

The background of the slide is a photograph of a city street. In the foreground, a black and white striped train with the number 2050 is moving along a track. A chain-link fence runs across the bottom of the frame. In the background, there are several multi-story buildings, including a prominent one with a curved facade and arched windows. A street sign for "Seaport Village" is visible on the right side of the image.

Social Class Politics And Urban Markets The Makings Of Bias In Policy Outcomes:

Social Class, Politics, and Urban Markets ,2002-08-07 This book is about the policymaking of public agencies in large American cities It studies urban mass transit in terms of the factors that bias the industry s policy outcomes to benefit one public or another and also aims to demonstrate the value of social science theory in making sense of urban processes and the responsiveness of governmental policymaking in a plural society The Breakdown of Class Politics Terry Nichols Clark,Seymour Martin Lipset,2001-05-22 Class and its linkage to politics became a controversial and exciting topic again in the 1990s Terry Clark and Seymour Martin Lipset published Are Social Classes Dying in 1991 which sparked a lively debate and much new research The main critics of Clark and Lipset at Oxford and Berkeley held initially that class was more persistent than Clark and Lipset suggested The positions were sharply opposed and involved several conceptual and methodological concerns But the issues grew more nuanced as further reflections and evidence accumulated This book draws on four main conferences organized by the editors Sharply contrasting views are forcefully argued with rich and subtle evidence The volume includes a broad overview and synthesis major reports by leading participants and original theoretical and empirical contributions Social Class, Politics, and Urban Markets Herman L. Boschken,2002 This book is about the policymaking of public agencies in large American cities It studies urban mass transit in terms of the factors that bias the industry s policy outcomes to benefit one public or another and also aims to demonstrate the value of social science theory in making sense of urban processes and the responsiveness of governmental policymaking in a plural society The Politics of Air Pollution George A. Gonzalez,2012-02-01 Who has been at the political forefront of clean air policy development in the United States In The Politics of Air Pollution George A Gonzalez argues that the answer is neither the federal government nor environmental groups but rather locally oriented economic elites in conjunction with state and local governments These local growth coalitions composed of mostly large landholders land developers and the owners of regional media and utility firms support clean air policies insofar as they contribute to the creation of a positive investment climate and in turn bring about greater profits through increased land values and an expanded local consumer base Bibliographic Index ,2002 American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Library Journal ,2002 Encyclopedia of Consumer Culture Dale Southerton,2011-09-15 The Encyclopedia of Consumer Culture is the first reference work to outline the parameters of consumer culture and provide a critical scholarly resource on consumption and consumerism Urban Seam Alan Ka Leung Tse,2009 Regional Equity Victor Rubin,2017-10-02 Regional equity as a field of scholarship as an arena of policy change and as a social movement has grown diversified and matured in important ways over the past decade The fruits of that growth and development can be seen in recent federal and state policies in the practices of many regional planning organizations and in the agendas and approaches of countless community based organizations and issue advocacy groups As the field has expanded a growing number of researchers have been tracking these phenomena explaining how and why concepts of metropolitan development are being reframed documenting the efforts to shape policies and diversify leadership assessing where and how equity and social justice concerns have been brought into regional planning for transportation land use housing public finances environmental quality smart growth sustainable development public health and other issue areas This volume brings together analyses and commentary by some of the leading scholarly observers these timely developments This book was published as a special issue of Community Development Strategic Planning for Public and Nonprofit Organizations John M. Bryson, 2004-11-12 When it was first published more than sixteen years ago John Bryson's Strategic Planning for Public and Nonprofit Organizations introduced a new and thoughtful strategic planning model Since then it has become the standard reference in the field In this completely revised third edition Bryson updates his perennial bestseller to help today's leaders enhance organizational effectiveness This new edition Features the Strategy Change Cycle a proven planning process used by a large number of organizations Offers detailed guidance on implementing the planning process and includes specific tools and techniques to make the process work in any organization Introduces new material on creating public value stakeholder analysis strategy mapping balanced scorecards collaboration and more Includes information about the organizational designs that will encourage strategic thought and action throughout the entire organization Contains a wealth of updated examples and cases Sales in The Age of Intelligent Web Maria Johnsen , 2020-05-20 In today's rapidly evolving business landscape many sales professionals have faced with unprecedented challenges and opportunities brought about by the integration of intelligent web technologies This book serves as a comprehensive guide to understanding and harnessing the power of intelligent web tools and strategies to excel in the field of sales The emergence of the intelligent web fueled by advancements in artificial intelligence machine learning and data analytics has revolutionized the way we conduct sales This new era brings forth a wealth of possibilities enabling us to leverage vast amounts of data personalize customer interactions automate processes and gain valuable insights for effective decision making Throughout these chapters I provided topics such as the evolution of sales in the age of intelligent web understanding intelligent web technologies personalization and customization in sales sales automation and efficiency sales intelligence and data analytics social selling sales funnel optimization sales performance management customer relationship management CRM in the intelligent web era and much more You will read practical insights real world examples and actionable strategies that can be applied in day to day sales activities I have also taken into account the ethical considerations and challenges associated with the use of intelligent web technologies emphasizing the importance of maintaining transparency fairness and trust in my sales processes It is my sincere hope that this book serves as a valuable resource and guide in navigating the new frontier of sales in the age of intelligent web I invite you to explore the chapters and discover the transformative potential of intelligent web technologies in shaping the future of sales Remember in this ever evolving landscape continuous learning and adaptation are key to staying ahead Books in Print Supplement , 2002 Internationale Bibliographie der
