Carterette,Margaret Hubbard Jones,2021 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974 We Were the All-American Girls Jim Sargent,2013-05-03 Here are 42 interviews with women who competed in the All American Girls Professional Baseball League Each interview features data about the player a short summary of her athletic career and the player s recollections A brief history covers the many changes as the league evolved from underhand pitching with a 12 inch circumference ball in 1943 to overhand pitching adopted in 1948 through the circuit s final year 1954 when a regulation baseball was introduced The interviews range from 1995 to 2012 and reveal details of particular games highlights of individual careers the camaraderie of teammates opponents and fans and the impact the League made on their lives Several players recall how the 1992 movie A League of Their Own brought the historic All American League back to life almost 40 years after the final game was played River Thunder Gary McCarthy,2011-01-18 On the vast and indescribably beautiful South Rim of the Grand Canyon a young Hualapai boy faces a bleak future in 1902 River Thunder s mother has just passed into the Spirit World and his father has nothing left to give the boy except his hand carved flute and his magical gift for music It is a time in America s history when Native American children were separated from their loving families tribes and even their ancient and traditional cultures and sent to distant Indian Schools for re education and vocational training River Thunder will carry his flute courage and trusting innocence to the Hackberry Day School still standing today on old Route 66 while never once imagining how his fate will one day soar like an eagle over the magnificent Grand Canyon His life s journey will carry River Thunder into a tender but forbidden love and the terrifying but exhilarating experience of aerial warfare fought in a World War I biplane RIVER THUNDER was the recipient of the prestigious Western Writers of America s 2009 Spur Award for Best Western Audio Book The story begins in the early 1900 s and ends shortly after World War I and is set against the harsh background of Arizona s rugged northern mountains and the magnificent Grand Canyon Raising Our Athletic Daughters Jean Zimmerman,2011-11-23 Now in paperback the first book to document how participating in sports changes young girls lives during the difficult years of adolescence From high profile women s professional leagues to high school level champions girl athletes are achieving record breakthroughs Witness for example the first spectacular season of the WNBA or the celebrated victories of women s teams at the 1996 Olympics The female athlete is a new media darling especially beloved of today s teenage girls who are almost as likely to have pictures of Rebecca Lobo Mia Hamm or Gabrielle Reece on their walls as posters of Leonardo DiCaprio So it seems paradoxical that many books and studies attest to a truly sobering picture of girls lives With her book Reviving Ophelia Mary Pipher was only the latest in a string of theorists to describe the dramatic ways in which girls lose self esteem during the critical years of adolescence contributing to eating disorders drug problems and chronic depression in many young women In Raising Our Athletic Daughters journalists Zimmerman and Reavill set out to talk with girls and their parents about how sports can transform girls lives Here are firsthand stories from the inner cities and rural playing fields across the nation offering compelling evidence that participation in athletics makes an extraordinary difference in the lives of young girls from reducing pregnancy rates and substance abuse to increasing college attendance Raising Our Athletic Daughters is a clarion call for all those eager to help their children succeed and level the playing field at last

A Game of Their Own Jennifer Ring,2015-04 In 2010 twenty American women were selected to represent Team USA in the fourth Women s Baseball World Cup in Caracas Venezuela most Americans however had no idea such a team even existed A Game of Their Own chronicles the largely invisible history of women in baseball and offers an account of the 2010 Women s World Cup tournament Jennifer Ring includes oral histories of eleven members of the U S Women s National Team from the moment each player picked up a bat and ball as a young girl to her selection for Team USA Each story is unique but they share common themes that will resonate with young female players and fans alike facing skepticism and taunts from players and parents when taking the batter s box or the pitcher s mound self doubt the unceasing pressure to switch to softball and eventual acceptance by their baseball teammates as they prove themselves as ballplayers These racially culturally and economically diverse players from across the country have ignored the message that their love of the national pastime is wrong Their stories come alive as they recount their battles and most memorable moments playing baseball the joys of exceeding expectations and the pleasure of honing baseball skills and talent despite the lack of support With exclusive interviews with players coaches and administrators A Game of Their Own celebrates the U S Women s National Team and the excellence of its remarkable players In response to the jeer No girls allowed these are powerful stories of optimism feistiness and staying true to oneself
