The Last Magnificent War:

The Scripps Newspapers Go to War, 1914-18 Dale Zacher, 2010-10-01 Before radio and television E W Scripps's twenty one newspapers major newswire service and prominent news syndication service comprised the first truly national media organization in the United States Dale E Zacher details the scope organization and character of the mighty Scripps empire during World War I and reveals how the pressures of the market government censorship propaganda and progressivism transformed news coverage Zacher's account delves into details inside a major newspaper operation during World War I and provides fascinating accounts of its struggles with competition attending to patriotic duties and internal editorial dissent Zacher also looks at war related issues considering the newspapers relationship with President Woodrow Wilson American neutrality the move to join the war and fallout from disillusionment over the actuality of war As Zacher shows the progressive spirit and political independence at the Scripps newspapers came under attack and was changed forever during the era

Atrocities, Massacres, and War Crimes Alexander Mikaberidze, 2013-06-25 Both concise and wide ranging this encyclopedia covers massacres atrocities war crimes and genocides including acts of inhumanity on all continents and serves as a reminder that lest we forget history will repeat itself The 400 plus entries in Atrocities Massacres and War Crimes An Encyclopedia provide accessible and concise information on the difficult subject of abject human violence committed on all continents The entries in this two volume work describe atrocities massacres and war crimes committed in the 20th century thereby documenting how human beings have repeatedly proven their capability to commit horrific acts of inhumanity even in relatively recent times and within the modern era The encyclopedia covers countries treaties and terms profiles individuals who had been formally indicted for war crimes as well as those who have committed mass atrocities and gone unpunished and addresses human rights violations crimes against humanity and crimes against peace Armor, 1989 The magazine of mobile warfare

War Crimes, Genocide, and the Law Arnold Krammer, 2010-04-09 This timely handbook offers an examination of man's history of war crimes and the parallel development of rules of war to prevent them in the future Kosovo Rwanda Sierra Leone Darfur Auschwitz War crimes have occurred in regions around the world and continue to this day Although atrocities are as old as war itself they did not become punishable crimes until the law evolved to define them as such War Crimes Genocide and the Law A Guide to the Issues examines the types of war crimes and the motivations behind them as well as the laws that seek to control and abolish these heinous acts Within the handbook centuries of war crimes and genocides are analyzed and catalogued At the same time the author offers a history of the development of the rules of war enabling readers to grasp the importance of such precedent setting events as the 1946 Nuremberg Trials and to see the gradual evolution of the laws intended to punish perpetrators and prevent future barbarism

World War I Zachary A. Kent, 2011-01-01 The assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in 1914 ignited a bloody conflict among Europe's most powerful nations As leaders in Europe bullied each other toward war they had no idea that this war would become a global conflict The United States entered World War I and sided with the Allies in their fight against the Central powers Millions of people died during World War I empires were destroyed kings were dethroned and entire countries disappeared Author Zachary Kent details the war to end all wars including the doughboys of the United States life on the home front and the introduction of modern warfare

The Legal Regime of the International Criminal Court Jose Doria,Hans-Peter Gasser,M. Cherif Bassiouni,2009-06-24 This impressive and unique collection of essays covers important aspects of the legal regime of the International Criminal Court ICC The volume begins with an analysis of the historical development of the ICC the progressive development of international humanitarian and international criminal law by the ad hoc Tribunals and the work of mixed national international jurisdictions The legal and institutional basis of the ICC is then dealt with in detail including the organs of the ICC war crimes crimes against humanity and crimes of aggression modes of liability before the ICC and defences before the ICC Part III focuses on the court at work including its procedural rules criminal proceedings at the ICC penalties and appeal and revision procedures Part IV deals with the relationship of the ICC with states and international organizations The contributors are established scholars in the field of international criminal and humanitarian law many of whom are practitioners in the various tribunals

Historical Origins of International Criminal Law Morten Bergsmo,CHEAH Wui Ling,YI Ping,2014-12-12 The historical origins of international criminal law go beyond the key trials of Nuremberg and Tokyo but remain a topic that has not received comprehensive and systematic treatment This anthology aims to address this lacuna by examining trials proceedings legal instruments and publications that may be said to be the building blocks of contemporary international criminal law It aspires to generate new knowledge broaden the common hinterland to international criminal law and further consolidate this relatively young discipline of international law The anthology and research project also seek to question our fundamental assumptions of international criminal law by going beyond the geographical cultural and temporal limits set by the traditional narratives of its history and by questioning the roots of its substance process and institutions Ultimately we hope to raise awareness and generate further discussion about the historical and intellectual origins of international criminal law and its social function The contributions to the three volumes of this study bring together experts with different professional and disciplinary expertise from diverse continents and legal traditions Volume 1 comprises contributions by prominent international lawyers and researchers including Judge LIU Daqun Professor David Cohen Geoffrey Robertson QC Professor Paulus Mevis and Professor Jan Reijntjes
