Coming Down from Above Lee Irwin, 2014-10-20 For longer than five centuries Native Americans have struggled to adapt to colonialism missionization and government control policies This first comprehensive survey of prophetic movements in Native North America tells how religious leaders blended indigenous beliefs with Christianity s prophetic traditions to respond to those challenges Lee Irwin gathers a scattered literature to provide a single volume overview that depicts American Indians creative synthesis of their own religious beliefs and practices with a variety of Christian theological ideas and moral teachings He traces continuities in the prophetic tradition from eighteenth century Delaware prophets to Western dream dance visionaries showing that Native American prophecy was not merely borrowed from Christianity but emerged from an interweaving of Christian and ancient North American teachings integral to Native religions From the highly assimilated ideas of the Puget Sound Shakers to such

The Cultures of Native North Americans Christian F. Feest, 2000 The diversity of Native American cultures goes far beyond the popular image of the Indian The bison hunters and horseback warriors of the Great Plains with their wind blown feather headdresses make up only a small part of the fascinating world of the people and cultures which developed between the icy Arctic and the mountains of northern Mexico A veritable rainbow of life styles reaches from the chiefdoms of the eastern forests to the tribelets of California and from the hunters of northern Canada to the Pueblo peoples who tilled their fields in the dry Southwest Often still observing old traditions many of these peoples have survived the 500 years since the first involuntary confrontation with Europeans contact which brought cultural enrichment as well as death and deprivation This volume presents the day to day life history and material and spiritual achievements of North America's indigenous people Provided by publisher Book Review Digest, 1912 North, South, East, West Marsha C.
