G. Burn Murdoch, 2022-04-06 Excerpt Some time ago I wrote a book about a voyage in a whaler to the far south to a white silent land where the sun shines all day and night and it is quiet as the grave and beautiful as heaven when it is not blowing and black as the other place A number of people said they liked it and asked me to write again therefore these notes and sketches on a Journey to India and Burmah They may not be so interesting as notes about Antarctic adventure and jolly old Shell Backs and South Spainers on a whaler but one journal ought at least to be a contrast to the other The first a voyage on a tiny wooden ship with a menu of salt beef biscuit and penguin to unsailed seas and uninhabited ice bound lands the other in a floating hotel with complicated meals and crowds of passengers to a hot land with innumerable inhabitants I trust that the sketches I make on the way will help out my notes when they are not quite King s English and that the notes will help to explain the sketches if they are not sufficiently academical for the general reader and moreover I fondly believe that any journal written in the East in these years of grace 1905 6 must catch a little reflected interest from the historic visit of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales to India and Burmah The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2000 Thailand, Burma Dieter Rumpf, 1988 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
