Crisis Cinema in the Middle East Shohini Chaudhuri, 2022-06-16 In recent years the Arab world and Iran have been afflicted by cataclysmic events among them brutal state crackdowns of revolutions Yet filmmakers have persisted in their desire to tell their stories against the odds in creative acts that attest to their imagination courage and resilience In this book Shohini Chaudhuri examines a broad range of films made during the tumultuous period since 2009 ranging from internationally award winning festival favourites such as For Sama 2019 Capernaum 2018 and Taxi Tehran 2015 to lesser known films from the region While freedom of expression is often understood through the lens of state censorship she reveals the different types of obstacles that filmmakers face and their strategies for overcoming them so that those constraints are transformed into creative opportunities Using her original interviews with filmmakers such as Waad al Kateab Yasmin Fedda Larissa Sansour Mani Haghighi and Ossama Mohammed she identifies nine creative strategies for producing work under conditions of crisis Chaudhuri argues that creativity is indelibly shaped by constraints whether these are externally imposed by existing materials funding and socio political conditions or self imposed constraints through choices of genre or acceptance of rules and responsibilities She shows that the range of creative strategies emanating from the region is much wider than allegory and becoming ever more direct She thus opens up new lines of inquiry into cinematic creativity in sites of conflict and crisis in the Middle East and beyond

Women and Development Jamal Sanad Al-Suwaidi,2020-03-16 His Excellency Prof Jamal Sanad Al Suwaidi Director General of the Emirates Center for Strategic Studies and Research has published a new book titled Women and Development which addresses over four chapters major issues relevant to Arab Islamic thought regarding women and their role in development His Excellency believes that women s problems are in fact society s problems and these problems will not be solved without the involvement of government and private organizations and society as a whole Improving the status of women and promoting their participation in development is the concern of the entire country The author puts forth arguments proving the unsustainable rhetoric voiced by regressive political Islam which sought through selective interpretation of Islamic texts to impose restrictions on the freedom of women and their participation in the development process The author also provides practical responses to urgent questions regarding the status of women in Islam such as their access to education and presence in labor markets in relation to men In this regard the author refers to statistics and survey data as well as analytical readings of the circumstances involving women s rights in GCC countries In the last chapter the author explores the status of women in the United Arab Emirates as they set a role model for Gulf and Arab women This model was shaped by the late Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan may God rest his soul in peace through his open and insightful thought and implemented through effective policies and programs Making the New Middle East Valerie J. Hoffman,2019-02-28 Demands for freedom justice and dignity have animated protests and revolutions across the Middle East in recent years from the Iranian Green Movement and the Arab Spring uprisings to Turkey s March for Justice and the ongoing struggle in Palestine Although expectations raised by the Arab Spring were largely disappointed and protests that toppled entrenched rulers unleashed vicious counterrevolutionary forces there is no doubt that the landscape of the Middle East has changed Drawing from diverse disciplines this volume offers critical perspectives on these changes covering politics religion gender dynamics human rights media literature and music What ultimately has changed in the new Middle East Who are the actors pushing the direction of change How are aspirations for change being expressed through media and the arts With extensive analysis and thoughtful reflection this book gives readers an in depth portrayal of a modernizing Middle East
