Democratisation in the Himalayas Vibha Arora,N. Jayaram,2017-02-03 Democratisation is a formidable task in the Himalayan region owing to its immense cultural heterogeneity The process of democratisation has accentuated ethnic competition assertion of identity and demand for ethnic homelands to protect safeguard and promote political and development interests of various groups The book argues that the play of ethnicity the creation of political parties and interest groups the emergence of social movements the voice of protest and opposition do not indicate a crisis in democracy but comprise the instruments by which the state is pushed towards reform welfare inclusive politics and is obliged to listen to the people     Development and Disaster Management Amita Singh,Milap Punia,Nivedita P. Haran,Thiyam Bharat Singh,2018-06-15 This book highlights the relationship between disasters and development through a socio cultural study of human geography and governance institutions It studies the cause context and consequences of disasters in one of the most fragile Himalayan regions in India The book establishes the fact that disaster management is built within the framework of good governance without which it has no meaning For lack of effective and responsive governance development has lagged behind and even though the frequency of disasters has been increasing little is being done to redesign developmental frameworks to prevent ensuing losses Besides the near absence of governmental support during recurrent disasters communities have cumulatively become reservoirs of innovations to cope up with disasters The resilience plans need not follow implanted models but may be cost effective only if they apply a bottom up approach Just as the region is culturally diverse so are the challenges encountered by local communities in terms of generating resilience to every disaster Despite more than a decade of the Disaster Management Act DMA of 2005 most of the states in this northeastern fringe of India continue to wait for its implementation beyond mere structures and offices The book suggests that urgent action is required in accordance with the DMA 2005 towards inter agency coordination proactive participation of local governance mobilization of Community based Organizations CBOs and curriculum based training in every academic and technical institution Governments of these northeastern states of India should establish accountability of State Disaster Management Authorities and inspire them to participate proactively with communities for an effective resilience building in the region

The Resilience of Indigenous Religion Samson Kamei, 2022-12-22 This book is a sociological study of the resilience of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak one of the indigenous religions of the Rongmei people of Manipur It examines the underlying factors contributing towards the ability of the adherents of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak to continue with their religion despite stigmatisation conversion and persecution by sections of Christians This book reflects the contemporary relevance of the legacies of the religious movements under Jadonang Malangmei and Rani Gaidinliu Thus the book also examines the continuity between the past and the present religious movements with complex underlying factors contributing to the resilience of an indigenous religion The Rongmei people following Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak a reformed religion are seen to be not shying away from changes in their religious beliefs and practices Interestingly however despite all the reformations consciously heralded the idea of primordality in the sense of unchanging is a sincere atavism among the adherents of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak Methodologically speaking the emphasis of the book is on theoretical and methodological triangulation Both social change theory and social identity theory are used to understand the resilience of the indigenous faith of the Rongmei people amidst dominant Hindus and tribal Christians It is observed that the idea of change is indispensable in understanding the resilience of an indigenous faith despite the commonly held belief in the essentiality of primordality in a religion The book is intended to serve the academic interests of researchers working on indigenous religions Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print version of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka kalsiam chungchang thusep engemaw zat tarlan a ni bawk      Entangled Lives Joy L. K. Pachau, Willem van Schendel, 2022-11-10 This book considers three questions about understanding the past How can we rethink human histories by including animals and plants How can we overcome nationally territorialised narratives And how can we balance academic history writing and indigenous understandings of history This is a tentative foray into the connections between these questions Entangled Lives explore them for a large area that has seldom been explored in academic inquiry The Eastern Himalayan Triangle includes both uplands and lowlands The region is the meeting point of three global biodiversity hotspots connecting India and China across Myanmar Burma Bangladesh and Bhutan The Triangle is treated as a multispecies site in which human histories have always been utterly intertwined with plant and animal histories It foregrounds that history is co created it is always interspecies history but that its contours are locally specific      Politics of Soft Power Diplomacy And Its Responses Dr. Samson S Chiru, Politics of Soft Power Diplomacy and its Responses is the outcome of Seminar Series at Mt Everest College Senapati Manipur for the past more than half dozen decade of continual effort sustained by loving promotion and encouragement received from reputed ICSSR and UGC in granting Seminar grant to me as convener of this series The book covers wide ranges of inclusion and exclusion in accessing mainstream projects and government programmes which are dealt and discussed here by different contributors of papers from various academic disciplines It is felt that Soft Power Diplomacy is very instrumental in shaping the image of a country abroad Joseph Nye coined the term and domestic policies are as important as foreign policies Classical Realists too have informed consent on the similar understanding of domestic domain having ramification on foreign policies for a country The author editor of this book feels that the work will contribute in its bit to researches and analyses and expected that the gap in formulating the issues pertaining to the marginalized and suppressed groups in policy formulation and implementation can be further carried in future I always said that soft corner given to minorities and dominated section in any given group society is pre requisite to development of the country If in a given country only the the majority rules then that country would never be called a pluralistic and cosmopolitan approach in its shape of designing the structure of its government and governance Besides the author editor also has no doubt that such studies as this will be of special interest to academicians policy makers policy implementers legal practitioners politicians activists students and public at large As issues discussed here are all Soft Power Diplomacy domain that pertain to flexible and diversified components that are most required to address the grievances of the discriminated and dominated lots in the society      Indian Soldiers in the First World War Ashutosh Kumar, Claude Markovits, 2020-12-23 This book explores the lives and social histories of Indians soldiers who fought in the First World War It focuses on their motivations experiences and lives after returning from service in Europe Mesopotamia East Africa and Palestine to present a more complete picture of Indian participation in the war The book looks at the Indian support to the war for political concessions from the British government and its repercussions through the perspective of the role played by more than one million Indian soldiers and labourers It examines the social and cultural aspects of the experience of fighting on foreign soil in a deadly battle and their contributions which remain largely unrecognised From micro histories of fighting soldiers aspects of recruitment and deployment to macro histories connecting different aspects of the War the volume explores a variety of themes including the material incentives coercion and training which converted peasants into combatants encounters of travelling Indian soldiers with other societies and the contributions of returned soldiers in Indian society The book will be useful to researchers and students of history post colonial studies sociology literature and cultural studies as well as for those interested in military history World War I and colonial history
