Martin Marylou Morano Kjelle, 2013-11 When Ann M Martin was asked to write the first four Baby sitters Club books in 1985 she had no way of knowing she was about to change the face of children s publishing      Please, No More Poetry derek beaulieu, Kit Dobson, 2013-06-30 Since the beginning of his poetic career in the 1990s derek beaulieu has created works that have challenged readers to understand in new ways the possibilities of poetry With nine books currently to his credit and many works appearing in chapbooks broadsides and magazines beaulieu continues to push experimental poetry both in Canada and internationally in new directions Please No More Poetry is the first selected works of derek beaulieu As the publisher of first housepress and more recently No Press beaulieu has continually highlighted the possibilities for experimental work in a variety of writing communities His own work can be classified as visual poetry as concrete poetry as conceptual work and beyond His work is not to be read in any traditional sense as it challenges the very idea of reading rather it may be understood as a practice that forces readers to reconsider what they think they know As beaulieu continues to push himself in new directions readers will appreciate the work that he has created to date much of which has become unavailable in Canada With an introduction by Kit Dobson and an interview with derek beaulieu by Lori Emerson as an afterword Please No More Poetry offers readers an opportunity to gain access to a complex experimental poetic practice through thirty five selected representative works

No More Baby's Mama Drama Ayesha J. Gallion, 2005 With chapters covering everything from the rude ex to the money hungry ex to the psycho ex this relationship survival guide explains how to attain a peaceful loving and blessedly drama free life while maintaining self respect within a marriage      Alternating Narratives in Fiction for Young Readers Perry Nodelman, 2017-04-17 This book is about the implications of novels for young readers that tell their stories by alternating between different narrative lines focused on different characters It asks if you make sense of fiction by identifying with one main character how do you handle two or more of them Do novels with alternating narratives diverge from longstanding conventions and represent a significant change in literature for young readers If not how do these novels manage to operate within the parameters of those conventions This book considers answers to these questions by means of a series of close readings that explore the structural educational and ideological implications of a variety of American British Canadian and Australian novels for children and for young adults Booktalks Plus Lucy Schall,2001-04-15 Obesity in a world where thin is endlessly in vogue pros and cons of tattoos and body piercing and family blending This guide leads you to quality literature that inspires students to read and discover more about these and many other issues they find relevant Booktalks for more than 100 titles are accompanied by motivational activities and lists of related works In addition pithy book summaries and bibliographic information are given Fiction and nonfiction titles most published since 1995 were selected with curriculum connections in mind and are arranged topically No More Bananas Jeroen Kraaijenbrink,2019-06-21 Feel better get done more and become a nicer person In this age of social media fake news individualism and information overload the certainties we relied on in the past are gone In our quest for assurance and support the only seemingly dependable pillar left is other people So we look to them But they are unsettled too And by looking to them we create and perpetuate our own vicious stress cycle As a result we lose our sensible selves And we go bananas But there is good news If we look around us there are people who withstand the collective lunacy and stay grounded They do something that most of us have a hard time doing they stay themselves And the best news is that what they can do you can do too It doesn't require any special talents or supernatural powers It only requires doing In this amiable open and accessible book Jeroen Kraaijenbrink takes you on his personal journey out of Bananaland Drawing from cognitive psychology martial arts Saint Benedict personal experience and a wide range of other sources the book offers a nine step approach with some remarkably practical advice for keeping a cool head in the collective lunacy Free yourself from the collective lunacy and reclaim your calm and sensible self Wine Brands E. Resnick,2008-05-21 This practical new book is written by a leading wine industry expert in an easy and accessible style Illustrated with many case studies from around the world this book describes how marketers and academics can respond to new challenges in the wine trade and is an invaluable guide to anyone working in or interested in this industry Say No More Hank Phillippi Ryan,2016-11 Discovering that she has witnessed the collapse of an alibi after reporting a hit and run Boston reporter Jane Ryland convinces a date rape victim to come forward as part of an exposé on college campus sexual assaults an assignment that is complicated by an ominous threat Imagine No More Lies Michael Aldrich,2011-09-28 WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF YOU COULD CHANGE THE WORLD The Pate family is brutally attacked and ripped apart by a Chicago crime syndicate The survivors are split up only to be brought back together by fate and their shared passion for philately Fast forward computer genius and biochemical engineer Ashton Jones secretly designs a special device which would dramatically change not only the criminal justice system but the entire human race Preventing this new technology from falling into the hands of a powerful international criminal lawyer sparks a struggle between the forces of good and evil The race for control of this special device sends the Pate family and Ashton Jones on a life and death chase which spans from coast to coast At what point can family be trusted with the truth and how many lies and deceit can one family endure A decision has to be made but will it be the right one And can you imagine a world with no more lies
