Calendar of Correspondence and Documents Relating to the Family of Oliver Le Neve, of Witchingham, Norfolk, 1675-1743 Francis Rye,1895 Diversity in U.S. Mass Media Catherine A. Luther,Carolyn Ringer Lepre,Naeemah Clark,2017-09-12 An updated edition of the comprehensive resource that covers the various areas associated with representations of diversity within the mass media The second edition of Diversity in U S Mass Media presents a review of the evolution and the many issues surrounding portrayals of social groups in the mass media of the United States Unfortunately all too often mass media depictions play a crucial role in shaping our views about individuals and social groups Filled with instructive insights into the ways social groups are represented through the mass media Diversity in U S Mass Media offers a better understanding of groups and individuals different from ourselves The revised second edition is filled with recent illustrative examples from the media Comprehensive in scope the authors address a wide range of issues that include representations of race ethnicity gender sexual orientation disability class and religion in films television and the press The authors encourage readers to question what is being presented and explore the extent to which they agree with the perspectives that are described Diversity in U S Mass Media is an important resource that Offers an understanding of how various social groups are being represented in the mass media Explores how diverse communities inform and intersect with one another Draws on updated studies on the topic and presents original research and observations Includes new chapters on media portrayals of mixed race relationships and multiracial multiethnic people and representations of religion and faith Accompanied by a companion website for instructors including many useful pedagogical tools such as a test bank viewing list exercises and sample syllabi Revised and updated the second edition of Diversity in U S Mass Media offers a broad perspective on the myriad issues that influence how the media portrays social groups Throughout the text the authors show consistencies as well as differences in media representations of minority groups in the United States Scaled for Success Philip Hayward,2018-07-26 Emerging from the confluence of Greco Roman mythology and regional folklore the mermaid has been an enduring motif in Western culture since the medieval period It has also been disseminated more widely initially through Western trade and colonisation and more recently through the increasing globalisation of media products and outlets Scaled for Success offers the first detailed overview of the mermaids dispersal outside Europe Complementing previous studies of the interrelationship between the mermaid and Mami Wata spirit in West Africa this volume addresses the mermaids presence in a range of Middle Eastern Asian Australian Latin American and North American contexts Individual chapters identify the manner in which the mermaid has been variously syncretised and or resignified in contexts as diverse as Indian public statuary Thai cinema and Coney Islands annual Mermaid Parade Rather than lingering as a relic of a bygone age the mermaid emerges as a versatile dynamic and above all polyvalent figure Her prominence exemplifies the manner in which contemporary media lore has extended the currency of established folkloric figures in new and often surprising ways Analysing aspects of religious symbolism visual art literature and contemporary popular culture this copiously illustrated volume profiles an intriguing and highly diverse phenomenon Philip Hayward is editor of the journal Shima and holds adjunct professor positions at the University of Technology Sydney and at Southern Cross University His previous volume Making a Splash Mermaids and Mermen in 20th and 21st Century Audiovisual Media was published by John Libbey Publishing Indiana University Press in 2017

Ageing Women in Literature and Visual Culture Cathy McGlynn, Margaret O'Neill, Michaela Schrage-Früh, 2017-11-23 This timely collection engages with representations of women and ageing in literature and visual culture Acknowledging that cultural conceptions of ageing are constructed and challenged across a variety of media and genres the editors bring together experts in literature and visual culture to foster a dialogue across disciplines Exploring the process of ageing in its cultural reflections refractions and reimaginings the contributors to Ageing Women in Literature and Visual Culture analyse how artists writers directors and performers challenge and in some cases reaffirm cultural constructions of ageing women as well as give voice to ageing women's subjectivities The book concludes with an afterword by Germaine Greer which suggests possible avenues for future research

Written Reliquaries Leslie K. Arnovick, 2006-12-20 Written Reliquaries The resonance of orality in medieval English texts establishes the linguistic component of orality and oral tradition The relics it examines are traces of spoken performance artifacts of linguistic and cultural processes Seven case studies animate verbal acts of making promises quoting proverbs pronouncing curses speaking gibberish praying Pater Nosters invoking saints and keeping silence The study of their resonance is enabled by a methodological conjunction of historical pragmatics and oral theory Insights from oral theory enlighten spoken traditions which in turn may be understood in the larger historical pragmatic context of linguistic performance The inquiry ranges across broad as well as narrow planes of reference to trace a complex set of cultural and linguistic interactions In this way it reconstructs relevant discursive contexts giving detailed accounts of underlying assumptions traditions and conventions Doing so the book demonstrates that an integrated methodology not only allows access to oral discourse in both Old English and Middle English but also provides insight into the fluid medieval interchange of literacy and orality Measurement Error in Longitudinal Data Alexandru Cernat, Joseph W. Sakshaug, 2021-03-18 Longitudinal data is essential for understanding how the world around us changes Most theories in the social sciences and elsewhere have a focus on change be it of individuals of countries of organizations or of systems and this is reflected in the myriad of longitudinal data that are being collected using large panel surveys This type of data collection has been made easier in the age of Big Data and with the rise of social media Yet our measurements of the world are often imperfect and longitudinal data is vulnerable to measurement errors which can lead to flawed and misleading conclusions Measurement Error in Longitudinal Data tackles the important issue of how to investigate change in the context of imperfect data It compiles the latest advances in estimating change in the presence of measurement error from several fields and covers the entire process from the best ways of collecting longitudinal data to statistical models to estimate change under uncertainty to examples of researchers applying these methods in the real world This book introduces the essential issues of longitudinal data collection such as memory effects panel conditioning or mere measurement effects the use of administrative data and the collection of multi mode longitudinal data It also presents some of the most important models used in this area including quasi simplex models latent growth models latent Markov chains and equivalence DIF testing Finally the use of vignettes in the context of longitudinal data and estimation methods for multilevel models of change in the presence of measurement error are also discussed

The Polish Studies Newsletter ,2003 Crime Fiction since 1800 Stephen Knight,2010-04-09 Since its appearance nearly two centuries ago crime fiction has gripped readers imaginations around the world Detectives have varied enormously from the nineteenth century policemen and a few women through stars like Sherlock Holmes and Miss Marple to newly self aware voices of the present feminist African American lesbian gay postcolonial and postmodern Stephen Knight s fascinating book is a comprehensive analytic survey of crime fiction from its origins in the nineteenth century to the present day Knight explains how and why the various forms of the genre have evolved explores a range of authors and movements and argues that the genre as a whole has three parts the early development of Detection the growing emphasis on Death and the modern celebration of Diversity The expanded second edition has been thoroughly updated in the light of recent research and new developments such as ethnic crime fiction the rise of thrillers in the serial killer and urban collapse modes and feel good cozies It also explores a number of fictional works which have been published in the last few years and features a helpful glossary With full references and written in a highly engaging style this remains the essential short guide for readers of crime fiction everywhere Hormones and the Endocrine System Bernhard Kleine,Winfried G. Rossmanith,2016-02-11 This book focuses on hormones and on how they are produced in very diverse regions of the body in humans and animals But hormones can be found not only in vertebrates but also in insects shellfish spiders mollusks even at the origin of metazoan diversification and exhibit the same pathways of synthesis The book addresses the different classes of hormones protein peptides hormones steroids and juvenile hormones and hormones like catecholamines thyroid hormones and melatonin It also discusses the types of hormone receptors the majority of which are heptahelical G protein coupled receptors or nuclear receptors Particular attention is paid to the organs where hormones are created with specifics on hormonal production and release while a dedicated chapter details hormonal regulation from very simple to highly complex schemes The remarkable kinetics of hormones production are also shown before the book is rounded out by chapters on evolution in the endocrine system the genetics of endocrine diseases and doping Revolution, Rebellion, Resistance Professor Eric Selbin,2013-04-04 Why do revolutions happen Decades of social science research have brought us little closer to understanding where when and amongst whom they occur In this groundbreaking book Eric Selbin argues that we need to look beyond the economic political and social structural conditions to the thoughts and feelings of the people who make revolutions In particular he argues we need to understand the stories people relay and rework of past injustices and struggles as they struggle in the present towards a better future Ranging from the French Revolution to the Battle for Seattle via Russia China Cuba Vietnam and Nicaragua Selbin makes the case that it is myth memory and mimesis which create maintain and extend such stories Revolution Rebellion Resistance identifies four kinds of enduring revolutionary story Civilizing and Democratizing The Social Revolution Freedom and Liberation and The Lost and Forgotten which do more than report on events they catalyse changing the world Michelin Green Guide France Michelin,2012-01-01 This eBook version of the Green Guide France features Michelin s trusted tips and advice which make sure you see the best of France From Normandy beaches to the grand châteaux of the Loire and beyond to Corsica s snow dusted peaks the Michelin Green Guide France uncovers gastronomic treats and hidden castles while exploring rugged coastline picturesque towns and the City of Love itself Paris Divided into 12 geographical regions the guide offers star rated attractions regional introductions detailed maps and suggested places to eat and stay for a variety of budgets allowing the traveler to plan a trip carefully or to be spontaneous Humankind Andreas Höfele,Stephan Laqué,2011-05-04 Anthropology is a notoriously polysemous term Within a continental European academic context it is usually employed in the sense of philosophical anthropology and mainly concerned with exploring concepts of a universal human nature By contrast Anglo American scholarship almost exclusively associates anthropology with the investigation of cultural and ethnic differences cultural anthropology How these two main traditions and their derivations such as literary anthropology historical anthropology ethnology ethnography intercultural studies relate to each other is a matter of debate Both however have their roots in the path breaking changes that occurred within sixteenth and early seventeenth century culture and scientific discourse It was in fact during this period that the term anthropology first acquired the meanings on which its current usage is based The Renaissance did not invent the human But the period that gave rise to humanism witnessed an unprecedented diversification of the concept that was at its very core The question of what defines the human became increasingly contested as new developments like the emergence of the natural sciences religious pluralisation as well as colonial expansion were undermining old certainties The proliferation of doctrines of the human in the early modern age bears out the assumption that anthropology is a discipline of crisis seeking to establish sets of common values and discursive norms in situations when authority finds itself under pressure Runner's World ,2006-05 Runner s World magazine aims to help runners achieve their personal health fitness and performance goals and to inspire them with vivid memorable storytelling The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash,2019-10-23 This all inclusive

A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5,000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre, i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc. as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection.

The Nothingness of Ben Brad Boney, 2012-11-23. The Austin Trilogy Book One. Ben Walsh is well on his way to becoming one of Manhattan's top litigators with a gorgeous boyfriend and friends on the A list. His life is perfect until he gets a phone call that brings it all crashing down: a car accident takes his parents and now he must return to Austin to raise three teenage brothers he barely knows. During the funeral, Ben meets Travis Atwood, the redneck neighbor with a huge heart. Their relationship initially runs hot and cold from contentious to flirtatious, but when the weight of responsibility starts wearing on Ben, he turns to Travis and the pressure shapes their friendship into something that feels a lot like love. Ben thinks he's found a way to have his old life, his new life, and Travis too, but love isn't always easy. Will he learn to recognize that sometimes the worst thing imaginable can lead him to the place he was meant to be? A Divinity for All Persuasions T. J. Tomlin, 2014.
