From Missouri Thad Snow, 2012-10-01 After years of subjecting the editors of St Louis newspapers to eloquent letters on subjects as diverse as floods tariffs and mules Thad Snow published his memoir From Missouri in his mid seventies in 1954 He was barely retired from farming for more than half a century mostly in the Missouri Bootheel or Swampeast Missouri as he called it Now back in print with a new introduction by historian Bonnie Stepenoff these sketches of a life a region and an era will delight readers new to this distinctive American voice as well as readers already familiar with this masterpiece of the American Midwest Snow purchased a thousand acres of southeast Missouri swampland in 1910 cleared it drained it and eventually planted it in cotton Although he employed sharecroppers he grew to become a bitter critic of the labor system after a massive flood and the Great Depression worsened conditions for these already burdened workers Shocking his fellow landowners Snow invited the Southern Tenant Farmers Union to organize the workers on his land He was even once accused of fomenting a strike and publicly threatened with horsewhipping Snow s admiration for Owen Whitfield the African American leader of the Sharecroppers Roadside Demonstration convinced him that nonviolent resistance could defeat injustice Snow embraced pacifism wholeheartedly and denounced all war as evil even as America mobilized for World War II after the attack on Pearl Harbor In the late 1940s and early 1950s he became involved with creating Missouri s conservation movement Near the end of his life he found a retreat in the Missouri Ozarks where he wrote this recollection of his life This unique and honest series of personal essays expresses the thoughts of a farmer a hunter a husband a father and grandfather a man with a soft spot for mules and dogs and all kinds of people Snow s prose reveals much about a way of life in the region during the first half of the twentieth century as well as the social and political events that affected the entire nation Whether arguing that a good stock dog should be left alone to do its work explaining the process of making swampland suitable for agriculture or putting forth his case for world peace Snow s ideas have a special authenticity because they did not come from an ivory tower or a think tank they came From Missouri The Friend ,1879 SNOW Series 1. Vol. 1 HC Bobby Nash,2018-12-13 Half an inch is all that stands between life and death Abraham Snow former undercover agent turned do gooder helps those in need while searching for the man who shot and left him for dead SNOW Series 1 Volume 1 collects the first 3 SNOW stories SNOW FALLS SNOW STORM and SNOW DRIVE together for the first time Applied Science Robert Bud,2024-03-28 For almost two centuries the category of applied science was widely taken to be both real and important Then its use faded How could an entire category of science appear and disappear By taking a longue dur e approach to British attitudes across the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Robert Bud explores the scientific and cultural trends that led to such a dramatic rise and fall He traces the prospects and consequences that gave the term meaning from its origins to its heyday as an elixir to cure many of the economic cultural and political ills of the UK eventually overtaken by its competitor technology Bud examines how applied science was shaped by educational and research institutions sociotechnical imaginaries and political ideologies and explores the extent to which non scientific lay opinion mediated by politicians and newspapers could become a driver in the classification of science Sabina Lady Wood,2020-09-23 Reprint of the original first published in 1869 The Hatred of Literature William Marx,2018-01-08 For 2 500 years literature has been condemned in the name of authority truth morality and society But in making explicit what a society expects from literature anti literary discourse paradoxically asserts the validity of what it wishes to deny The threat to literature s continued existence William Marx writes is not hatred but indifference AS LUCK WOULD HAVE IT Lucky Rimpila,2024-01-17 When I think back about the history that happened while I was growing up to graduate in the class of 68 in small town America I was more thinking about relationships dating muscle cars movies TV shows drive ins and family events I heard of some events while they happened but didn t realize the full extent of how our country and the world changed with the history that took place at the same time I took a look back and now I want to share with you every day country and world events that shaped our lives A to Zoo Rebecca L.
