Stevenson,2019-01-22 Between the 1880s and 1980s British excavations at locations across Egypt resulted in the discovery of hundreds of thousands of ancient objects that were subsequently sent to some 350 institutions worldwide These finds included unique discoveries at iconic sites such as the tombs of ancient Egypt s first rulers at Abydos Akhenaten and Nefertiti s city of Tell el Amarna and rich Roman Era burials in the Fayum Scattered Finds explores the politics personalities and social histories that linked fieldwork in Egypt with the varied organizations around the world that received finds Case studies range from Victorian municipal museums and women s suffrage campaigns in the UK to the development of some of the USA s largest institutions and from university museums in Japan to new institutions in post independence Ghana By juxtaposing a diversity of sites for the reception of Egyptian cultural heritage over the period of a century Alice Stevenson presents new ideas about the development of archaeology museums and the construction of Egyptian heritage She also addresses the legacy of these practices raises questions about the nature of the authority over such heritage today and argues for a stronger ethical commitment to its stewardship Praise for Scattered Finds Scattered Finds is a remarkable achievement In charting how British excavations in Egypt dispersed artefacts around the globe at an unprecedented scale Alice Stevenson shows us how ancient objects created knowledge about the past while firmly anchored in the present No one who reads this timely book will be able to look at an Egyptian antiquity in the same way again Professor Christina Riggs UEA      Mennonite Family History ,2002      The Anglo-Catholic Shane Leslie,1929      Documents Massachusetts.
