Multicultural Families, Home Literacies, and Mainstream Schooling Guofang Li, 2009-02-01 Lack of knowledge about immigrant and minority students learning outside school has contributed to the difficulties educators encounter when trying to embrace cultural diversity Many educators do not have the knowledge base about immigrant and minority children's culturally specific ways of learning in nonschool settings Given the changing cultural landscapes in today's schools we have an imperative to develop more situated understandings of immigrant and minority children's literacy learning experiences embedded in the social and cultural fabrics of their everyday lives outside school This volume of research meets this important need in the field It not only focuses on the complexity of literacy learning in diverse home contexts but also examines how literacy is practiced and lived in multiple ways within families of various backgrounds including those of Asian African and African American Hispanic White European and mixed heritages In addition it explores how these various culturally embedded home practices will inform school education and policy making in a larger socio political context The book makes an original and significant contribution to the fields of literacy education and school home and community partnerships Since immigrant and minority families literacy activities and the cultural contexts of their practices at home are not readily accessible to school personnel program developers policy makers or even researchers and educators this book will serve as an important resource for teachers practitioners undergraduate and graduate students teacher educators and university researchers who are in the fields of literacy education family literacy and new literacy studies minority and or immigrant education and second language education Art Nexus, 2003 Only the Road / Solo el Camino Margaret Randall, 2016-09-22 Featuring the work of more than fifty poets writing across the last eight decades Only the Road Solo el Camino is the most complete bilingual anthology of Cuban poetry available to an English readership It is distinguished by its stylistic breadth and the diversity of its contributors who come from throughout Cuba and its diaspora and include luminaries lesser known voices and several Afro Cuban and LGBTQ poets Nearly half of the poets in the collection are women Only the Road paints a full and dynamic picture of modern Cuban life and poetry highlighting their unique features and idiosyncrasies the changes across generations and the ebbs and flows between repression and freedom following the Revolution Poet Margaret Randall who translated each poem contributes extensive biographical notes for each poet and a historical introduction to twentieth century Cuban poetry Binding in Spanish Ana Varela, 1991 Lorca's Drawings and Poems Cecelia J. Cavanaugh, 1995 Lorca's Drawings and Poems focuses on the act of reading Lorca's drawn or written texts and how the reading of one genre can inform the reading of another Throughout the study poetry and drawings from every period of Lorca's career are examined Selected drawings are interpreted next poems contemporary to those drawings are analyzed in their light In chapter 1 a common poetics is extracted from Lorca's comments about his drawings and writing and placed in the context of the literary and artistic movements of his day The evolution of the literary criticism that examines Lorca's drawings is traced and reviewed Lorca's texts are examined from varying perspectives in the chapters that follow In chapter 2 drawings and poems from 1927 to 1928 are analyzed in light of Lorca's participations in artistic and literary movements during those years Texts from each period of Lorca's work are read in chapter 3 in a study of Lorca's employment of space and his depiction of setting and subject in his drawings and poems Such a chronological approach allows the reading of Lorca's texts to reveal the evolution of his aesthetics as well as to identify the imagery and techniques that remained consistent throughout his career

Goya's Graphic Imagination Mark McDonald, Mercedes Cerón-Peña, Francisco J. R. Chaparro, Jesusa Vega, 2021-02-08 This book presents the first focused investigation of Francisco Goya's 1746-1828 graphic output Spanning six decades Goya's works on paper reflect the transformation and turmoil of the Enlightenment the Inquisition and Spain's years of constitutional government Two essays a detailed chronology and more than 100 featured artworks illuminate the remarkable breadth and power of Goya's drawings and prints situating the artist within his historical moment The selected pieces document the various phases and qualities of Goya's graphic work from his early etchings after Velázquez through print series such as the Caprichos and The Disasters of War to his late lithographs The Bulls of Bordeaux and including albums of drawings that reveal the artist's nightmares dreams and visions La Cerámica

Writing and Filming the Painting Laura M. Sager Eidt, 2008-01-01 This innovative interdisciplinary study compares the uses of painting in literary texts and films In developing a framework of four types of ekphrasis the author argues for the expansion of the concept of ekphrasis by demonstrating its applicability as interpretive tool to films about the visual arts and artists Analyzing selected works of art by Goya Rembrandt and Vermeer and their ekphrastic treatment in various texts and films this book examines how the medium of ekphrasis affects the representation of the visual arts in order to show what the differences imply about issues such as gender roles and the function of art for the construction of a personal or social identity Because of its highly cross disciplinary nature this book is of interest not only to scholars of literature and aesthetics but also for scholars of film studies By providing an innovative approach to discussing non documentary films about artists the author shows that ekphrasis is a useful tool for exploring both aesthetic concerns and ideological issues in film This study also addresses art historians as it deals with the reception of major artists in European literature and film throughout the 20th century Ramón Gómez de la Serna Ricardo Fernández Romero,2023 A celebrity in his own day who gave lectures dressed as Napoleon or seated on the back of an elephant Ram on G omez de la Serna is the most representative writer of the interwar Spanish avant garde This book explores G omez de la Serna s art and his quest to break down the barriers between literature and life addressing two elements already present in his work of radical relevance in today s cultural debates the relation of the human being to the material world and the reduction of all experience to a singular individuality Bringing G omez de la Serna to an Anglophone audience it reveals him to be the embodiment of a new kind of art on both sides of the Atlantic Zaha Hadid, 1992-1995 Zaha Hadid,1995
