic epistemology philosophy of language and ontology He influenced Polish analytic philosophy very much The collection gives a general account of Ajdukiewicz philosophy and it is the only full presentation of his ideas available in Western languages The volume is of interest for everybody working in analytic philosophy Heritage and Tourism in The Global Village Priscilla Boniface, Peter Fowler, 2002-11-01 A nation's heritage is one of the most potent forces for generating tourism the Tower of London is the greatest visitor attraction in Britain But it is pushed into insignificance by comparison with the visitors travelling to Disneyland Epcot and the other entertainment complexes in the USA and it will be dwarfed by Euro Disneyland east of Paris So how should heritage attractions respond should they find their own specific audiences and resources This book written by a leading heritage specialist is essential reading for all those concerned both with heritage and leisure management International in scope it examines successful examples of heritage management for tourism and equally some failures It aims to lay some useful ground rules which should underpin all heritage developments designed to attract tourism on a major scale Archaeology and Heritage John Carman, 2003-01-01 Unlike most textbooks on heritage which discuss the creation of heritage as a cultural phenomenon or offer practical guides to heritage practices Archaeology and Heritage takes a fresh approach by providing an introduction to themes in the field of heritage as it relates to the material legacy of our past A survey of current approaches to theorizing archaeological practice presents some ideas about how we understand and relate to the remains sites structures and buildings that have come to our present from the past The book is divided into seven chapters each preceded by a short interlude which considers the types of literature and ways of talking about heritage which characterize that approach For those not already acquainted with recent archaeological theory the book provides a brief introduction to current trends Each chapter is in turn divided into key points indicated by sub headings and these key points are reiterated at the end of each chapter and are followed by a list of suggested readings
