Eschatology of the Prophet Daniel Frederick Guttman, The prophet Daniel is a historical icon of the people of Israel although he is more special to Christian theology It is especially important for being the prophet with the most revelations received in a historical context and even in great detail addressing global issues of geopolitics and conquest centuries before such occurred Although this man is much more for Christianity than for the Jews themselves and that is why I have dedicated this work to him since unlike what would happen to a greater extent with Judaism within Christianity he is largely a turning point in eschatology The name Daniel means in Hebrew God is my judge or judgment of God although during his stay in Babel Babylon he was called in Akkadian Balatsu usur Bel protects the king transcribed to Spanish as Beltsasar He was one of the sons of the Jewish aristocracy who were taken out of Israel by Nebuchadnezzar II of Babylon during the time of Iahoiqin Joachim king of Judah that is he was taken captive back in 598 or 597 BC C although it is not officially known how old he was when he was taken or his year of birth itself Something that recently came to be known is that the book of Daniel enjoyed great popularity among the essence community there is much information that emphasizes his writing in the Qumran Caves even considering it canonical the Jews did not put Daniel with the compendium of manuscripts of the Nebi m Prophets but with the merely historical ones the Ketubim Writings In fact if the popularity of a book is judged by the number of copies of copies found in the caves Daniel with its 8 scrolls would occupy 4th place together with the book of the 12 prophets Deuteronomy has 14 manuscripts Isaiah is 12 and the Samos are 10      The Cabinet of Instruction,literature,and Amusement ,1829      The Scriptural Temple: Understanding the Temple through the Scriptures Mark H. theological enrichment in the ecumenical discussions all over the world In our time the exchange of gifts plays a great role in promoting unity of the Churches Especially the concepts of African theology with the incomparable special position of Jesus Christ as proto ancestor are important for the interconfessional dialogues The veneration of the ancestors in Africa can be a help to begin ecumenical discussions in this regional context on the question of the veneration of the saints According to African tradition the ancestors also have influence on the process of purification Therefore the veneration of the ancestors contributes to providing answers to the ecumenical controversies about the understanding of the eschatological purification
