John R. Cook,2020-09-28 I was born in Mount Gilead Ohio on the 19th of December 1844 Father moved his family to Lawrence Kansas in the spring of 1857 That summer we occupied the historical log cabin that J H Lane and Gaius Jenkins had trouble over resulting in the tragic death of the latter Shortly prior to the killing of Jenkins we moved to Peru Indiana where we remained until the latter part of March 1861 when the family returned to Kansas Myself and oldest brother traveled overland by team and wagon We had three head of horses We left the State line of Indiana at Danville and crossed the Mississippi to Hannibal Missouri the day that General Beauregard fired on Fort Sumter And the War of the Rebellion was on As we were driving up a street in the evening of that great day an old gentleman standing at the gate in front of a cottage hailed us and asked where we were going To Kansas was brother s reply The old gentleman walked out to where we had stopped and said Boys you are goin into a peck of trouble Gineral Buregard cannonaded Fort Sumter to day and is at it yit Boys I d turn round and go back to whar ye come frum Brother said No Uncle we could never think of such a thing Our father and mother are now at Lawrence Kansas and we must go to them He replied That place you are going to will be a dangerous place There has already been a power of trouble out thar whar you are goin and thar s bound to be a heap more and all over the nigger too I own nineteen of em but if it would stop the spillin of blood I would free every one of em to night This old gentleman had a kind pleasant looking face wore the typical planter s hat and seemed to take a fatherly interest in us directed us to a certain farm house on our road where we could get accommodations for the night And we passed on having for the first time in our lives seen and talked with the owner of human chattels Some neighbors came to the house where we stayed that night and in earnest fireside talk conveyed the idea that there would be no war for said they when the North finds out that we are in earnest they will not fight us My brother being four years older than I took part in the evening s talk and told them that it was but fair to leave the negro out of the question and to consider the Union as our forefathers left it to us and that he did not think that twenty odd millions of people would consent to have the Union of our forefathers dismembered The next day as we were passing through a densely timbered region an old negro came out from behind a large tree near the wagon track His wool was white as snow his head was bared and holding in one hand an apology for a hat he gave us a courteous bow and said Please Mars is we gwine to be free Their underground telegraph was already bringing word from South Carolina to Missouri My brother being more diplomatic than I could or would have been at the time said to him Why you surprise me Grandpop You look fat and sleek and I know you have more freedom this minute than I have
