Owen Cole, Peggy Morgan, 1984-01-01 Six religions in the twentieth century William Owen Cole, 1986

Six Religions in the Twentieth Century William Owen Cole, Peggy Morgan, 1984 Towards a Methodology for Comparative Studies in Religious Education Oddrun M.H. Bråten, 2013 In this book Oddrun M H Br ten set out to utilise and test her methodology for comparative religious education This synthesises two sets of ideas The first includes supranational national and subnational processes Formal supranational processes refer to international educational policymaking in international organisations Informal supranational processes include secularisation pluralisation and globalisation Subnational processes refer to variations between regions within a country The second set of ideas concerns the societal institutional instructional and experiential levels of curriculum They are affected by supranational national and subnational processes In discussing the societal level attention needs to be given to the histories of religion state and school in each country Research at the institutional level involves analysis of relevant policy documents and legislation in each country while research at the instructional level involves analysis of how teachers interpret plan and teach the curriculum while the experiential level researches how students interact with one another and with teachers to develop their understanding A third set of ideas includes Br ten s use of Schiffauer and collaborators concepts of social national imaginary and civil enculturation These concepts help in grasping the historical and sociological depth of national traditions This publication is a groundbreaking study in the methodology of comparative religious education and the author won the award for Outstanding Research Student of 2009 2010 in the field of education at the University of Warwick Good Practice In Primary Religious Education 4-11 Derek Bastide, 2017-12-22 Intended for the use of primary head teachers class teachers and teachers in training this book examines the requirements of the 1988 Education Reform Act in respect of religious education in schools It offers guidance on ways in which religious education can be developed successfully Ladakh in the Twentieth Century Dr. Sudhir S. Bloeria, 2021-04-01 Ladakh for centuries has been a land of mystery for the people of many ethnicities Notwithstanding a rich historical background Ladakh today is a vastland with its own unique culture and traditions Known by many names like the Land of Lamas Moon land Land of High Winds Cold Desert and the like Ladakh is truly the Nature s workshop studio and art gallery all rolled in one This book is dedicated by the author to Rigzin Namgyal Kalon the man who did wonders for the development of the Ladakh region Ladakh and many generations to follow would always be grateful to him and all that he did for this region and the people irrespective of their place caste creed or religion For Ladakh with all its glory and splendid isolation the twentieth century has been a period of great trials and tribulations crisis and opportunities and in the final analysis a number of downs and many more ups The region has flourished but is still not clearly out of the woods The author with his personal experience in the region has brought out these facets of the region in great details

Beyond the Big Six Religions James D. Holt, 2019-10-25 Beyond the Big Six Religions Expanding the Boundaries in the Teaching of Religion and Worldviews is a timely addition to the literature surrounding Religious Education teaching in schools The book explores the desirability and possibility of expanding the breadth of religious and non religious worldviews within the classroom Written by an expert in Religious Education and minority religions this book articulates the importance of the inclusion of minority voices within the classroom and in wider society

In Search of the Sacred Clinton Bennett, 1996-01-01 This text traces the growth and development of two related disciplines anthropology and the study of religions Locating these disciplines within the intellectual climate of the 19th century the study considers the contributions of scholars such as James George Frazer F Max Muller Emile Durkheim Mary Douglas and Clifford Geertz within an historical framework The author argues that both anthropologists and students of religion have abandoned an objective approach in favour of personal engagement with their subjects replacing observation with conversation monologue with dialogue a text based with people based approach He reveals how each discipline has influenced the other both in terms of methodology and by the provision of data The book also explores the criticism levelled at both disciplines that they have aided colonial domination of the developing world

Muslim-Christian Engagement in the Twentieth Century Charles Fletcher, 2014-10-21 Christian Muslim dialogue grows increasingly important but little is known about individual Muslim dialogical thinkers Born in Palestine in 1921 Ismail al Faruqi was a leading figure in the development of conversation and debate across faiths in North America in the second half of the twentieth century and was actively engaged in inter faith study and dialogue Al Faruqi founded the Islamic Studies programme at Temple University Pennsylvania where several distinguished Muslim intellectuals have taught such as Seyyid Hossein Nasr Mahmoud Ayoub and Hasan Hanafi Along with Kenneth Cragg and Wilfred Cantwell Smith al Faruqi was an active participant in Muslim Christian dialogues in the 1970s and the 1980s Charles Fletcher here presents the first study dedicated to Ismail al Faruqi s theory and practice of interfaith dialogue Analysing al Faruqi s sometimes provocative ideas on the comparative study of religion dialogue and practical engagement the author provides an illuminating study of the life and thought of this important scholar Tracing the development of al Faruqi s ideas and practice of inter faith dialogue Fletcher shows how Muslim intellectuals engaged in such attempts viewed their role as representatives of the worldwide Muslim community With perceptive insights into the history of contemporary Muslim Christian dialogue this book will be invaluable for all those interested in inter faith relations comparative religious studies North American Muslims and Islamic studies
