Tagore and Nationalism K. L. Tuteja, Kaustav Chakraborty, 2017-03-15 This volume brings together eminent Tagore scholars and younger writers to revisit the concepts of nation nationalism identity and selfhood civilization culture and homeland in Tagore s writings As these ideas take up the centre stage of politics in the subcontinent as also elsewhere in the world in the 21st century it becomes extremely relevant to revisit his works in this context Tagore s ambivalence towards nationalism as an ideology was apparent in the responses in his discussions with Indians and non Indians alike Tagore developed the concept of syncretic civilization as a basis of nationalist civilizational unity where society was central unlike the European model of state centric civilization However as the subterranean tensions of communalism became clear in the early 20th century Tagore reflexively critiqued his own political position in society He thus emerged as the critic of the nation nation state and in this he shared his deep unease with other thinkers like Romain Rolland and Albert Einstein This volume for the first time covers the socio political historical literary and cultural concerns relating to Tagore s efforts towards the de colonization of the Self The volume begins with various perspectives on Tagore s ambivalence about nationalism It encompasses critical examinations of Tagore s literary works and other art forms as well as adaptations of his works on film It also reads Tagore s nationalism in a comparative mode with contemporary thinkers in India and abroad who were engaged in similar debates

Worldly Affiliations Sonal Khullar, 2015-05-02 The purpose of art the Paris trained artist Amrita Sher Gil wrote in 1936 is to create the forms of the future by draw ing its inspiration from the present Through art new worlds can be imagined into existence as artists cultivate forms of belonging and networks of association that oppose colonialist and nationalist norms Drawing on Edward Said s notion of affiliation as a critical and cultural imperative against empire and nation state Worldly Affiliations traces the emergence of a national art world in twentieth century India and emphasizes its cosmopolitan ambitions and orientations Sonal Khullar focuses on four major

Indian artists Sher Gil Maqbool Fida Husain K G Subramanyan and Bhupen Khakhar situating their careers within national and global histories of modernism and modernity Through a close analysis of original artwork archival materials artists writing and period criticism Khullar provides a vivid historical account of the state and stakes of artistic practice in India from the late colonial through postcolonial periods She discusses the shifting terms of Indian artists engagement with the West an urgent yet fraught project in the wake of British colonialism and to a lesser extent with African and Latin American cultural movements such as N gritude and Mexican muralism Written in a lucid and engaging style this book links artistic developments in India to newly emerging histories of modern art in Asia Africa and Latin America Drawing on original research in the twenty first century art world Khullar shows the persistence of modernism in contemporary art from India and compares its function to Walter Benjamin s ruin In the work of contemporary artists from India modernism is the ground from which to imagine futures This richly illustrated study juxtaposes little known rarely seen or previously unpublished works of modern and contemporary art with historical works popular or mass reproduced images and documentary photographs Its innovative art program renders newly visible the aesthetic and political achievements of Indian modernism
