The Lady Of The Pool:

The Floating Pool Lady Ann L. Bittenwieser, 2021-05-15 Why on earth would anyone want to float a pool up the Atlantic coastline to bring it to rest at a pier on the New York City waterfront In The Floating Pool Lady Ann L Bittenwieser recounts her triumphant adventure that started in the bayous of Louisiana and ended with a self sustaining floating swimming pool moored in New York Harbor When Bittenwieser decided something needed to be done to help revitalize the New York City waterfront she reached into the city s nineteenth century past for inspiration Bittenwieser wanted New Yorkers to reestablish their connection to their riverine surroundings and she was energized by the prospect of city youth returning to the Hudson and East Rivers What she didn t suspect was that outfitting and donating a swimming facility for free enjoyment by the public would turn into an almost Sisyphean task As she describes in The Floating Pool Lady Bittenwieser battled for years with politicians and struggled with bureaucrats as she brought her crazy scheme to fruition From dusty archives in the historic Battery Maritime Building to high stakes community board meetings to tense negotiations in the Louisiana shipyard Bittenwieser retells the improbable process that led to a pool named The Floating Pool Lady tying up to a pier at Barretto Point Park in the Bronx ready for summer swimmers Throughout The Floating Pool Lady Bittenwieser raises consciousness about persistent environmental issues and the challenges of developing a constituency for projects to make cities livable in the twenty first century Her story and that of her floating pool function as both warning and inspiration to those who dare to dream of realizing innovative public projects in the modern urban landscape
