Film Composers in America Clifford McCarty, 2000 Film Composers in America is a landmark in the history of film Here renowned film scholar Clifford McCarty has attempted to identify every known composer who wrote background musical scores for films in the United States between 1911 and 1970 With information on roughly 20 000 films the book is an essential tool for serious students of film and a treasure trove for film fans It spans all types of American films from features shorts cartoons and documentaries to nontheatrical works avant garde films and even trailers Meticulously researched over 45 years the book documents the work of more than 1 500 composers from Robert Abramson to Josiah Zuro including the first to score an American film Walter C Simon It includes not only Hollywood professionals but also many composers of concert music as well as popular music and other genres whose cinematic work has never before been fully catalogued The book also features an index that lets readers quickly find the composer for any American film through 1970 To recover this history much of which was lost or never recorded McCarty corresponded with or interviewed hundreds of composers arrangers orchestrators musical directors and music librarians He also conducted extensive research in the archives of the seven largest film studios Columbia MGM Paramount RKO 20th Century Fox Universal and Warner Bros and wherever possible he based his findings on the most reliable evidence that of the manuscript scores and cue sheets as opposed to less accurate screen credits The result is the definitive guide to the composers and musical scores for the first 60 years of American film

So You Want to Be a Scriptwriter and Make a Million Dollars Irving Elman, 2000 This book was written to fill a need when I started teaching script writing at Santa Monica College and my students asked me to name a book on the subject I could recommend After voluminous reading I could find nothing which was completely satisfactory Most of it seemed to have been written by people who had never written professionally for films and or television and thus had no first hand knowledge of it from personal experience The books were written from hearsay and observation like trying to learn how to swim by standing at the edge of a pool and watching others do it without ever getting into the water yourself Or trying to fly by flapping your arms like a bird It doesn't work They have no hands on or wings on concept of how commercially produceable scripts are actually put together and then marketed and are of no real practical help to the beginning writer or anyone else who's interested Only a swimmer or a bird or a writer who has made his living at it really knows how his special trick is done and can pass it on to others And so here it is Enjoy while you learn Because if writing isn't fun it's no way to make a living Rob banks instead but try not to get caught So You Want to Be a Teacher? Elizabeth H.

Brett,2013-05-13 So You Want to Be a Teacher is a bit of light reading in a troubled world today I left names by the wayside and emphasized actions especially innovative behavior The students I enjoyed were full of mischief but for the most part it was simply that mischief Very few of the students I taught in my forty years were bad they just needed a bit of love and understanding Who cares what Socrates said when you are a student who had no supper the night before I try to be a stepping stone not a stumbling block
