categorisations of modernism and reframing our conception of what constitutes modernist aesthetics It describes the construction of modernist studies and argues that despite a range of interventions which suggest that philosophical and material articulations with the third world shaped modernism an emphasis on modernist universals persists Ramanathan argues that women and third world authors have reshaped received notions of the modern and revised orthodox ideas on the modern aesthetic Authors such as Bessie Head Josiane Racine T Obinkaram Echewa Raja Rao Gabriel Garcia Marquez Sembene Ousmane Salman Rushdie Ana Castillo Attia Hossain Bapsi Sidhwa and Sahar Khalifeh are visited in their specific cultural contexts and use some form of realism a mode that western modernism relegates to the nineteenth century A comparative methodology and extensive research on intersecting topics such as post coloniality and the articulation between gender and modernist aesthetics facilitates readings of the modern in twentieth century literature that fall outside standards of western modernism Considering the relationship between aesthetics and ideology Ramanathan lays out a critical apparatus to enhance our understanding of the modern thus suggesting that form is not universal but that the history of forms like the history of colonialism and of women indicates very specific modalities of the modern Crucifixions and Resurrections of the Image George Pattison, 2009 A series of accessible reflections on some of the artists of the twentieth century including Joseph Beuys Anselm Kiefer Anthony Gormley and Marc Rothko Inventing 'Easter Island' Beverley Haun, 2008-04-05 Easter Island or Rapa Nui as it is known to its inhabitants is located in the Pacific Ocean 3600 kilometres west of South America Annexed by Chile in 1888 the island has been a source of fascination for the world beyond the island since the first visit by Europeans in 1722 due to its intriguing statues and complex history Inventing Easter Island examines narrative strategies and visual conventions in the discursive construction of Easter Island as distinct from the native conception of Rapa Nui It looks at the geographic imaginary that pervaded the eighteenth century a period of overwhelming imperial expansion Beverley Haun begins with a discussion of forces that shaped the European version of island culture and goes on to consider the representation of that culture in the form of explorer texts and illustrations as well as more recent texts and images in comic books and kitsch from off the island Throughout Easter Island is used as a case study of the impact of imperialism on the view of a culture from outside The study hinges on three key points an inquiry into the formation of Easter Island as a subject an examination of how the constructed space and culture have been shaped reshaped and represented in discursive spaces and a discussion of cultural memory and how the constraints of foreign texts and images have shaped thought and action about Easter Island Richly illustrated and unique in its findings Inventing Easter Island will appeal to cultural theorists anthropologists educators and anyone interested in the history of the South Pacific
