The Landscape Of Exile:

The Landscape of Exile Jay Griswold, 1993 The Ecology of the English Outlaw in Medieval Literature Sarah Harlan-Haughey, 2016-03-31 Arguing that outlaw narratives become particularly popular and poignant at moments of national ecological and political crisis Sarah Harlan Haughey examines the figure of the outlaw in Anglo Saxon poetry and Old English exile lyrics such as Beowulf works dealing with the life and actions of Hereward the Anglo Norman romance of Fulk Fitz Waryn the Robin Hood ballads and the Tale of Gamelyn Although the outlaw's wilderness shelter changed dramatically from the menacing fens and forests of Anglo Saxon England to the bright known and mapped greenwood of the late outlaw romances and ballads Harlan Haughey observes that the outlaw remained strongly animalistic other and liminal His brutality points to a deep literary ambivalence towards wilderness and the animal at the same time that figures such as the Anglo Saxon resistance fighter Hereward the brutal yet courtly Gamelyn and Robin Hood often represent a lost England imagined as pristine and forested In analyzing outlaw literature as a form of nature writing Harlan Haughey suggests that it often reveals more about medieval anxieties respecting humanity's place in nature than it does about the political realities of the period

The Christian Mind of C. S. Lewis Andrew J. Spencer, 2019-12-05 C S Lewis embodied the Christian mind because he saw the world as a coherent unity His writing consistently pursued the good the true and the beautiful He used nonfiction to point out the reasonableness of Christianity and used his fiction to create compelling illustrations that make faith in Christ an obvious and attractive conclusion This book explores the Christian mind of C S Lewis across the spectrum of the genres he worked in With contributors from diverse disciplines and interests the volume illuminates the many facets of Lewis's work The Christian Mind of C S Lewis assists readers to read Lewis better and also to read other works better The overarching goal is just as Lewis would have desired to help people see Christ more clearly in the world and to be more like Christ

Landscapes of the Song of Songs Elaine T. James, 2017-06-01 In this masterful new study of the ancient poetry of the Song of Songs Elaine T James explores the Song's underlying interest in the natural world Engaging with the fields of geography landscape architecture and literature James critiques the tendency of scholars to reify a perceived dichotomy between nature and culture and instead argues that the poetic attention to landscape indicates an awareness of a viewer Nature is here a poetic device that informs James's close readings of agrarianism gardens cities social control and feminism and the gaze in the Song With this two fold emphasis on landscape and lyric Landscape of the Song of Songs shows how the Song persistently envisions a world in which human lovers are embedded in the natural world complexly enfolded in relationships of fragility and care

Mining the Landscape Geraldine Mate, 2022-09-12 Mining was one of the primary elements of colonial enterprise in Australia and a factor in movement on colonial frontiers In the second half of the 19th and early 20th century mining particularly of gold saw transformations of the land itself as well as in the way that people working in mining engaged with the landscape around them Landscape archaeology provides a theoretical perspective that allows an articulation of how people created and understood the place in which they lived and worked The impact of and narrative surrounding gold mining has meant that it has long been a focus of study both historical and archaeological The archaeology of mining has traditionally fallen under the umbrella of industrial archaeology with analyses based on historical economic and technological evidence However this is changing From an industrial focus examining the remnants of mines and associated processing equipment archaeology has progressed towards understandings of the social aspects of mining recognising that people not just equipment occupied these landscapes Nevertheless there remains a separation between industrial technology based studies and purely social household based archaeological studies a division that overlooks the integration of home and livelihood This work addresses these very challenges using a landscape based approach that articulates a nuanced meaning laden and experienced mining landscape Integrating the social and the industrial the case study of Mount Shamrock a gold mining town in Queensland Australia demonstrates how this methodology can enhance our understanding of the past The work presents an integration of social and industrial perspectives in a mining settlement and provides an exemplar in the application of landscape theory to Australian historical archaeology These concepts and approaches developed in an Australian context are of universal interest

The Forest of Medieval Romance Corinne J. Saunders, 1993 Corinne J Saunders's exploration of the topos of the forest a familiar and ubiquitous motif in the literature of the middle ages is a broad study embracing a range of medieval and Elizabethan texts from the twelfth to the sixteenth centuries the roman d'antiquite Breton lay and courtly romance the hagiographical tradition of the Vita Merlini and the Queste del Saint Graal Spenser and Shakespeare Saunders identifies the forest as a primary romance landscape as a place of adventure love and spiritual vision offers a pleasurable overview of the narrative function of the forest as a literary landscape Based on a close comparative and theoretically non partisan reading of a broad range of literary texts drawn from the European canon Saunders's study explores the continuity and transformation of an important motif in the corpus of medieval literature

MODERN LANGUAGE REVIEW Dr CORINNE SAUNDERS teaches in the Department of English at the University of Durham

BLURB EXTRACTED FROM TLS REVIEW An immense tract not only of medieval literature but of human experience is engagingly introduced and presented here Corinne Saunders considers first forests in reality a reality which keeps breaking through in romance She looks also at the classical and biblical models including Virgil Statius and Nebuchadnezzar only then does she turn to the non real and non Classical i.e. the medieval and romantic Here she follows a clear chronological plan from twelfth to fifteenth centuries also covering the allegorized landscape of Spenser and the lovers woods of Arden or Athens in Shakespeare Her text by text layout does justice to the variety of possibilities taken up by different authors the forest as a place where men run mad and turn into animals a place of voluntary suffering a focus of significance in the Grail quests a lovers bower above all and centrally the place where the knight is tested and defined even as with Perceval created

Exile's Return Malcolm Cowley, 1994-12-01 The adventures and attitudes shared by the American writers dubbed The Lost Generation are brought to life here by one of the group's most notable members. Feeling alienated in the America of the 1920s, Fitzgerald, Crane, Hemingway, Wilder, Dos Passos, Crowley, and many other writers escaped to Europe, some forever, some as temporary exiles. As Crowley details in this intimate anecdotal portrait, in renouncing traditional life and literature they expanded the boundaries of art.

The Desert Experience in Israel Alexander Paul Hare, Gideon M. Spatial Relations. Volume One. John Kinsella, 2013 These volumes present John Kinsella's uncollected critical writings and personal reflections from the early 1990s to the present. Included are extended pieces of memoir written in the Western Australian wheatbelt and the Cambridge fens as well as acute essays and commentaries on the nature and genesis of personal and public poetics. Pivotal are a sense of place and how we write out of it; pastoral's relevance to contemporary poetry; how we evaluate and critique post-colonial creativity and intrusion into Indigenous spaces; and engaged analysis of activism and responsibility in poetry and literary discourse. The author is well known for saying he is preeminently an anarchist, vegan, pacifist, not stock epithets but the reason behind his work. The collection moves from overviews of contemporary Australian poetry to studies of such writers as Randolph Stow, Ouyang Yu, Charmaine Papertalk, Green, Lionel Fogarty, Les Murray, Peter Porter, Dorothy Hewett, Judith Wright, Alamgir Hashmi, Patrick Lane, Robert Sullivan, C. K. Stead, and J. H. Prynne, and on to numerous book reviews of poetry, fiction, and non-fiction originally published in newspapers and journals from around the world. There are also searching reflections on visual artists Sidney Nolan, Karl Wiebke, Shaun Atkinson, and wide-ranging opinion pieces and editorials. In counterpoint are conversations with other writers Rosanna Warren, Rod Mengham, Alvin Pang, and Tracy Ryan, and explorations of schooling, being struck by lightning, international regionalism, hybridity, and experimental poetry. This two-volume argosy has been brought together by scholar and editor Gordon Collier, who has allowed the original versions to speak with their unique informal formal ductus. Kinsella's interest is in the ethics of space and how we use it. His considerations of the wheatbelt through Wagner and Dante and rewritings of these and in Thoreauvian vein, his place at Jam Tree Gully on the edge of Western Australia's Avon Valley, form a web of affirmation and anxiety. It is space he feels both part of and outside, embraced in its every magnitude but felt to be stolen land whose restitution needs articulating in literature and in real time. Beneath it all is a celebration of the natural world: every plant, animal, rock, sentinel peak, and grain of sand, and a commitment to an ecological poetics.

Landscape's Revenge Caio Yurgel,2018-11-05 Landscape as it appears and is described throughout the works of Bernardo Carvalho and Robert Walser provides an excellent yet virtually unexplored pathway to the authors literary projects The landscape functions here as a synthetic and unifying figure that triggers at first through the analysis of its description per se the main and most evident elements of the authors works However when sustained as a methodological figure beyond the scope of its own description the landscape soon reveals a darker far more fascinating and far less explored side of the authors oeuvres a vengeful seemingly defeatist resentment against the status quo which gives way to the more latent and biting elements of the authors prose such as irony the unheimlich an anti heroic agenda the apocalyptic aesthetics of a disaster prone fictional world as well as an understanding of history and literature through the figures of failure and marginality By drawing from diverse critical traditions from Latin America and Europe this comparative text seeks to unravel in all of its complexity and scope the fictional stage upon which Walser s and Carvalho s characters narrate with their dying breath a world that is slowly undoing itself nurtured the hope of a nation The Roman Poetry of Love Efrossini Spentzou, 2013-10-24 The Roman Poetry of Love explores the formation of a key literary genre in a troubled historical and political setting The short lived genre of Latin love elegy produced spectacular multi faceted and often difficult poetry Its proponents Catullus Tibullus Propertius and Ovid remain to this day some of the most influential poetic voices of Western civilisation This accessible introduction combines aesthetic analysis with socio political context to provide a concise but comprehensive portrait of the Roman elegy its main participants and its cultural and political milieu Focusing on a series of specific poems the title portrays the development of the genre in the context of the Emperor Augustus ascent to power following recognizable threads through the texts to build an understanding of the relationship between this poetry and the increasingly totalising regime Highlighting and examining the intense affectation of love in these poems The Roman Poetry of Love explores the works not simply as an expression of a troubled male psychology but also as a reflection of the overwhelming changes that swept through Rome and Italy in the transition from the late Republic to the Augustan Age Cross-Addressing John C. Hawley, 1996-07-03 The sixteen original essays by scholars from around the world examine concerns common to writers who experience marginalization based upon their inescapable identification with two or more cultures From Australian aboriginal and Maori to Irish Maghrebian and South African and on to the rich ethnic mix in North America the book considers fiction poetry autobiography and anthropological reportage to raise questions as determinative as one's choice of language one's presentation of self in society one's recovery of a history This collection serves as a bridge between recent Eurocentric postmodern discourse dealing with the breakdown of the modernist stability in art architecture and electronic media and those recent studies that problematize the issue of racial identity and literary practice Cross Addressing discusses site specific strategies of resistance to the imposition of identity in the terms imposed or implied by colonizers and their descendants narrative empowerment gender reconstruction racial decategorization an intersection of marginalities and a cross cultural Third World solidarity The movement is from the individual to the collective from the particular to the global The theoretical approach is eclectic echoing the current split in cultural studies between discussions of the cultural production of meaning and an involvement in policy debates The book contends that the heightened consciousness resulting from marginalization not only judges our world but offers it a window onto its future possibilities Contributors include Lyn McCredden Suzette Henke Trevor James Mary O Connor S M Nejd Yaziji Rosemary Jolly Bernice Zamora Gayle Wald Arturo Aldama Manuel M Mart n Rodr quez Barbara Frey Waxman Mayfair Mei hui Yang Lien Chao Karin Quimby and Roger Bromley
