

Epilogue: The end of the Calvary Road

Every pain, every loss, every suffering, every sorrow, every disappointment – all we leave behind – is completely worth the joy that awaits us when we see Jesus in his kingdom.

He has not left us as orphans. But he walks the Calvary Road with us. And one day, all of our sorrow will turn into joy.

The King Among Men John L. Benson, 1979 Behold the King Stanley D. Toussaint, 2005-01 This insightful study is not simply a verse by verse commentary but a careful study of the thematic purpose and flow of thought of Matthew The Gospel of Matthew James Montgomery Boice, 2001 A clear and practical commentary on the second half of Matthew Boice's expositions are ideal models for preachers and excellent resources for teachers

The King of the Jews John Rice, 2015-04-08 Every student of the book of Matthew will see its dispensational character There are certain things taught about the coming kingdom of Heaven and the reign of Christ on earth is perhaps made clearer in this than in the other Gospels In some sense this Gospel was directed especially to Jews But it is important that no one be guilty of over emphasizing the dispensational teaching in Matthew The book of Matthew is written for us today It is for Gentiles as well as Jews it is for this age as well as apostolic times The Great Commission is in force until the Saviour comes again Let us take the blessed promises of this Book as ours and the blessed commands as they were intended to be taken May I suggest that the study of Matthew will have been helpful if it results in Christians winning souls in the power of the Holy Spirit carrying out the Great Commission and getting souls won to God If your study of this book makes you a soul winner makes you a missionary then your study shall not have been in vain Now may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you always Amen

The King of the Kingdom of Heaven Thomas O. Figart, 2016-05-19 The Gospel of Matthew presents the Lord Jesus Christ as the long prophesied King of God's promised kingdom THE KING OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN is a verse by verse commentary of Matthew's Gospel written from a dispensational premillennial perspective that is essential to correctly understand God's prophetic kingdom program. This thorough commentary traces the theme of Christ's kingship from His royal virgin birth through His authoritative teaching and sign miracles to His sacrificial death, bodily resurrection, and commission to His disciples. The author holds the text of Matthew's Gospel in highest regard as the inspired Word of God. He balances practical application with scholarly attention to the details of historical background, grammar, and word meaning. Readers of this commentary will gain greater insight into the earthly life, ministry, and mission of the King and His coming kingdom. Dr. Thomas O. Figart served for thirty-eight years on the faculty of Lancaster Bible College in various roles, including Distinguished Professor, Chair of the Biblical Division, Academic Dean, and Interim President. He currently resides in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where he continues to teach the Word of God. An undergraduate of Johns Hopkins University, B. S. Figart also holds a Th. M. from Dallas Theological Seminary and a Th. D. from Grace Theological Seminary. He is also the author of MEANINGFUL MEDITATIONS: A WORD STUDY OF PSALM 119.

The Study of the Gospel of Matthew Karly D. Wesley, 2019-06-04. Matthew is the only gospel to mention the word church, which by the time the gospel was written had become the dominant factor in the lives of Christians. From the arrival of the Messiah to the healing of the devil-possessed man, The Study of the Gospel of Matthew is a verse-by-verse study that church and small group members will be able to apply to their lives. In Matthew's version of the gospel, Jesus is presented as the suffering Servant and the only qualified representative of the kingdom of God. Readers will understand how Jesus came as the Son of God to pay the sin debt served on earth as the suffering Servant and fulfilled God's plan for redemption. Designed as a practical and simple overview, readers and ministry leaders will appreciate the study's enlightening alliterative style. Pastor Wesley has compiled a dozen other biblical verse-by-verse studies using the same alliterative style to help believers grow in their knowledge of Jesus Christ. The Study of the Gospel of Matthew is volume 1 of a three-volume series.

Matthew's Gospel Michael J. Tiry, 2025-02-02. The Gospel of Matthew presents the public ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ as the Messiah of the nation of Israel. The overall theme of the Gospel is the call to Israel to Repent for the Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand. The Gospel is in four sections. The first section is in the first ten chapters, in which the Lord carries on a broad-based ministry to the nation at large. In these chapters, He demonstrates to the nation His credentials as the one who will reign over Israel and the earth as King of kings and Lord of lords. Then in chapters 10 and 11, He is rejected by the leaders of the nation and is in fact blasphemed. In Chapter 12, He introduces the unpardonable sin of blaspheming the Holy Ghost. The third section is in Chapters 13 through 20, in which He confines His ministry to the 12 apostles to prepare them to be able to carry on the ministry of the gospel of the kingdom to the nation in His absence. During this time, Christ prepares His disciples for the coming events that will leave them confused and bewildered. What the disciples faced did indeed test their faith. Yet the Lord fortified their resolve to go through those very trying times and remain faithful to Him as Messiah. The fourth section consists of Chapters 21 through 28, covering His death, burial, and resurrection. The author of this study traces the human interest as the disciples are discouraged by their Messiah appearing to just give up and allow Himself to be crucified. He is going to the cross to accomplish redemption for the nation and the entire world but He can not tell them yet why that is happening. Christ is preparing these men for their apostleship and also giving them enough evidence of His position as Messiah that they will get through those traumatic days of severe testing of their faith. The Book of Matthew closes with the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We see the apostles as they go through this time of testing of their faith. Will they hold to their commission to proclaim the Kingdom to the nation and call the nation to repent of having crucified their Messiah? The Gospel of Matthew ends abruptly in Chapter 28 in what seems to be almost anticlimactic in that the promised kingdom that the twelve were commissioned to preach and proclaim has not yet been established. Today now that we are some 2 000 years past the apostles commissioning to proclaim the kingdom we still don't see the kingdom being established. We ask why hasn't the kingdom been established yet? In the conclusion of this study guide the author connects the Gospel of Matthew with the rest of the Prophetic Books concerning Israel's Kingdom notably the books of Hebrews through the Revelation. What fills the gap between the books of Matthew and Hebrews? That interruption concerns a temporary setting aside of the nation of Israel as a result of the blaspheming of the Holy Spirit as spoken of in Matthew 12 and occurring in the Book of Acts. So from the middle of the Book of Acts until Philemon God is calling out from the lost masses of humanity a new elect agency the Church the Body of Christ. Even though God is currently working with the Gentiles He will one day pick up His dealings with the nation of Israel. This will happen after He catches the Church the Body of Christ to its eternal home in the heavens. The Conclusion then puts the information in this study of Matthew's Gospel in perspective for the present dispensation of the grace of God and the ultimate continuing of Bible Prophecy that will follow.

Glimpses of the King Dorothy Russell, 2004-11. Why are there four Gospels? Wouldn't it have been better to have one complete biography of Jesus? Interesting questions. Perhaps the answer could be summed up by saying that each of the four Gospel writers wrote to bring out a different theme. Matthew a Jew shows us Jesus as King the One who fulfilled the Jewish prophecies in the Old
