Nicholas,2011-05-25 To be a child in mid twentieth century Europe was to be not a person but an object available for use in the service of the totalitarian state Very soon after Adolf Hitler came to power policies of eugenic selection and euthanasia began to weed ill or disabled children out of the New Order by poison gas and starvation Defect free good blood children were subjected to an education based on racism propaganda and the glorification of the F hrer and were deliberately deprived of free time that would allow independent thought or action Once the war began Nordic looking children were kidnapped from families in the conquered lands and subjected to Germanization Meanwhile hundreds of thousands of bad blood children Jews Gypsies Poles Ukrainians Russians were separated from their families and condemned to forced migration slave labor sadistic experiments starvation and mass execution At the end of the war uprooted children of every origin wandered the bombed out cities and countryside some having been taken from home at such a young age that they did not know where they had come from or even their own names Millions surged into and out of DP camps exploited by political and religious groups while the Allies and the fledgling United Nations tried mightily to put families back together and to find new homes for the orphans All the riveting narrative skill and impeccable scholarship that distinguished Lynn Nicholas s first book The Rape of Europa winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for nonfiction are present in her study of these terrible crimes against humanity To research this story she has delved into the governmental and military archives of many nations and has interviewed countless individuals She shows the relationship of the deadly Nazi policies to the brutal tactics used in the USSR in the 1930s and to their rehearsal in the Spanish Civil War and vividly describes the abject failure of Hitler's campaign to plant Germanizing colonies in the conquered nations. She gives us the stories of survivors of ghastly war spawned famines in Greece and Russia in the 1940s, Holland in the Hunger Winter of 1945 and Berlin in the Airlift year of 1949 and of British, French and Dutch children who were evacuated to the countryside, boys and girls sent alone from Europe to England on the Kindertransports, the teenaged soldiers of the Reich, the small veterans of the quarries, the factories and the camps as well as those who survived in lonely hiding. In Cruel World, Lynn Nicholas shows us clearly and with passionate empathy for the innocent victims the crimes against children that inevitably result when ideology overwhelms humanity. This powerful book as it recounts the waking nightmare that enmeshed the lives of Europe's boys and girls bears witness to our own responsibility to the children of the twenty-first century. A Tempered Wind Karen Gershon, 2009. This memoir recounts the author's life from 1938 to the end of the war after escaping from Nazi Germany and struggling with adapting to a new culture and undertaking the complicated passage from adolescence to adulthood in the British Isles. Children of Job Alan L. Berger, 2012-02-01. Focusing on the novels and films of daughters and sons of Holocaust survivors, this book sheds light on the relationship between the Holocaust and contemporary Jewish identity. It is the first systematic analysis of a body of work that introduces a new generation of Jewish writers and filmmakers as well as revealing how the survivors' legacy is shaping and being shaped by the second generation. Carefully studying the work of these contemporary children of Job, Berger demonstrates how the offspring like the survivors themselves represent a variety of orientations to Judaism, have significant theological differences and share the legacy of the Shoah. Berger clearly shows that members of the second generation participate fully in both the American and Jewish dimensions of their identity and articulates distinctive second-generation theological and psychosocial themes. Bearing Witness Philip Rosen, Nina Apfelbaum, 2001-11-30. This resource guide will help readers locate over 800 first-person accounts, fiction, poetry, art, interpretations and music by Holocaust victims and survivors as well as videos relating the testimony and experiences of Holocaust survivors. Child of a Turbulent Century Victor Erlich, 2006-08-22 Victor Erlich was born in 1914 at the threshold of what the great Russian poet Anna Akhmatova called the real twentieth century in Petrograd a place indelibly marked by that century's violent dislocations and upheavals His story begun on the eve of the First World War and taking him through Russia Poland Lithuania Germany and the U S Army is in many ways a memoir of that real twentieth century reflecting its lethal nature and shaped by the fearful symmetry of the age of totalitarianism To read about Erlich's life growing up at the intersection of the century's darkest currents is to experience history firsthand from the Russian Revolution to the end of the Second World War and to know what it truly is to be a child of the century Throughout despite the darkness even the horror of much of what he describes the author maintains the beguiling tone and the warm manner of one who has reached the new millennium with rare and hard won insight into the human comedy of his time

Waiting for Hope Angelika Königseder, Juliane Wetzel, 2001 After the defeat of Germany in World War II more than a hundred thousand Jewish survivors of the Holocaust were transported to camps maintained by the allies for displaced persons DPs In this new history historians Angelika Königseder and Juliane Wetzel offer a social and cultural history of the post WWII displaced persons camps Starting with the discovery of death camps by Allied forces Königseder and Wetzel describe the inadequate preparations made for the survivors The soldiers were ill equipped to deal with the physical wreckage and mental anguish of their charges but American rabbis soon arrived to perform invaluable work helping the survivors cope The historians also devote attention to autonomous Jewish life in and near the camps theater groups and orchestras prospered schools were founded a tuberculosis hospital and clinic for DPs was established and underground organizations handled illegal immigration to Israel and trained soldiers to fight in Palestine Drawing on original documents and the work of other historians Waiting for Hope sheds light on a largely unknown period in postwar Jewish history and shows that the suffering of the survivors did not end with the war

My Gaze Is Turned Inward Gertrud Kolmar, 2004-08-26 So a picture of Gertrud Kolmar a gifted Jewish writer struggling to sustain her art and family emerges from these eloquent and allusive letters Written in the stolen moments before her day as a forced laborer in a munitions factory began the letters tell of Kolmar's move from the family home in Finkenkrug to a three room flat in Berlin which she and her father must soon share with other displaced Jews. They describe her factory work as a learning experience and assert in the face of ever worsening conditions that true art never dependent on comfort or peace is capable of triumphing over time and place. What are the historical roots of the Holocaust? How and why did the Final Solution come about? Why did bystanders extend or withhold aid? Part III consists of a concise chronology of major events and developments that took place surrounding the Holocaust including the armistice ending World War I, the opening of the first major concentration camp at Dachau, Germany's invasion of Poland, the failed assassination attempt against Hitler and the formation of Israel.
