Miller, 2012-03-30 This illustrated and colourful history charts the hey day of the great liners those grand and lavish vessels that cruised around the world carrying their glamorous passengers from port to port Decorated to the highest of finishes fitted out in the most luxurious of styles these floating palaces epitomised their opulent age Their iconic names from Titanic to Mauretania from Queen Elizabeth to QE2 conjure up visions of power grace elegance and nostalgia for this golden age of travel Written by maritime and cruise liner expert William Miller and accompanied by stunning photographs artworks Did You Know facts and quotations The Great Liners Story is a must have addition to any maritime library

Picture History of British Ocean Liners, 1900 to the Present William H. Miller, 2001-01-01 This fascinating text and picture tribute documents both interiors and exteriors of majestic British ships such as the Viceroy of India the Orion Queen Mary Queen Elizabeth Windsor Castle Pacific Princess Royal Princess Crown Princess and Aurora Over 200 rare black and white illustrations provide views of the ships at sea and in port

Ocean Liners of the 20th Century Gordon Newell, 2017-01-12 With his vast collection of photographs and memorabilia combined with his skill as a writer Newell truly makes the ships and memories of them become living personalities How Jack London Count von Luckner Sir Ernest Shackleton and all other intrepid adventurers of the sea would have gloried in this book and present day sea rovers you how you will glory in it Here are the glamour majesty and color of the most exciting things ever built the mammoths of the sea Gordon Newell's salty stories and fine photos bring these monarchs and superliners to life so completely that you hear once more the deep throated whistle blasts as the ships knife their way out of the fog one after another I am not recording affection for the Mauretania as President of the United States but as civilian Franklin D Roosevelt who loves the sea its ships and the men who sail them writes F D R in his story Queen with a Fighting Heart Author Gordon Newell shares these sentiments The Kronprinz Wilhelm he writes was not a ship to give up easily Night was falling the darkness would give her a fighting chance The last of the fuel was shoveled into the furnaces The worn out engines were breaking their hearts for the ship out of the night she came the sky glowing red above the crowns of her belching funnels The white glow of acres of foam at her bow The guns of the British cruisers swung around

A History of Ocean Liners in 50 Objects Mark Berry, 2020-12-04 Explore the history of ocean liners through the objects that bring them to life Liners represented the ambitions of their nations in peace and war their design interiors and fittings incorporated the finest contemporary technological and artistic features In peacetime they carried celebrities vacationers and emigrants while in war they carried thousands of troops and then war brides seeking new lives A History of Ocean Liners in 50 Objects takes in evolving technology supreme luxury and fine cuisine as well as hardship and the burning hope for a better life There is peril disaster and death international pride and competition glory and war The objects tell a fascinating story showing how the functional sea voyage has evolved from the late nineteenth and early twentieth century to the huge cruise industry we have today

Boat Trains: The English Channel & Ocean Liner Specials Martyn Pring, 2021-01-18 A study of the specialty train including its history development and operation beginning at the end of the nineteenth century In many ways this title featuring the evolution of cross channel boat trains and the many dedicated services responsible for moving international passengers to and from trans Atlantic steamers is an extension of luxury railway travel But that s not the full story as it encapsulates more than 125 years of independent and organised tourism development At the end of the nineteenth century faster and more stable twin screw vessels replaced cross channel paddlers resulting in a significant expansion in the numbers of day excursionists and short stay visitors heading to Belgium France and the Channel Islands Continental Europe as it had done since the end of the Napoleonic Wars beckoned introducing ideas of modern day mass tourism Numerous liners bestriding the globe were British domiciled Major ports became hives of commercial activity involving moving freight and mail as well as transporting all manner of travellers Not only was there intense competition for passenger traffic between the Old and New World and Britain s imperial interests greater numbers of well heeled tourists headed off to warmer winter climes and also experimented with the novel idea of using ocean steamers as hotels to visit an array of diverse destinations Cruise tourism and the itinerary had arrived as Ocean Special boat trains became essential components of railway and port procedures Whilst some railway operations were dedicated to emigrant traffic continental and ocean liner boat trains were also synonymous with the most glamorous travel services ever choreographed by shipping lines and railway companies working closely in tandem This well illustrated book explores the many functions of boat train travel This book should appeal to the rail fan the ship enthusiast the connoisseur of travel posters and those interested in the business of transportation I know of nowhere else one can find so much information on boat train operation in one book Well worth a read by anyone interested in the interconnectivity of different means of public transportation Charles H Bogart Steamship Historical Society of America The Shipbuilder and Marine Engine-builder ,1923

Transatlantic Liners J. Kent Layton, 2012-07-20 Since the end of the nineteenth century there has been a stunning succession of transatlantic liners from the White Star Line s Oceanic of 1899 to the Cunard Line s Queen Mary 2 of 2004 These floating palaces often contained luxurious staterooms ballrooms and lounges for the rich and noticeably more modest and basic accommodation for poorer travellers Their designs and powerplants were often cutting edge as each competed to be the largest most luxurious and fastest ship on the Atlantic As the tides of passenger demand rose and fell through the years and the world plunged twice into global conflict these ships had to adapt to survive Many of these vessels including Mauretania Olympic the first Queen Mary and France had long and glorious careers others Titanic Lusitania and Normandie among them suffered tragic endings J Kent Layton describes the heyday of the superliners and explains what life was like for passengers both rich and poor The Ocean Wireless Boys and the Lost Liner John Henry Goldfrap,2023-02-09 Excerpt The West Indian liner Tropic Queen one of the great vessels owned by the big shipping combine at whose head was Jacob Jukes the New York millionaire was plunging southward through a rolling green sea about two hundred miles to the east of Hatteras It was evening and the bugle had just sounded for dinner The decks were therefore deserted the long rows of lounging chairs were vacant while the passengers many of them tourists on pleasure bent were below in the dining saloon appeasing the keen appetites engendered by the brisk wind that was blowing off shore In a small steel structure perched high on the boat deck between the two funnels of the Tropic Queen sat a bright faced lad reading intently a text book on Wireless Telegraphy Although not much more than a schoolboy he was assistant wireless man of the Queen His name was Sam Smalley and he had obtained his position on the ship the crack vessel of the West Indies and Panama line through his chum Jack Ready head operator of the craft Transactions of the Liverpool Engineering Society Liverpool Engineering Society,1893 Doomed Ships William H., Jr. Miller,2012-06-29 Nearly 200 photographs many from private collections highlight tales of some of the vessels whose pleasure cruises ended in catastrophe the Morro Castle Normandie Andrea Doria Europa and many others A Postcard History of the Passenger Liner Christopher Deakes,2023-10-01 From around 1880 for almost a hundred years shipowners commissioned a wealth of paintings that depicted their magnificent liners as well as the routes they travelled their exotic destinations and life onboard These paintings rich in imagination and atmosphere appeared on postcards and posters of the day and were used to advertise the companies and their ships and so was born a whole genre that produced tens of thousands of paintings which formed a wonderful record of the great era of the passenger liner In 1900 there were over thirty shipping companies operating passenger liners across the North Atlantic Other oceans were similarly served But now with just a few exceptions the companies and their liners have disappeared along with the art they once inspired Little remains to recall this aspect of our maritime past except the postcards and they tell an evocative story of the vanished world of elegant ships and leisurely travel of social and political times much changed by the history of the past century Here brought vividly to life in more than 500 colourful postcards are the ships on which so many of our predecessors sailed as emigrants soldiers administrators or simply as tourists in days long past These cards which are now highly collectable show how steamships developed over the years but they are also a fine tribute to the artists who painted them This volume also includes a glossary of some 170 illustrators which forms an important reference section and advice on collecting The Fabulous Interiors of the Great Ocean Liners in Historic Photographs William H., Jr. Miller,2013-07-24 200 superb photographs capture exquisite interiors of world s great floating palaces 1890s to 1980s Titanic Ile de France Queen Elizabeth United States Europa more Origin and Development of Steam Navigation George H.
