24 The Uncrowned Empress THE GRAND FINALE and OTHER STORIES SREELA BASU,2018-10-24 Yellow is a dreamer a happy hard working and trustworthy person Debbie is frank a high flying individual and in love with life Rita and Romola are caught in their ambitious plans Mana is a grandmother and her caring granddaughter is visiting her Dr Ghosh s unbelievable encounter with his patient Vivek s struggles to build an industry and its outcome A teacher s effort to instill lost confidence in her pupil A woman s undaunted and solitary struggle to rebuild her life in a cruel world These are the characters you will meet in each of the stories They will grip you You will identify them with people you know and situations you ve personally experienced You wish you could help them You would wish to join in their fun to give them advice and cry with them Sympathize with them Share their grief and frustrations and be impatient to read the next story Murder in Ireland & Other Stories Tom O'mara,2014-08-20 Five stories about how people choose to navigate lifes problems The Idiot And Other Stories Fyodor Dostoyevsky,2020-09-28 Towards the end of November during a thaw at nine o clock one morning a train on the Warsaw and Petersburg railway was approaching the latter city at full speed The morning was so damp and misty that it was only with great difficulty that the day succeeded in breaking and it was impossible to distinguish anything more than a few yards away from the carriage windows Some of the passengers by this particular train were returning from abroad but the third class carriages were the best filled chiefly with insignificant persons of various occupations and degrees picked up at the different stations nearer town All of them seemed weary and most of them had sleepy eyes and a shivering expression while their complexions generally appeared to have taken on the colour of the fog outside When day dawned two passengers in one of the third class carriages found themselves opposite each other Both were young fellows both were rather poorly dressed both had remarkable faces and both were evidently anxious to start a conversation If they had but known why at this particular moment they were both remarkable persons they would undoubtedly have wondered at the strange chance which had set them down opposite to one another in a third class carriage of the Warsaw Railway Company One of them was a young fellow of about twenty seven not tall with black curling hair and small grey fiery eyes His nose was broad and flat and he had high cheek bones his thin lips were constantly compressed into an impudent ironical it might almost be called a malicious smile but his forehead was high and well formed and atoned for a good deal of the ugliness of the lower part of his face A special feature of this physiognomy was its death like pallor which gave to the whole man an indescribably emaciated appearance in spite of his hard look and at the same time a sort of passionate and suffering expression which did not harmonize with his impudent sarcastic smile and keen self satisfied bearing He wore a large fur or rather astrachan overcoat which had kept him warm all night while his neighbour had been obliged to bear the full severity of a Russian November night entirely unprepared His wide sleeveless mantle with a large cape to it the sort of cloak one sees upon travellers during the winter months in Switzerland or North Italy was by no means adapted to the long cold journey through Russia from Eydkuhnen to St Petersburg The wearer of this cloak was a young fellow also of about twenty six or twenty seven years of age slightly above the middle height very fair with a thin pointed and very light coloured beard his eyes were large and blue and had an intent look about them yet that heavy expression which some people affirm to be a peculiarity as well as evidence of an epileptic subject His face was decidedly a pleasant one for all that refined but quite colourless except for the circumstance that at this moment it was blue with cold He held a bundle made up of an old faded silk handkerchief that apparently contained all his travelling wardrobe and wore thick shoes and gaiters his whole appearance being very un Russian
