Women have worked to attain freedom through speaking out writing memoirs fiction plays poetry and essays. The creative experiences of women are captured in this book thus fulfilling the book's aim to give women voices to air their views and show that they are effectual members of society. The book examines the roles played by patriarchy religion and socioeconomic and political systems that keep women to the background. It also examines the issue of education otherhood marginalization cultural imposition and the diverse positions of women in local and international affairs. The book testifies that women's literature and the stories of women all over the world can be appreciated and viewed from different perspectives because of the diverse cultural environment in which women find themselves. Resistance, Flight, Creation Dorothea Olkowski, 2000 Thirteen women at the forefront of philosophy locate new feminist points of view within the discipline by rigorously engaging works of contemporary French philosophy In so doing they both transform the standard practices of the field and carve out new territory These writers amplify the work of feminist philosophers such as Simone de Beauvoir Luce Irigaray and Sarah Kofman in ways that are both stylistically and substantively creative They also appropriate for radical feminist use the works of male philosophers such as Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze Maurice Merleau Ponty and Jean Paul Sartre The essays illustrate the manner in which feminist philosophers bypass traditional methodology in favor of a disciplinary freedom characterized by fluid methodologies best exemplified in Beauvoir s work and by the employment of imaginative forms including the autobiographical and the poetic The modes of inquiry used here range variously from psychoanalysis and existentialism to deconstruction post structuralism and newly resurgent phenomenology This volume also contains a comprehensive bibliography of feminist thinkers who are enacting French philosophy in English German and French The Films of Apichatpong Weerasethakul Anik Sarkar, Jayjit Sarkar, 2024-01-15 Delving into Apichatpong Weerasethakul s films this book uncovers a plethora of conceptual paradigms Apichatpong s films frequently utilize rural Thailand as a backdrop showcasing daily life interactions rituals and customs all infused with a Southeast Asian essence This utilization of local imagery provides a national quality to his works allowing a global audience to explore both urban and rural aspects of Thai society along with discourses on history culture politics and practices Beyond the surface the films also address universal and intricate themes transcending cultural boundaries The book delves into a range of lesser explored aspects regarding the films and filmmaking of Apichatpong developing fresh perspectives on the representation of nonhumans hybrid forms transmedia plot technique production among others With meticulous analyses of his key works this interdisciplinary study unveils the threads that bind Apichatpong s creative practice
