The Kiss Sacred and Profane Nicolas J. Perella, 2022-09-23 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1969 The Kiss, Sacred and Profane Nicolas James Perella, 1969 The Kiss in History Karen Harvey, 2005-07-15 Writers have previously placed the action of kissing into categories kisses of love affection peace respect and friendship Each of the essays in this fascinating book takes a single kind of kiss and uses it as an index to the past For rather than offering a simple history of the kiss this book is about the kiss in history In this collection an eminent group of cultural historians explore the kiss through sources as diverse as religious texts popular prints court depositions periodicals diaries and poetry This collection shows that by analyzing the kiss and its position embedded as it is as part of our culture history can use small gestures to take us to big issues concerning ourselves and others the past and the present The Kiss of Peace Kiril Petkov, 2003-01-01 This study of the medieval rites of peace and reconciliation highlights the role of ritual as a strategic device in the attempts of the medieval church and state to monopolize political sovereignty and order individual identities around an hegemonic value system

The History of the Kiss! M. Danesi, 2013-12-05 How and when did the kiss become a vital sign of romance and love In this wide ranging book pop culture expert Marcel Danesi takes the reader on a fascinating journey through the history of the kiss from poetry and painting to movies and popular songs and argues that its romantic incarnation signaled the birth of popular culture Wings of the Doves Elena Lombardi, 2012 The tragic love of Francesca da Rimini and Paolo Malatesta a classic story of passion and death revisited through the lenses of literature philosophy and theology Military Chaplains' Review, 1977 Kissing the Wild Woman Christopher Nissen, 2011 Giulia Bigolina s ca 1516 ca 1569 Urania ca 1552 is the oldest known prose romance to have been written by an Italian woman In Kissing the Wild Woman Christopher Nissen explores the unique aesthetic vision and innovative narrative features of Bigolina's greatest surviving work in which she fashioned a new type of narrative that combined elements of the romance and the novella and included a polemical treatise on the moral implications of portraiture and the role of women in the arts Demonstrating that Bigolina challenged cultural authority by rejecting the prevailing views of both painting and literature Nissen discusses Bigolina's suggestion that painting constituted an ineffectual even immoral mode of self promotion for women in relation to the views of the contemporary writer Pietro Aretino and the painter Titian Kissing the Wild Woman's analysis of this little known work adds a new dimension to the study of Renaissance aesthetics in relation to art history Renaissance thought women's studies and Italian literature Paul and the Ancient Letter Form Stanley E. Porter, Sean A. Adams, 2010 Throughout the last century there has been continuous study of Paul as a writer of letters Although this fact was acknowledged by previous generations of scholars it was during the twentieth century that the study of ancient letter writing practices came to the fore and began to be applied to the study of the letters of the New Testament This volume seeks to advance the discussion of Paul s relationship to Greek epistolary traditions by evaluating the nature of ancient letters as well as the individual letter components These features are evaluated alongside Paul s letters to better understand Paul s use and adaptations of these traditions in order to meet his communicative needs

A Compendium of Kisses Lana Citron,2011-01-01 From first kisses to missed kisses stolen kisses the chemistry of kisses around the world kisses silver screen kisses Freudian kisses lipstick kisses and record breaking kisses this eclectic collection of facts figures quotes and curiosities has everything you ve ever wanted to know and more about that most deceptive delightful and indispensable gesture the kiss The Art of Love Poetry Erik Irving Gray,2018 The first study to offer an integral theory of love poetry examining why it is that poetry even more than other arts is so consistently associated with romantic love

Post-Modern Pilgrims Leonard Sweet,2000-07-15 There is a legend of a Welsh Prince Madoc whose ship became stuck in Chesapeake Bay After trying unsuccessfully to escape he had his men row out with the anchor drop it as far into the sea as they could and then the ship winched its way forward The image of the church as a boat and tradition as an anchor is prevalent in Christian art If we examine the biblical view of an anchor we find like Prince Madoc we are to cast our anchor into the future and pull the church forward Postmodern pilgrims must strive to keep the past and the future in perpetual conversation so every generation will find a fresh expression of the Gospel that is anchored solidly to the faith that was once for all delivered The Book of Touch Constance Classen,2020-09-03 This book puts a finger on the nerve of culture by delving into the social life of touch our most elusive yet most vital sense From the tortures of the Inquisition to the corporeal comforts of modernity and from the tactile therapies of Asian medicine to the virtual tactility of cyberspace The Book of Touch offers excursions into a sensory territory both foreign and familiar How are masculine and feminine identities shaped by touch What are the tactile experiences of the blind or the autistic How is touch developed differently across cultures What are the boundaries of pain and pleasure Is there a politics of touch Bringing together classic writings and new work this is an essential guide for anyone interested in the body the senses and the experiential world

A Separate Canaan Jon F. Sensbach,2012-12-01 In colonial North Carolina German speaking settlers from the Moravian Church founded a religious refuge an ideal society they hoped whose blueprint for daily life was the Bible and whose Chief Elder was Christ himself As the community s demand for labor grew the Moravian Brethren bought slaves to help operate their farms shops and industries Moravians believed in the universalism of the gospel and baptized dozens of African Americans who became full members of tightly knit Moravian congregations For decades white and black Brethren worked and worshiped together though white Moravians never abandoned their belief that black slavery was ordained by God Based on German church documents including dozens of rare biographies of black Moravians A Separate Canaan is the first full length study of contact between people of German and African descent in early America Exploring the fluidity of race in Revolutionary era America it highlights the struggle of African Americans to secure their fragile place in a culture unwilling to give them full human rights In the early nineteenth century white Moravians forsook their spiritual inclusiveness installing blacks in a separate church Just as white Americans throughout the new republic rejected African American equality the Moravian story illustrates the power of slavery and race to overwhelm other ideals New SCM Dictionary of Liturgy and Worship Paul F. Bradshaw,2013-05-20

This reference work incorporates the insights and expertise of leading liturgists and scholars of liturgy at work today comprising 200 entries on important topics in the field from vestments and offertories to ordination and divine unction It is systematically organized and alphabetically arranged for ease of use It also includes comprehensive bibliographies and reading lists to bring the work fully up to date and to encourage further reading and research Encyclopedia of Love in World Religions Yudit Kornberg Greenberg,2007-11-15

This is the first comprehensive resource on the subject of love in the teachings of the world s major religions cultures and philosophies Encyclopedia of Love in World Religions is the first reference work to offer a comprehensive portrait of love in the context of the classic and contemporary literature of Judaism Christianity Islam Buddhism and Hinduism as well as other cultures and philosophies Like no volume published to date it reveals the full richness of religious teachings on love in all its many forms exploring an extensive range of topics that offer philosophical psychological and religious perspectives to guide the quest for the meaning of love Encyclopedia of Love in World Religions features approximately 300 subject entries as well as insightful biographic sketches of preeminent thinkers all written by a multidisciplinary team of some of the foremost scholars on the subject Entries examine both general and culture specific interpretations of love not just the dichotomy of spiritual and physical love but the full emotional spectrum of love in relationships and practices Collectively they encompass love s integral and sometimes conflicting role in shaping beliefs and behavior in a vastly diverse world Communicating Ruth

Finnegan,2014-01-10 Many accounts of human communication suggest that we are limited to communicating through words visual images the mass media and by digital means This perspective underestimates the multisensory qualities of much of our human interconnecting and the multiple sounds touches sights and material objects which humans use so creatively to interconnect both nearby and across space and time Ruth Finnegan brings together research from linguistic and sensory anthropology alternative approaches to material culture and the body non verbal communication cultural studies computer mediated communication and illuminating work on animal communication Examples from both western and non western cultures together with plentiful illustrations enrich and deepen the analysis The book uncovers the amazing array of sounds sights smells gestures looks movements touches and material objects which humans use so creatively to interconnect both nearby and across space and time resources consistently underestimated in those western ideologies that prioritise rationality and referential language Focussing on embodied and material processes and on practice rather than text this comparative analysis challenges the underlying cognitive and word centred model common to many approaches to
