Re-Imagining Nature Alfred Kentigern Siewers, 2013-12-24 Re Imagining Nature Environmental Humanities and Ecossemiotics explores new horizons in environmental studies which consider communication and meaning as core definitions of ecological life essential to deep sustainability It considers landscape as narrative and applies theoretical frameworks in eco phenomenology and ecossemiotics to literary historical and philosophical study of the relationship between text and landscape It considers in particular examples and lessons to be drawn from case studies of medieval and Native American cultures to illustrate in an applied way the promise of environmental humanities today In doing so it highlights an environmental future for the humanities on the cutting edge of cultural endeavor today Ayurvedic Yoga Therapy Mukunda Stiles, 2008-05-27

Yoga Journal of American Folklore , 1916 At A Loss For Words Betty Bardige, 2011-02-07 Drawing on the latest research on development among toddlers and preschoolers At a Loss for Words lays out the importance of getting parents policy makers and child care providers to recognize the role of early literacy skills in reducing the achievement gap that begins before three years of age Readers are guided through home and classroom settings that promote language contrasting them with the merely mediocre child care settings in which more and more young children spend increasing amounts of time Too many of our young children are not receiving the level of input and practice that will enable them to acquire language skills the key to success in school and life Bardige explains how to build better community support systems for children and better public education in order to ensure that toddlers learn the power of language from their families and teachers

Looking for Signs: Animals, Spirits and Death Rituals Ibaloy Perspectives (Itogon, Philippines) Laugrand (Ed.), Gliseria Magapin, Frédéric Laugrand, Jazil Tamang, 2020-02-27 This publication is the volume 3 of a series dealing with the culture and traditions of the Ibaloy of Upper Doacan Itogon Benguet Philippines It is available in Nabaloy and in English Elders share their stories to a group of youngsters who ask them questions on a variety of topics such as animals signs death rituals and spirits The book provides the verbatim accounts of these discussions recorded during a workshop that took place at the Senior Citizen hall in 2018

Globalization and Animal Law Thomas G. Kelch, 2017-05-01 The rise of the globalized economy has rendered an even more profound change in the relationship between humans and other animals than the ancient progression from huntergatherer to agricultural society In today s global markets multinational corporations exploit the economic value of animals throughout the world on an unprecedented scale The philosophical and legal notions that animals are mere unfeeling machines or pieces of property although more or less taken for granted for centuries has been challenged if not burst asunder in recent decades in law moral philosophy and cognitive and other sciences and regulation of the treatment of animals in agriculture experimentation entertainment and other areas has begun to make substantial inroads in national and international law This book provides a detailed analysis of international and comparative animal law focusing on the impact of today s globalized economy on animal law Describing a wide range of domestic and international laws relating to the treatment of animals the author explicates the sorts of legal rules which affect the global animal marketplace Representative norms in existing animal protection laws are analyzed and critiqued illustrating the diverse approaches taken by different countries and by the international community in regulating uses of animals Among the issues covered are the following contemporary philosophical thought on the relationship between humans and animals recent scientific research relating to cognitive and other abilities of animals legal issues relating to factory farming and animal slaughter legal protection of animals during transport regulatory schemes on animal experimentation laws on the use of animals in entertainment laws on protection of companion animals regulation of trade in endangered species international trade issues relating to animals including consideration of the provisions of GATT and the seminal WTO GATT decisions in the Tuna Dolphin Shrimp Turtle Tuna Labeling and EU Seal Products cases constitutional protection for the interests of animals intellectual property law issues relating to animals efforts to have the legal personhood of certain animals judicially recognized and what the future may hold for animal law in the global economy To ensure the consideration of a full range of legal approaches the laws analyzed come from a wide variety of countries and jurisdictions including Australia Austria Brazil Canada the EU Germany India Ireland New Zealand Switzerland the UK and state and federal laws of the US Numerous international treaties and conventions relevant to animal treatment and animal law are also covered including the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works the CITES Convention the European Convention for the Protection of Animals Kept for Farming Purposes the European Patent Convention the GATT Treaty the TRIPS Agreement and the Universal Copyright Convention It is not difficult to grasp given the continuing increases in production consumption and use of animals and animal products worldwide that legal initiatives in this often emotional and acrimonious area of law are frequently contentious and hard fought But this is really just the dawn of animal law which has only recently become recognized as an important cutting edge topic and this area of the law promises to develop rapidly in the future This book is enormously valuable in contributing to the continuing development and understanding of this law clearly laying out the contours and boundaries of existing animal laws in our global economy and allowing legal educators concerned lawyers and policymakers to teach formulate proposals argue cases and defenses and secure a firm purchase on future trends and developments in animal law

A Grammar of Warrongo Tasaku Tsunoda, 2011-12-23 Warrongo is an extinct Australian Aboriginal language that used to be spoken in northeast Australia This volume is largely based on the rich data recorded from the last fluent speaker It details the phonology morphology and syntax of the language In particular it provides a truly scrutinizing description of syntactic ergativity a phenomenon that is rare among the world's language It also shows that unlike some other Australian languages Warrongo has noun phrases that are configurational Overall this volume shows what can be documented of a language that has only one speaker The School of Alexius Meinong Liliana Albertazzi, Dale Jacquette, 2017-07-05 This book presents an historical and conceptual reconstruction of the theories developed by Meinong and a group of philosophers and experimental psychologists in Graz at the turn of the 19th century Adhering closely to original texts the contributors explore Meinong's roots in the school of Brentano complex theories such as the theory of intentional reference and direct reference and ways of developing philosophy which are closely bound up with the sciences particularly psychology Providing a faithful reconstruction of both Meinong's contributions to science and the school that arose from his thought this book shows how the theories of the Graz school raise the possibility of engaging in the scientific metaphysics and ontology that for so long have been considered off limits Children and Mother Nature Rouhollah Aghasaleh, 2019-08-26 It is an old yet relevant argument that education needs to focus more on real world issues in students lives and communities Nevertheless conventional school curricula in many countries create superficial boundaries to separate natural and social worlds A call for science learning approaches that acknowledge societal standpoints accumulate that human activities are driving environmental and evolutionary change which has lead scholars to investigate how different societies respond to environmental change Children and Mother Nature is a multilingual volume that represents indigenous knowledges from various ethnic linguistic geographical and national groups of educators and students through storytelling Authors have identified indigenous stories fables and folk tales with a theme of human nature interaction and facilitated storytelling sessions with groups of students in K 8 grade 5 14 years old in Turkey Greece US Jamaica Brazil Saudi Arabia and Chinese and Korean language speaking communities in the US Students have discussed and rewritten retold the stories collaboratively and illustrated their own stories All student told stories are presented in the original language along with an English translation This volume provides authentic materials for teachers to use in their classrooms and could also be of interest to educational literary and environmental researchers to conduct comparative and international studies

Dearborn Independent , 1926 The History of Chinese Folktales Liu Shouhua, 2025-04-14 The History of Chinese Folktales is the first comprehensive study of Chinese folktale history spanning from the pre Qin period to the 20th century It references over 300 ancient texts and reviews more than 300 representative stories The book highlights three main research areas First motifs and types This involves identifying and categorizing various story motifs and types as well as analyzing subtypes to create a genealogy of folktales a process that reflects cultural exchanges among peoples Second cultural significance Employing historical materialism and cultural anthropology the book explores the cultural implications of folktales linking them to historical and cultural contexts to reveal their essence Third historical geographical comparison This involves a detailed examination of the life history of stories considering historical and geographical contexts to understand their essence and cultural flow

The Top Books of the Year Snake His Story The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Snake His Story : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Snake His Story : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
