Love & Gelato Jenna Evans Welch, 2017-05-02 After her mother dies Lina travels to Italy where she discovers her mothers's journal and sets off on an adventure to unearth her mother's secrets Speaking of Love: The Love Dialogue in Italian and French Renaissance Literature Reinier Leushuis, 2017-03-27 Re-evaluating the dialogue's place in the literary landscape of the Italian and French Renaissance Speaking of Love presents the love dialogue at the intersection of a revival of the form and the period's philosophies of love and desire Between 1540 and 1580 authors such as Speroni Tullia d'Aragona the Venetian poliglotta Tyard Le Caron Pasquier Taillemont Marguerite de Navarre and Louise Labé feature interlocutors not only deliberating on love but imitating the experience of love in their dynamics of speaking These love dialogues allow early modern ideologies and discourses of love to be imitated by the reader and rival lyric poetry in conveying amorous experience validating dialogue as an authentic literary form rather than a tool of philosophical thinking The Love Scrolls Edward Theodore Hayes, 2008-06 Forget everything you were taught forget everything you heard just forget everything you thought you knew about love What you are about to hear will change your heart forever What if we found someone that was true to love and characterized the nature of pure love itself Then you would have Angel and oh how she would save restore heal and guide one's heart to that perfect nature once again This will test the knight's beliefs love and allegiance to his queen The angel will reestablish the principles of love restore its hierarchy and carry its very flag The knight's beliefs will be turned upside down with a new angelic gospel Behold In truth the knight is about to be set free In faith he is about to grow wings In love he is about to soar and you are invited to go with him If you follow the angel's gospel you also will never be in want of the spiritual fruits again ever Let Angel tell it where they are and how to gain an eternal supply and never see the lack of love again no matter who you think may be holding its supply In the end you will share love's entire storehouse and enjoy its eternal victory Don't settle for just winning a heart but in love conquer Visit thelovescrolls.com for more Love in the Theatre of Marivaux Valentini Papadopoulou Brady, 1970 Life, Love, and Unity Deanna James, 2014-03 Ann and Michael have both been married before Their past relationships ended in nothing but heartbreak and they both carry the battle scars to prove it Love is frankly the last thing on Ann's mind She has a severely ill daughter to care for plus she worries that her ex might show up and tear her life apart again Michael lives far far away from his children and emotionally he's far away from everyone He thinks he's too battered and bruised to be in a relationship He feels he doesn't deserve love and he barely remembers how to give it Then a chance meeting brings Ann and Michael together and new feelings threaten their equilibrium Ann has trust issues She refuses to trust another man with her heart but she also has trouble trusting men with her children Michael is afraid of ruining Ann's life as he has ruined his own Yet their connection is undeniable and it will take a leap of faith from both of them to make this unexpected love last Public Vision, Private Lives Mark Sydney Cladis, 2007 Mark S Cladis pinpoints the origins of contemporary notions of the public and private and their relationship to religion in the work of Jean Jacques Rousseau His thesis cuts across many fields and issues philosophy of religion women's studies democratic theory modern European history American culture social justice privacy laws and notions of solitude and community and wholly reconsiders the political cultural and legal nature of modernity in relation to religion Turning to Rousseau's Garden its inhabitants the Solitaires and the question of restoration and redemption that preoccupied much of Rousseau's thought Cladis examines how Rousseau addressed the tension between the joys and moral obligations of social engagement and the desire for solitude He was caught between two possibilities active involvement in the creation of an enlightened and humane society or extrication from social entanglements in favor of cultivating a spiritual interior life Yet Rousseau did not view this conflict as a desperate division Rather for him it was a moral struggle to be endured by those who had fallen from the Garden For this edition Cladis has added a substantive introduction that discusses the role of religion in contemporary democratic societies particularly in American public life Cladis proposes four models of thinking about religion in public and champions what he calls spiritual democracy a dynamic culturally specific and progressive democracy Cladis argues that spiritual democracy refers not only to a society's legal codes and principles but also to its democratic culture and symbols and its daily practices and institutions It encompasses the nation's character diverse identities and a distinctively exchange between the nation's public vision and citizens complex private lives
