The Harmony Silk Factory Paperback:

The Harmony Silk Factory Tash Aw, 2006-02-07 Joseph Conrad W Somerset Maugham and Anthony Burgess have shaped our perceptions of Malaysia In Tash Aw we now have an authentic Malaysian voice that remaps this literary landscape The Harmony Silk Factory traces the story of textile merchant Johnny Lim a Chinese peasant living in British Malaya in the first half of the twentieth century Johnny's factory is the most impressive structure in the region and to the inhabitants of the Kinta Valley Johnny is a hero a Communist who fought the Japanese when they invaded ready to sacrifice his life for the welfare of his people But to his son Jasper Johnny is a crook and a collaborator who betrayed the very people he pretended to serve and the Harmony Silk Factory is merely a front for his father's illegal businesses This debut novel from Tash Aw gives us an exquisitely written look into another culture at a moment of crisis The Harmony Silk Factory won the 2005 Whitbread First Novel Award and also made it to the 2005 Man Booker longlist The Harmony Silk Factory Tash Aw, 2005 A brilliant novel from a genuinely exciting new voice in British fiction A novel for anyone who enjoyed The English Patient The Harmony Silk Factory by Tash Aw Molly Travers, 2006

Moody,2024-03-03 The Oxford Handbook of Southeast Asian Englishes is the first reference work of its kind to describe both the history and the contemporary forms functions and status of English in Southeast Asia SEA Since the arrival of English traders to Southeast Asia in the seventeenth century the English language has had a profound impact on the linguistic ecologies and the development of societies throughout the region Today countries such as Singapore and the Philippines have adopted English as a national language while in others such as Indonesia and Cambodia it is used as a foreign language of education The chapters in this volume provide a comprehensive overview of current research on a wide range of topics addressing the impact of English as a language of globalization and exploring new approaches to the spread of English in SEA The volume is divided into six parts that investigate respectively historical and contemporary English contact in SEA the structures of the Englishes spoken in different SEA nations the English language literatures of the region approaches to English in education throughout the region and resources for researching SEA Englishes The handbook will be an invaluable reference work for students and researchers in areas as diverse as contact linguistics English as a Foreign Language world Englishes and sociolinguistics Evening is the Whole Day Preeta Samarasan,2008 Set in Malaysia this spellbinding and already internationally acclaimed debut introduces us to the prosperous Rajasekharan family as its closely guarded secrets are slowly peeled away When Chellam the family's rubber plantation bred servant girl is dismissed for unnamed crimes her banishment is the latest in a series of recent precipitous losses that have shaken six year old Aasha's life A few short weeks before Aasha's grandmother Paati passed away under mysterious circumstances and her older sister Uma departed for Columbia University leaving Aasha alone to cope with her mostly absent father her bitter mother and her imperturbable older brother Beginning with Aasha's grandfather's ascension from Indian coolie to illustrious resident of the Big House on Kingfisher Lane and going on to tell the story of how Appa the family's Oxford educated patriarch courted Amma the humble girl next door Evening Is the Whole Day moves gracefully backward and forward in time to answer the many questions that haunt the family What was Chellam's unforgivable crime Why was Uma so intent on leaving How and why did Paati die What did Aasha see And underscoring all of these mysteries What ultimately became of Appa's once grand dreams for his family and his country Sweeping in scope sumptuously lyrical and masterfully constructed Evening Is the Whole Day offers an unflinching look at relationships between parents and children brothers and sisters the wealthy and the poor a country and its citizens and the ways in which each sometimes fails the other Illuminating in heartbreaking detail one Indian immigrant family's secrets and lies while exposing the complex underbelly of Malaysia itself Preeta Samarasan's debut is a mesmerizing and vital achievement sure to earn her a place alongside Arundhati Roy Kiran Desai and Zadie Smith

Colony, Nation, and Globalisation Eddie Tay, 2010-06-01 The literature of Malaysia and Singapore the multicultural epicentre of Asia offers a rich body of source material for appreciating the intellectual heritage of colonial and postcolonial Southeast Asia Focusing on themes of home and belonging Eddie Tay illuminates many aspects of identity anxiety experienced in the region and helps construct a dialogue between postcolonial theory and the Anglophone literatures of Singapore and Malaysia A chronologically ordered selection of texts is examined including Swettenham Bird Maugham Burgess and Thumboo This genealogy of works includes colonial travel writings and sketches as well as contemporary diasporic novels by Malaysian and Singapore born authors based outside their countries of origin The premise is that home is a physical space as well as a symbolic terrain invested with social political and cultural meanings As discussions of politics and history augment close readings of literary works the book should appeal not only to scholars of literature but also to scholars of Southeast Asian politics and history

Memory and Nation-Building Vandana Saxena, 2021-08-31 Nations are built by narrating their past Threads of common memories weave the fabric of the national culture integrating the heterogeneous communities into the idea of a single nation In multicultural societies the process is a messy one Different communities remember the past from perspectives that often clash with each other Multiple memories of a multicultural nation challenge the idea of a singular national identity and call for multiple forms of belonging Memory and Nation Building explores the contemporary images of World War II in Malaysian literature and the continuing significance of the conflict in the collective memory and nation building in Malaysia Given the multicultural nature of the nation the War memories of

Malaysia are multiple and often contradictory In the contemporary Malaysian literature these memories embody the search for a historical narrative that would accommodate the cultural and ethnic diversity of the country

Fiction and Faction in the Malay World Mohamad Rashidi Pakri, 2013-02-14 This book offers a variety of essays and perspectives on some of the foreigners and traders who came to the Malay World and wrote fiction and faction writing that portrays real people or events in a dramatised manner during their sojourn regardless of whether they continued to stay in the region returned to their home country or migrated to another country The essays tend to cross generic and disciplinary boundaries as the contributors of this book are drawn from various fields within the arts and humanities including history geography language and literature and translation All of them however deal with colonial texts the Malay World or primarily cover the period from the 18th to the 20th century Including readings of fiction diaries vignettes letters written by traders or colonial officers the uniqueness of this book lies in the personal private and or informal nature of the various documents studied The encounters of these outsiders with the natives not only offer fascinating historical insights into the Malay World but to a significant degree vividly express the views and personalities of the writers themselves as mediated through their assigned commercial and colonial roles
