Theatre in Market Economies Michael McKinnie,2021-02-04 Explores theatre s relationship with the market economy since the 1990s from the Third Way to the age of austerity

Nigerian Stage Directors' Philosophies, Aesthetics and Ideologies Bisi Adigun,Duro Oni,2025-02-15 In several Nigerian universities theories of Western stage directors who are long dead are still relied upon to teach Nigerian students the art of stage directing This is akin to eating Nigerian delicacies such as isi ewu a goat s head delicacy which are traditionally eaten with fingers with cutlery How can the brain of an aspiring Nigerian theatre director be full of the principles of Russian German English French and Polish stage directors who are all dead while he or she does not know much about contemporary Nigerian stage directors many of whom are still alive and practising This is the major lacuna that this book fills Containing essays and interview contributions from 30 directors of different ages generations genders and social classes and from different parts of Nigeria and beyond this book will afford the future generation of stage directors not only in Nigeria but also in the world at large the opportunity to learn from an epistemic community and stand on the shoulders of indigenous Nigerian theatre giants to touch the sky Sound and Music for the Theatre Deena Kaye,James LeBrecht,2015-09-25 Covering every phase of a theatrical production this fourth edition of Sound and Music for the Theatre traces the process of sound design from initial concept through implementation in actual performances The book discusses the early evolution of sound design and how it supports the play from researching sources for music and effects to negotiating a contract It shows you how to organize the construction of the sound design elements how the designer functions in a rehearsal and how to set up and train an operator to run sound equipment This instructive information is interspersed with war stores describing real life problems with solutions that you can apply in your own work whether you re a sound designer composer or sound operator Production Collaboration in the Theatre Rufus Bonds Jr.,Maria Cominis,Mark Ramont,2021-12-27 Production Collaboration in the Theatre reveals the ingredients of proven successful collaborations in academic and professional theatre training where respect trust and inclusivity are encouraged and roles are defined with a clear and unified vision Garnering research from conversations with over 100 theatre professionals on Broadway and in regional and educational theatre the authors provide multiple approaches to working together that are designed to help students and teachers of theatre discover and develop the collaborative tools that work best for them Each chapter offers practical application with discussion prompts from real life scenarios to practice and develop the critical problem solving skills necessary for theatre artists to navigate common collaboration challenges Compelling topical case studies and insightful interviews invite readers to explore the principles of collaboration and inspire them to build joyful equitable and collaborative relationships in academic and professional settings Production Collaboration for the Theatre offers theatre faculty and students a practical approach to developing the interpersonal skills necessary for a lifetime career in collaboration in the theatre An ideal resource for actors directors designers and production teams this book provides theatre artists in training with an opportunity to develop their collaborative style in a way that will guide and support the longevity of a successful career Theatre in Practice Nick O'Brien,Annie Sutton,2013 Theatre in Practice provides students with all of the must have Drama skills required for A Level International Baccalaureate BTEC and beyond Practical step by step exercises and diagrams give access to the key figures and processes central to drama including Stanislavski Brecht Lecoq and Berkoff devising theatre rehearsing and performing monologues and duologues how to approach directing a play improvising Each chapter offers advice for both students and teachers with notes and follow on exercises ideal for individual study and practice Written by specialists with extensive experience leading workshops for the post 16 age group Theatre in Practice is a thorough and imaginative resource that speaks directly to students Practical Theatre Sally Mackey, 1997 Practical Theatre meets the requirements of the A level theatre studies performing arts syllabuses and GNVQ performing arts It seeks to encourage practical quality work by providing a rigorous framework of knowledge Cultural Democracy: The Way Festivals Affect Society Maria-Louisa Laopodi, 2003-07-13 The dissertation studies the extent to which festivals from a popular event for the masses evolved into exclusive events and shows how festivals affect society and are affected by it through practices in accordance with cultural democracy Festivals relation to society is explained through the following concept areas 1 The artist s role 2 The use of festivals 3 The European example 4 Cultural democracy 5 Cultural policy 6 Active participation 7 Cultural tourism 8 The media The dissertation identifies cultural policy active participation and the media as key areas of concern in order to attain a coherent culturally democratic society The study recognised that certain festivals and forms of art have been taken over by elite groups of people who exclude others from accessing them What is called mass culture appeared to include many more practices and manifestations of creativity than the perceived established arts How mass culture is seen is important in the way people are given freedom to preserve and express their cultural preferences and identities In this respect the media play an important role through their capacity to promote and supply culture The media use segmented functions of culture and influence people s behaviours Contemporary European Theatre Directors Maria M. Delgado, Dan Rebellato, 2020-06-29 This expanded second edition of Contemporary European Theatre Directors is an ambitious and unprecedented overview of many of the key directors working in European theatre over the past 30 years This book is a vivid account of the vast range of work undertaken in European theatre during the last three decades situated lucidly in its artistic cultural and political context Each chapter discusses a particular director showing the influences on their work how it has developed over time its reception and the complex relation it has with its social and cultural context The volume includes directors living and working in Italy Germany France Spain Poland Russia Romania the UK Belgium Switzerland and the Netherlands offering a broad and international picture of the directing landscape Now revised and updated Contemporary European Theatre Directors is an ideal text for both undergraduate and postgraduate directing students as well as those researching contemporary theatre practices providing a detailed guide to the generation of directors whose careers were forged and tempered in the changing Europe following the end of the Cold War Doing Performative Social Science Kip Jones, 2022-06-30 Doing Performative Social Science Creativity in Doing Research and Reaching Communities focuses as the title suggests on the actual act of doing research and creating research outputs through a number of creative and arts led approaches Performative Social Science PSS embraces the use of tools from the arts e g photography dance drama filmmaking poetry fiction etc by expanding even replacing more traditional methods of research and diffusion of academic efforts Ideally it can include forming collaborations with artists themselves and creating a professional research learning and or dissemination experience These efforts then include the wider community that has a meaningful investment in their projects and their outputs and outcomes In this insightful volume Kip Jones brings together a wide range of examples of how contributing authors from diverse disciplines have used the arts led principles of PSS and its philosophy based in relational aesthetics in real world projects The chapters outline the methods and theory bases underlying creative approaches show the aesthetic and relational constructs of research through these approaches and show the real and meaningful community engagement that can result from projects such as these This book will be of interest to all scholars of qualitative and arts led research in the social sciences communication and performance studies as well as artist scholars and those engaging in community based research
